

NEWS OF SOCIETY

The formal opening of the Polly Prim tea room to the public will take place Saturday morning at 11 o'clock, when luncheon will be served to patrons. Luncheon will be served daily from 11 until 2 o'clock; tea from 4 until 6 o'clock, and dinner from 6 until 8 o'clock, by appointment or engagement. The tea rooms are very attractive and done in detail in Colonial style, and there is a delightful old-fashioned garden in the rear, where tea will be served. The tea rooms are being opened by Ethel Conaway Peters, formerly of Indianapolis. A cordial invitation is extended by Mrs. Peters to the business women and girls of the city to make use of the rest room, which has been included for them.

For the pleasure of Miss Doris McKee, of Grand Rapids, Mich., and Mrs. John Crawford, Mrs. Wilbur Oran Crawford entertained with a charming auction bridge party at her home on North Tenth street, Friday afternoon. Bouquets of beautifully colored garden flowers were artistically arranged about the rooms. Bridge was played at five tables during the afternoon. In the late afternoon, delicious refreshments were served to the following guests: Miss McKee, Mrs. John Crawford, Miss Helen Rethmeyer, Mrs. Carl Miller, Mrs. Edward Williams, Mrs. Robert Coate, Miss Helen Johnson, Miss Mary Lahman, Miss Maxine Murray, Miss Marjorie Gennett, Mrs. Horatio Land, Mrs. Earl Bullerick, Mrs. Mary Graines, Miss Mary Nicholson, Miss Florence Kendrick, of Pittsfield, Ill., Miss Mary Reinhard, Mrs. Robert Land, Miss Jane Carpenter, Miss Virginia McDonald, of Huntingdon, W. Va., Miss Mary Louise Bates, Miss Janet Seeker and Mrs. Crawford.

Mrs. Isaac Wilson was hostess to the members of the Recreation Circle Thursday afternoon at her home on the Liberty pike. Baskets of gladioli, centaurea, golden glow, zenias and phlox beautifully decorated the rooms. A program was given, including readings by Mrs. Charles Williams and Mrs. Earl Beeson. Late in the afternoon a dainty lunch was served to about 20 persons by the hostess. The guests included Mrs. Wilson Magaw, Mrs. Charles Williams, Mrs. Louis Beeson, Mrs. Missie, Mrs. William Beeson, Mrs. Robert Druley, Mrs. Earl Beeson, Mrs. Winfield Smelser, Mrs. Howard Hartman and Mrs. Wilson.

The members of the Coterie club were enjoyably entertained by Mrs. E. K. Wilson Thursday afternoon at her home on the National road west, for the pleasure of her house guest, Mrs. Mary Boone, of Selma, Ohio. Mrs. Arthur Test, of Ohio, also was a guest of the club. The afternoon was spent informally with needlework. About 25 guests were present.

For the pleasure of Miss Echo Roland, whose engagement to Walter M. Johnson was recently announced, Mrs. Carl Young delightfully entertained with a linen shower Thursday afternoon at her home on North Fifteenth street. Miss Roland received a number of very pretty gifts. Those present were: Miss Roland, Miss Edith Slawke, Miss Phyllis Butler, Mrs. Merle Bowen, Mrs. James Hiatt and Mrs. Young.

A weiner roast was enjoyed by a part of young people Wednesday evening, after which they motored to Beechwood park, and attended the dance there. Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Brians delightfully entertained Thursday evening at their home on West Fifth street for the pleasure of Mrs. E. E. Miller and her guests, Miss Leola Davis, of Walnut Hill, Cincinnati, Ohio, and for Miss Marjorie and Jennie Louise Callender of Washington C. H., Ohio. A camp supper was cooked over an open fire and music and games were enjoyed during the evening. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Miller, Miss Leola Davis of Cincinnati, Miss Marjorie and Miss Jennie Louise Callender of Washington C. H., Ohio, Alice Hunt, Louis Miller, Edward Brains, of Pittsburgh, Pa., Master Elmer Miller, Jr., and Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Brians.

The Idlewhile club was entertained with a pretty party by Mrs. Ferd Smelser, Wednesday afternoon at her home on South Eighth street. Mrs. Anthony Bullock was the guest of the club for the afternoon. The afternoon was spent informally with needlework. Baskets of garden flowers decorated the rooms. In the late afternoon refreshments were served to the following guests by the hostess: Mrs. Bullock, Mrs. Carl Witte, Mrs. Carl Stanning, Mrs. Elmer Klehfoth, Mrs. Ivan Gardner, Mrs. Carl Bager, Mrs. Laura Follert, Mrs. Horace Parker and Mrs. Smelser.

About 30 Richmond members of the Eden Rebekah lodge No. 30, I. O. O. F., attended the Preble county picnic, held Thursday at Eaton, Ohio. An elaborate picnic luncheon was served to those present at noon, several addresses were made by speakers during the afternoon, games and sports were enjoyed, and music was furnished throughout the day by the Eaton band. For the pleasure of her house guests, Miss Madeline Paul, of Springfield, Ohio, and Miss Helen O'Neill, of Middletown, Ohio, Miss Pauline Maher entertained with a very pretty party Thursday evening at her home on North Thirteenth street. Garden flowers decorated the rooms and the porch, and lights, shaded with Japanese lanterns, illuminated the porch and the lawn. Music for dancing was furnished by a three-piece orchestra. In the late evening a dainty luncheon was served to the following persons: Miss O'Neill, Miss Paul, Miss Virginia Buche, Miss Ellen McCarty, Miss Alice Hipskind, Miss Vera Plattin, Miss Marie Connell, Miss Almira Stauber, Miss Dorothy Coyle, Miss Margaret Calvelage, Miss Pauline Maher, Mrs. Henry Paul of Springfield, Ohio, Mrs. James Maher, Mrs. A.
