

REPUBLICANS TO OPEN CAMPAIGN IN SIXTH WITH DISTRICT RALLY

The Republican campaign in the sixth congressional district probably will be opened with a district rally to be held in Richmond about the middle of September, according to George A. Elliott of Newcastle, district chairman, who was in Richmond Tuesday night to attend an organizational meeting of members of the Wayne county Republican central committee. "I am hoping that both Senator Watson and Mr. Beveridge will address the district meeting in Richmond," Mr. Elliott said. "I have received word from Senator Watson that he will deliver at least two speeches in the sixth district during the fall campaign, and that he might find it possible to address four meetings. Mr. Beveridge expects to address several district meetings."

Mrs. A. W. Roach, an active party worker, was elected vice chairman of the Republican county committee at a meeting held Tuesday evening. Miss Griffin White also was elected to the position. As vice chairman, Mrs. Roach will have charge of the women's activities during the fall campaign.

SEVERAL ADDRESSES

Following the election of a vice chairman, the party workers were addressed by Rep. Richard N. Elliott, district chairman. George Elliott and Judge David Meyers, of Decatur county. Chairman Elliott urged the precinct committees to begin work immediately on the taking of the ninety-day poll. He said the state committee was anxious to have a complete poll of the state by August 10. Mr. Elliott also mentioned the fact another registration of voters was required this fall, and that there would be only two registration periods, the first, Sept. 9, and the second, Oct. 9. He asked the committee members to remind the voters that it would be necessary for them to register if they desired to participate in the November election.

BUSINESS WOMEN TO MEET IN CHURCH

The attention of business women of the city, who attend the Virginia chamber business women's council, which have been held in Glen Hiller park each Tuesday evening for the past several weeks, is called to an announcement that the council will meet at the Reid Memorial United Methodist church, on North Eleventh street, Tuesday evening, Aug. 8, instead.

Harold Family Decides To Publish Family History

Publication of a family history was decided upon at the annual gathering of the Harold family in Indianapolis last week. Miss Haley Harold announced Friday. The history is now practically ready for the printer she said. Former officers of the reunion were elected at the meeting, with the exception of the secretary. Mrs. N. E. Harold of Indianapolis, was elected as secretary to succeed Maude Stanton, Carmel, Ind.
