

SOCIETY

Three hundred Phi Delta Kappa fraternity members and friends formed one of the largest and most gala of Labor Day gatherings when they were entertained Monday at Beechwood. The guests were from all parts of Indiana and Ohio. George Brenizer, president of the local chapter, and Mrs. Brenizer, entertained with a luncheon Monday noon at the Polly Prim Tea-room for the fraternity's national officers, their wives, and friends. Those for whom covers were laid included the following national officers: Floyd Koogler, of Dayton, Ohio, sergeant-at-arms; S. M. Warner, of Warsaw, vice-president; R. F. Kaser, of Sidney, Ohio, National president; George Meyers, of Newcastle, outer guard; Donald Parsons, of Colina, O., master of ceremonies; Edward J. Kaufman, of Tippecanoe City, Ohio, inner guard; and L. D. Jessup of this city, national auditor. Other guests at the luncheon were: R. M. Worrell, of Clayton; H. A. Dennis, of Middletown, Ohio; Edgar Allen Moss, of Marion, Editor-in-chief of the Phi Delta Kappa magazine; Sam Bemandier, of Muncie, and R. A. Hoeffler, of Muncie. One hundred and fifty couples attended the afternoon and evening party at Beechwood. Picnic stunts were given during the afternoon and William A. Friede, who on his own initiative organized an exclusive society within the fraternity at its recent national convention re-organized his band during the afternoon for the entertainment of all the guests. A fried chicken supper was served at 6 o'clock. Dancing was to commence at 8 o'clock and continue throughout the evening. Music will be furnished by Jess Halberstadt and his players. Photographs of the affair are to be taken by Hirschburg. Hand-some and elaborate decorations in the fraternity's colors of red and black have been used throughout the place for the occasion and all the members attending will wear the newly adopted headgear of the order, a red fez with black tassel. The 100 visiting Phi Delta Kappas in attendance at the picnic and dance are from the following places: Dayton, Ohio, Warren, Kokomo, Middletown, Ohio, Clayton, Warsaw, Portland Marion, Sidney, Newcastle, Hamilton Ohio, Eaton, Ohio, Xenia, Ohio, Muncie, Connersville, Colina, Ohio, Tippecanoe City, Ohio, Union City, Greenville, Ohio, Indianapolis, and Winchester.

Several informal luncheon parties were given at the Country club Sunday by members. Baskets of fruit, black tassel. The 100 visiting Phi Delta Kappas at other garden flowers formed decorations on the tables. Among those for whom covers were laid were: Mr. and Mrs. William Dudley Foulke, Mrs. Bancroft and Mrs. Gillette, of England, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas B. Jenkins, Mr. and Mrs. H. Shuman Jones, Mr. and Mrs. James A. Carr, Mr. and Mrs. Ray E. Shively, Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Beatty, Mr. and Mrs. Willard Z. Carr, Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Celebrate Fiftieth Wedding Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. William Torbeck

Mr. and Mrs. William H. Torbeck, of South Twelfth street, will celebrate their golden wedding anniversary Tuesday, Sept. 5. Mr. Torbeck was born Sept. 12, 1850, in Germany, and came to America when 10 years old. He has lived here virtually all his life and for more than 52 years has been and still is employed by the J. M. Hutton company. He has been foreman in the finishing department for 50 years. He is a member of St. Andrew's church, was a trustee in the church for 23 years and also a member of St. Joseph society, of which he was treasurer for 16 years and president for a period of 12 years.

Mrs. Torbeck, nee Amelia Mary Witte, was born Nov. 3, 1853 in Richmond. She and Mr. Torbeck were married in St. Andrew's Catholic church Sept. 5, 1872. They were attended by Miss Louise Witte, of South Fifth street, sister of Mrs. Torbeck, and Henry Torbeck, of South Fifth street, brother of Mr. Torbeck. They had eight children, of whom four are living: Clara and Eleanor Torbeck, who live at home, Ed. P. Torbeck, of Chicago, and Andrew Torbeck of this city; three grandchildren, John, Mary and Gertrude Torbeck of South Ninth street.

Relatives, friends and neighbors are invited to call Tuesday afternoon and evening at their home, 343 South Twelfth street.
