

EATON IS DEFEATED BY EAGLES, 5 TO 1 RUNNELS HURLS WELL

By R. R. REID
Carl Runnels pitched a consistent brand of baseball, received excellent support in the field and the Eagles won from Eaton Sunday at Exhibition park by the score of 5 to 1. Runnels did not allow the visitors a hit until the fourth inning when Horn led off with a slow traveling grounder to Minner, at short.

Several players who were to appear at the park for Sunday's game failed to show up and the Eagle management was forced to make several shifts for the game. Knight caught Runnels, Hubbard played third and a new man my the name of Buck filled in at center field.

The lineups proved to round into good shape, however, and the two teams went along in good shape for the first part of the game. In the third frame, the Eagles got to Shoepf for two walks and three hits, coupled with two errors by Eaton players. The result was four runs.

Buck was out at the start of the third frame, Shoepf to Thompson. Runnels reached first on an error by Thompson, who dropped the ball. Fitzgibbons took second on Logan's grounder to short, the Eaton second baseman failing to cover the second sack. Minner took a walk and Byrkettt drove in the first two runners with a double to left. Knight walked. Eubanks hit safely to right and Byrkettt counted. Hubbard singled with a pop fly toward short. Buck then fanned for the third out.

Eaton Scores One.
Eaton showed a bit of offense in the sixth by bunting two hits. Simmons was out at the start, Minner to Byrkettt. Horn reached first on an error by Knight. Shaner was out on a double play at first on a throw by Hubbard. Hubbard fumbled the ball and seemingly got it to first late, but the ump's called the runner out. Kirby singled past third base, but was out at third on a perfect peg by Fitzgibbons after Coons had singled to right.

The final tally of the game was made by the Eagles in their half of the seventh inning. Fitzgibbons was safe on an error by the third baseman, J. Logan singled over short, Fitzgibbons scoring. Minner struck out. Byrkettt was safe at first, but Logan laid down a perfect bunt to the third base line. Eubanks then fouled out to Kirby for the third out.

Two pinch hitters were used by the Ohio team in the ninth in an effort to get men on base, but they both struck out. Coons bled out to Minner for the first out of the frame.

The Connerville Minute-Men were to oppose the Eagles at Exhibition park Monday afternoon.

BARTONIA DEFEATS NEW MADISON NINE

NEW MADISON, Ohio, Sept. 4.—Bartonia was able to rally in the ninth inning here Sunday and defeated the New Madison nine 8 to 6. The home club, scoring five runs in the second and one in the eighth, had a one-run lead at the opening of the ninth, but the rally by the visitors was enough to sew the game up.

Five errors by the New Madison players enabled the visitors to win the game. The local club goes to Eldorado for another of the series games between the two clubs.

YOUTH FALTERS AS OLD AGE TRIUMPHS IN TENNIS TOURNNEY

Veterans of the tennis court were showing the way in several of the matches of the second annual Wayne county men's doubles tennis tournament, being held on the Earlham college courts Monday.

In several cases, the experienced older men were triumphant over youth edging their way to the semi-finals and having hopes of winning the title.

The weather being warm, kept the athletes perspiring all through the matches and it was an extreme work.

Probably the most hotly contested match of the morning play was between Thomas and Brady and Isley and Rethmeyer. The latter two being much older than the boys, seemed to be more insistent and decisive in their play on both offense and defense.

Isley and Rethmeyer took the first set of the match, 6-3, but the latter came back and won a deuce set from the older, 7-5. However, in the third set, the older players took the upper hand and took the long end of the 6-3 score for the match.

Third Round Pairings
The following were paired to enter the third round of play Monday afternoon: King and Bell vs. Ball and Haldy; Allen and Jay vs. Isley and Rethmeyer; Work and Campbell vs. Jones and Hiss.

The winning team of the tournament was to receive a handsome loving cup. The following are the results of the first two rounds of play:
First Round
E. Thomas and W. Brady won from K. Yeager and W. Williams, 6-0, 6-3.

Second Round
K. King and D. Bell won from C. Carter and R. Saine by default.
B. Ball and J. Holaday won from P. Edwards and E. Wildman, 6-0, 6-2.

Crowd Hears Last Talk By Envoy Pauline Schwartz
In spite of the intense heat, a large crowd gathered at Salvation Army headquarters Sunday night to hear the last talk of the series given by Envoy E. Pauline Schwartz. Miss Schwartz chose for her closing address the subject, "Lost Opportunity."

There was one conversion. Salvation Army authorities here state that the regular services will be held during the week, the meeting of the Home League to be held at 2 o'clock Wednesday afternoon and the public service at 8:15 o'clock Thursday evening. Announcement was also made that Capt. Ivy Parsons, of the Bloomington, Ind. citadel will visit the Richmond corps the latter part of this week and the first of next week and that she will be in charge of the services next Tuesday night.

Muncie Midways Win Out Over Losantville in Tenth

LOSANTVILLE, Sept. 4.—The Muncie Midways battled the Losantville team for 10 innings, when they were enabled to score the one and only tally of the game, therefore handing the home club a defeat, which was hard to take.

The teams were evenly matched, but the tenth inning break for the Magic City team was the game decider.

One man was down in the tenth and a base on balls was given by Downing, of Losantville. A single to left and a sacrifice scored the winning tally.

The feature of the game was the fielding of Haas for Muncie. He robbed Losantville of several extra base hits by fast running catches. There were three double plays during the matinee.

REDS WIN MORNING GAME FROM CHICAGO
CINCINNATI, Sept. 4.—Cincinnati continued to humble the Chicago Cubs by winning the morning game here Labor day, 4 to 3. It was a battle all the way through. The Cubs were still smarting from the 17 to 5 trouncing administered by the Redlegs in the final game at Chicago last Saturday and they were anxious to win.

John Couch was superb throughout, allowing the Cubs but five hits. Five errors by the Cubs were largely responsible for the Red win.

Chips and Slips
It was a snappy, lazy day in June. The streets of the little Alabama town were nearly deserted. Along the sidewalk there strolled a courtly gentleman in the frock coat and wide-brimmed hat of the southern colonel. A shifty-eyed duff, much the worse for boot-legger stuff, shambled along in the opposite direction. As the two passed the darky spoke angrily and drunkenly to the colonel, "Git outa ma way, yo' pore white trash, I se a mean nigger."

They buried the darky the next day, down in the little cemetery by the river.

At the trial of the colonel the jury deliberated for two entire minutes. Then they filed in and announced that they had reached a verdict.

The judge called for their verdict. The foreman of the jury arose and in a calm, unperturbed manner spat in the nearest cuspidor.

"Suicide," he said.—Judge.

Young Carl Runnels didn't hurl a half bad game Sunday for the Eagles. He put the ball across the plate and left it to the batter to swing or let it go for a strike. He was given excellent support in the field.

They hit for the CIRCUIT Sunday. Kirke, Louisville; Meusel, New York Giants; Williams, Philadelphia Nationals; Hendryx, St. Paul; Duncan, Cincinnati; Louis Cardinals; Bigbee, Pittsburgh Lober and Simmons, Milwaukee; Brief, Kansas City, 2; Wright, Kansas City.

GREENWOOD PROGRAM SUCCESSFULLY GIVEN

The program by the Townsend Branch of Community Service at the Church of God and Saints of Christ in Greenwood Sunday was a success both financially and socially. A small debt on the church was raised and speeches by local and visiting persons were heard.

Brandon Griffith and Frank Strayer both urged the most friendly spirit between the colored and white races in their addresses. C. R. Richardson spoke on "Community Interest Toward Churches." F. B. Ransom, president of the Indianapolis Y. M. C. A., and Bishop Carey, of Dayton, were two of the more important out-of-town speakers present.

Music was furnished by a choir composed of Richmond, Dayton and Springfield singers. Walter Dennis, of this city, served as master of ceremonies. Approximately 150 people were present.
