Mr. and Mrs. Harry Gennett, South Twenty-first street, announce the marriage of their daughter, Miss Marjorie Gennett, to Dr. Herbert Thompson. The marriage took place Tuesday at Indianapolis, the Rev. Harry Waldo, pastor of the Baptist church of that city, officiating. Dr. and Mrs. Thompson will be at home after November first in the Jefferson apartments.

One of the most charming events of the season was the wedding of Miss Agnes K. Ross, only daughter of Mrs. W. M. Ross, of 419 North Main street, Winchester, to R. Lowell Wilson, son of Mrs. Mary G. Wilson, of Lewisville, which was solemnized with a beautiful and impressive service at 3 o'clock Wednesday afternoon at the First Methodist Episcopal church. Dr. Somerville Light, superintendent of Richmond district, and the Rev. Odis T. Martin, pastor of the Winchester First M. E. church, officiated. The church was handsomely decorated for the occasion. The altar was banked with ferns and great clusters of goldenrod.

Preceding the ceremony a program of bridal airs was played, Mrs. Ernest H. Barnes presiding at the organ. She played Mendelssohn's "Spring Song" and "Hearts and Flowers." Miss June Payne sang the "Prayer Perfect," and Mrs. John L. Cheney played "To a Wild Rose" on the violin. Mrs. Albert Hodgson, of Muncie, sang, "All for You" and "Believe Me if All Those Endearing Young Charms," with violin obligato by Mrs. Cheney.

The bride party entered to the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march. The ministers came from a side entrance meeting the party at the altar. The groomsmen, Messrs. George D. Snyder, Cecil Fisher, Howard C. Baker, all of Indianapolis, and Freeman Collins of Charlottesville, preceded the groom and best man. W. Floyd Wilson, brother of the groom. The bridesmaids followed. Their gowns were of georgette in pastel shades. Miss Mary Jane Browne wore a gown of turquoise blue. Miss Helen Groom was stunning in a frock of lavender shade. Miss Ruth Hinshaw wore jade green, and Mildred Gates, of Markleville, yellow. Each carried an arm bouquet of goldenrod tied with huge bows of yellow tulle.

The maid of honor, Miss Alma Meier, entered next, wearing a beautiful gown of heliotrope canton crepe and carrying an arm bouquet of orchids and white asters. The matron of honor, Mrs. Mary G. Wilson, mother of the groom, was charming in a flowing gown of midnight blue canton crepe. Her corsage was of lavender summer lilacs. The flower girl, little Miss Mary Evelyn Wilson, of Arcadia, niece of the groom, shimmered in the way of the bride with white petals. Her frock was of white net with touches of yellow. The bride entered with her mother, Mrs. W. M. Ross, who was gowned in black canton crepe. The brides gown was an exquisite creation fashioned of white satin and lace. Her veil, falling in cascades over her gown, was gracefully caught in coronet fashion with a band of pearls.

As a recessional Ashford's "Nuptial Music" was played. The ushers were John C. Ross, of Jonesboro; Albert Hodgson, of Muncie; Russell Moorhead, of Phillips, of Winchester. A wedding supper was served at the home of the bride to relatives and members of the bridal party at 5:00 o'clock. Those attending from Winchester were: Mr. and Mrs. Carlo Murray Puckett, Mrs. George Herschel Clark and son Carlton, Mrs. George E. Leggett, Mrs. Otis Martin, Mrs. John Chester Leggett, Mrs. J. A. Browne, John L. Cheney, Ernest Barnes and Mrs. Benjamin F. Marsh.

The out-of-town guests were: Mrs. W. Floyd Wilson, of Arcadia; Mrs. George D. Snyder and daughter Phyllis, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas J. Kizer, Miss Marian Kern, Mrs. E. M. Richardson, Mrs. Nannie Dines of Indianapolis, Mrs. George D. Pontius and son, Paul, of Peru; Mrs. Paul A. Seibeling and son John Paul, Mrs. J. B. Ross, of Jonesboro; Mr. and Mrs. R. Cunningham, of Muncie; Mrs. J. E. O'Hara and Mrs. F. H. Bowman, of Columbus, O.; and Rev. and Mrs. Somerville Light, of Richmond. Those assisting in serving were girl friends of the bride, the Misses Mabel Wright, Irene

Meier, Ruth Bales, Eleanor Leavell, and Marguerite Brown.

The Rev. and Mrs. Lowell Wilson left later in the evening on an extended motor trip. The at-home cards are for Lewisville, where the Rev. Wilson is pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church.
