Cotton Trade Decreased Says Federal Report

(By Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, Sept. 9.—The cotton trade of the world has decreased one-third, or approximately 2,000,000,000 pounds, from the figure which it reached before the war, according to a survey issued today by the commerce department. The combined importation of raw cotton by the 12 principal importing countries of the world in 1921, the survey stated, was 4,412,000,000 pounds as compared with a total of 6,451,000,000 pounds in 1913, while the combined exports of the six principal cotton-producing countries in 1921 aggregated 4,697,000,000 pounds, as against 6,748,000,000 pounds in 1913.

FAMINE END SEEN IN THANKS LETTER

MOSCOW, RUSSIA, Sept. 9.—One of the surest indications that the famine has been stamped out in Russia, according to the American Relief Administration, is the rate at which letters of gratitude and expressions of thanks have been pouring into the Moscow office of the administration during the last few weeks.
