

NEWS EVENTS OF THE DAY SEEN THROUGH THE EYE OF THE CAMERA

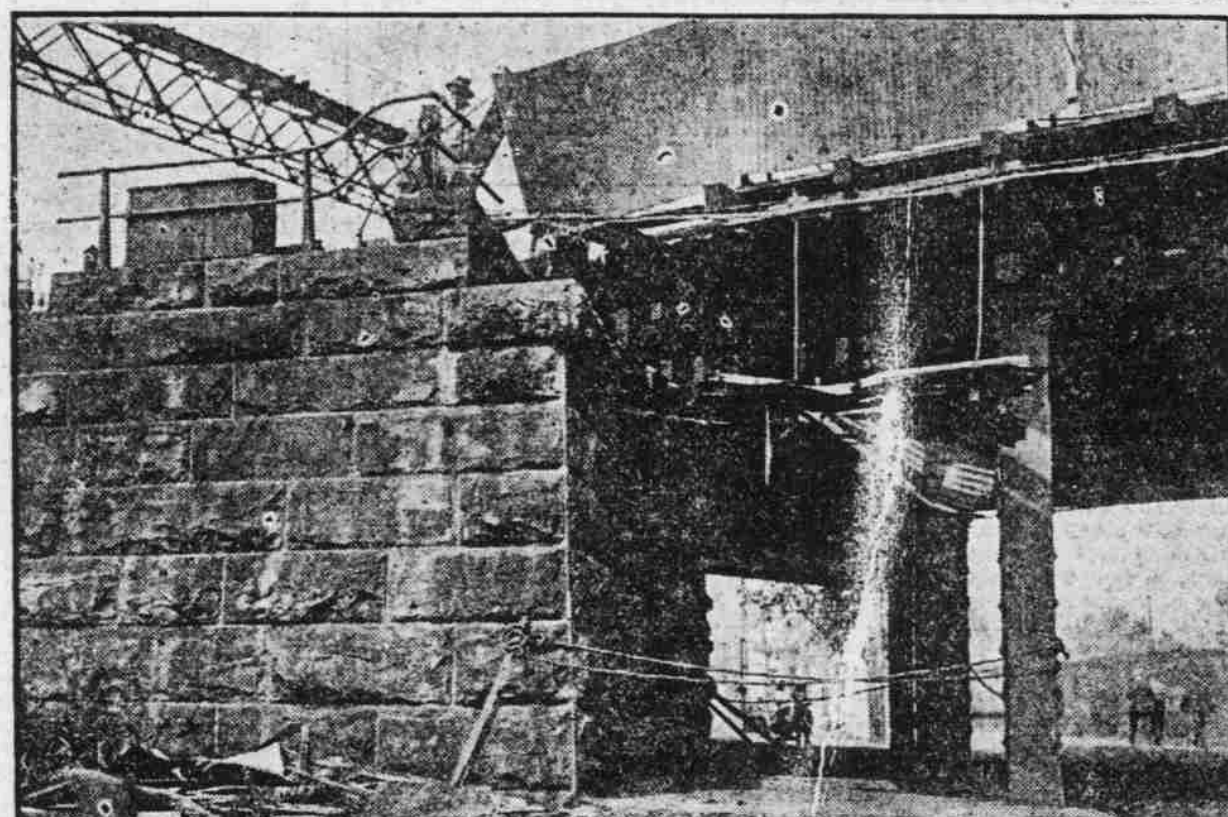

MILDRED WELCH

Miss Mildred Welch, an American girl, who has been selected to teach in a Chinese university. Miss Welch, who was graduated last year, gained considerable prominence during her college career, frequently being selected to represent American collegiate bodies at international meetings in Europe.

Laying a wreath on the tomb of France's unknown soldier as a tribute from the American Legion.

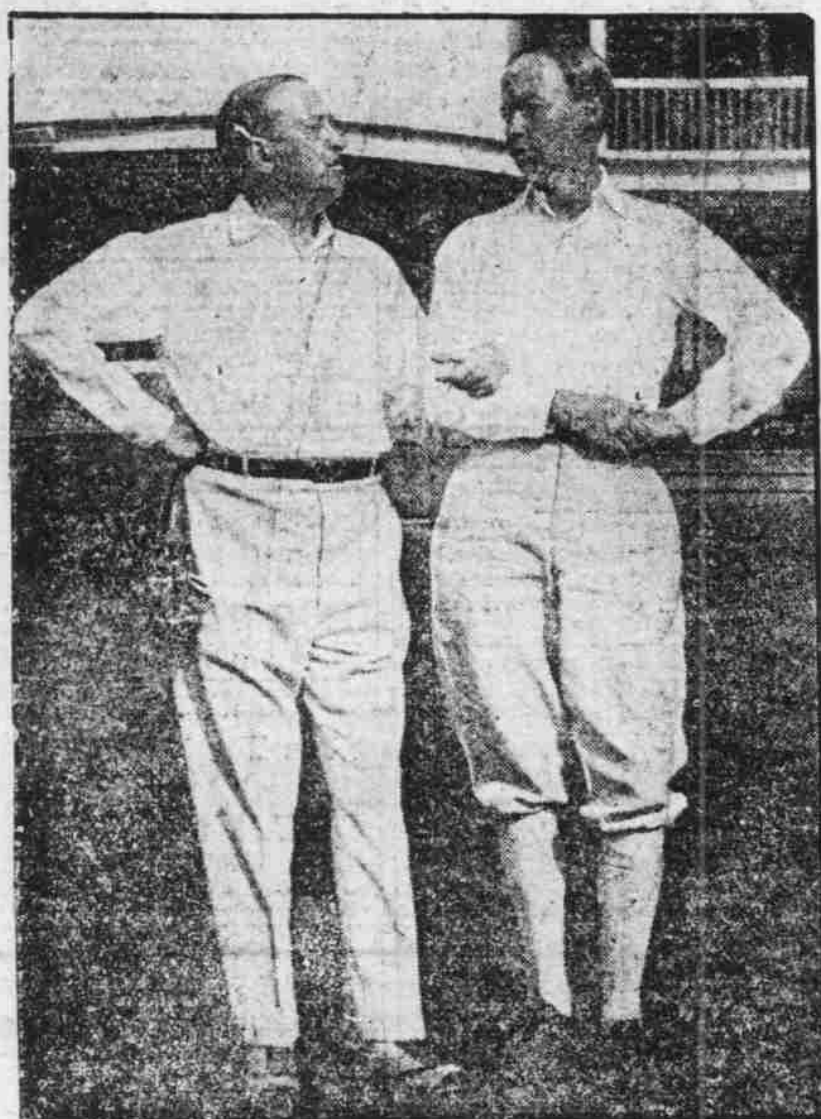

Seeking to end such acts as dynamiting of this Wilmington, Del., bridge, the U. S. obtained a sweeping injunction to restrain rail strikes.

Miss Rosemary Pfaff.

There's a limit to everything—even to the patronizing and dictatorial air of wealthy society women who are using their cash to further one's musical career. So decided Rosemary Pfaff, eighteen-year-old Chicago singer, and thereupon she will forego opportunities offered her by Edith Rockefeller McCormick and Mrs. Archibald H. Freer, and strike out for New York.

(By Pacific & Atlantic)

Little hope is held out for the recovery of Albert Johnson (right), husband of Peggy Marsh, who accidentally shot himself at Camp Jack, Merrill, N. Y. The above photo is one of the latest of Johnson, with Joseph Fejer, an old friend, who was with the party.

By means of the landing gear he is showing above, Lawrence Sperry, leader in aeronautic inventions, has made it possible for an airplane to land and stop within fifty feet after touching the ground.

Dr. Royal S. Copeland, Health Commissioner of New York, declares that short skirts are more healthful than the long ones.

Mr. D. M. Schaeffer, civil aid to chief of the bureau of construction, who will have charge of the navy exhibits at the Brazilian exposition.

Georges Carpentier, famous French boxer, who is as popular in America as he is in his native land, seen with his wife and little Miss Carpentier on the beach at Dieppe.

Crinkled satin is one of the season's new fabrics which may be used to give a different effect to the new long dress. Since all the gowns seem to be made with long, loose side panels, a low waistline and a plain blouse, the material is the only thing which can be "different." Satin cotelet is one of many names for this new satin.

Princess Hermine of Reuss with two of her children.

The London Daily Mail recently printed a rumor the ex-Kaiser Wilhelm of Germany will become betrothed to Princess Hermine of Reuss shortly after October 22, the date of the late ex-kaiser's birthday. The princess is said to have visited Doorn, the Kaiser's exile home, recently. She has five children and is the widow of Jean-Georges, prince of Schonach-Carolath. She owns a large estate in Saarbr, German Silesia.

Karl's Ulmanis.

Karl's Ulmanis, pilot of the Latvian ship of state, has introduced American business methods in his country. He was formerly a professor in the agricultural department of the University of Nebraska. Latvia is a little slice of the old Russian empire in the Baltic region.

MAJOR FAIRFAX MORGAN, D.S.O., D.F.C. WHO WILL ATTEMPT TO FLY ACROSS THE PACIFIC FROM SAN FRANCISCO.

Because Louis D. Coudere, chief baker of the steamship Finland, established the amazing record of baking 24,000,000 loaves of bread, he was presented with the Belgian industrial decoration.

The coveted Davis cup with Dwight W. Davis, the donor, at left, and Julian S. Myrick, president of the lawn tennis association.

The recent victory of the American tennis team in defense of the Davis cup gives America possession of the cup again for the sixth time. In defeating the Australasian team in the challenge round this year the U. S. net stars equalled the Aussies' record in the Davis matches. The Australasian team has won six cup matches. The British team has triumphed five times. The victorious U. S. team is composed of William Tilden, William M. Johnston, R. Norris Williams and Vincent Richards.