MEETING ON RELIGIOUS EDUCATION PRECEDES PRESBYTERIAN SYNOD

As a prelude to the ninety-seventh annual meeting of the Synod of Indiana of the Presbyterian church in the United States, which is to be held in the First Presbyterian church here beginning Tuesday evening, the pre-synodical conference on religious education will be conducted Tuesday afternoon under the direction of the Rev. R. J. McLandres of Indianapolis. The Rev. Buford W. Taylor, D.D., of Terra Haute, chairman of the committee on home missions, will preside.

The program for this conference is as follows:
3:00—Devotions.
3:10—Address, "Advance in Young People's Work," by Rev. William Ralph Hall, Director of Young People's Work, Board of Publication and Sabbath School Work.

3:40—Address, "Credit for Bible Study in High Schools," by E. L. Rickert, former President of Board of Control Bible Study for Credit, Indiana high schools.

4:10—Address, "The Week-day Church School," by Miss Mary E. Abernethy, Principal of the Church School at Gary, Ind.

4:40—Conference on above subjects.
5:30—Adjournment.

Evening Session
The first session of the meeting of the synod proper will open at 7:30 o'clock Tuesday evening when Rev. Henry B. Hostetter, of Ft. Wayne, pre-synod Moderator of the Synod of Indiana, delivers the opening sermon. This session will be largely taken up by the transaction of business which will complete the ground-work of the annual meeting. At this session will be elected the new Moderator and the temporary clerks. The present Moderator, as chairman of the committee on arrangements, will give the report of that committee.

Notice is to be given to the delegates that lodging and breakfast will be furnished them free and that the noon and evening meals will be furnished at the church at the rate of fifty cents per plate.

Expect 150 Delegates
It is expected that there will be at least 150 delegates in attendance at the meeting of the Synod of Indiana, who will represent the eight Presbyteries into which the state is divided. The Synod of Indiana is covered by the territory of this state which territory is divided into eight districts known as Presbyteries. Each Presbytery will be represented at the meeting of the Synod here. There are approximately 450 Presbyterian churches in the Synod of Indiana.

The first official meetings in connection with the synod will occur when the Home mission committee meets at the First Presbyterian church here Monday evening at 7:30 o'clock, and at 10 o'clock Tuesday morning the Committee on Education will hold its preliminary meeting.

599 PUPILS ATTEND TOWNSHIP SCHOOLS

The statistician's report for the year 1921-22 in the township trustee's office gives a good idea of the school work accomplished and the number of pupils graduated, with other matters of interest. A total of 599 pupils, 288 boys and 311 girls, was enrolled during the year.

Of the elementary schools in the township last year, four were two-room and seven had only one room. Only one had more than two teachers. The exception was Number 10, and it had four teachers. Number 10 has been closed and the pupils transferred to Number nine.

From the eighth grade, 22 boys and 33 girls were promoted to the high school.

District schools in the township are valued at $100,000 and the grounds at $5,000. The special school tax was 36 cents on the $100, the tuition tax was 45 cents, and the library fund three cents. A bond fund tax amounted to eight cents.

Special supervisors' salaries totaled $1,460 in the eight months, elementary school principals' salaries $8,160, and elementary teachers' salaries $12,200.

7,500 Bankers Gather For Annual Convention

NEW YORK, Oct. 2.—The 48th annual convention of the American Bankers association, got under way today with most of the 7,500 delegates in attendance. A program of business and entertainment will take up five days. Strikes, the future of labor unions, agriculture, thrift promotion and economic relations with Europe are among the topics to be discussed.

There will be addresses by Reginald McKenna, former chancellor of the British exchequer, on "Reparations and International Debts," Herbert Hoover, secretary of commerce; and Frank A. Munsey, who recently returned from an economical study of Europe and many others.

TAG DAY RECEIPTS TOTAL $2,102.98

Contributions amounting to $2,102.98 were reported Monday as the total receipts from tag day held for Reid Memorial hospital Saturday. This was about $100 in excess of the amount given by the public in last year's tag day.

The largest single amount was reported by the workers at the Pennsylvania station. Mrs. Reba Shrieves and Mrs. T. J. Ferguson, their district also including shops in the vicinity of the station.

Hosts of taggers worked up to a late hour Saturday evening. Many were at their posts at 7:30 o'clock in the morning and much of the success of the drive was due to their efforts, it is said. The public showed unusual generosity and good spirit in its response.

TOWNSHIP TRUSTEES PAY OUT $2,878.96

Medical and hospital bills amounting to $1800 were paid off by the township trustee's office during the past quarter, and other expenditures among the poor of the township raised the total to $2,878.96. This statement was filed with the county commissioners by Township Trustee, J. O. Edgerton, Monday.

The $2,800 total include $200 paid out for township physician's salaries as well as $100.74 in transportation expenses of three poor families sent to their homes out of the county. It is estimated that this latter expenditure saved the county at least $100 per family during the quarter, as this is the usual amount paid out in such cases.

ST. PAUL LUTHERAN SUNDAY SCHOOL RALLY

Stressing the molding of the lives of young people today, Ed Jackson, secretary of state, spoke before a large attendance at St. Paul's Lutheran Sunday school rally day exercises Sunday.

He said the lives of young people should be given consideration as they never had before, for the future welfare of our nation. His speech was an exceedingly forceful one.

An unprecedented attendance was recorded. There were 637 persons present, 453 of whom were adults and 184 in the primary and junior departments. The nearest number to this ever enrolled at a Sunday school service at this church was 590, which was recorded at the rally day exercises six years ago. It is coincidental that Mr. Jackson was in attendance here on that day.

FAITH IN NEXT LIFE EXPRESSED AT JEWISH MEMORIAL SERVICES

Belief in immortality is innate, Harry L. Kronman, a student at the Hebrew Union college at Cincinnati, declared at the Memorial service of the Hebrew church held in the K. of P. temple Monday afternoon as a part of the Day of Atonement exercises.

"The fact that there is such a thing as immortality is taken from three sources as proofs," said Mr. Kronman. "The first of these is the belief of all humanity for all ages that there is a future life."

"The second reason is that since everything in nature has a definite purpose in life, it is impossible to believe that the spirit of life which is the only thing without a purpose. We cannot entirely fulfill our purpose in this life, so it must be in an after life that the realization of this purpose will come to pass and our goal attained."

"The third reason is the innate feeling that some day we will re-unite with those who have died and this longing is so strong that it becomes a reason for our belief in mortality."

Explaining Hebrew Mission, "The Jew has always felt that he has a mission in this life and he comes to this feeling through the idea that duty must be proportional to ability," said Mr. Kronman at his Monday morning lecture. "The Jew has always had the peculiar faculty for determining moral values and he feels that this mission of his is to lead a model life, a life which the rest of the world may take as an example. This is the mission of the Jew and if he does live this model life, then all arguments advanced by those who have been his antagonists will be automatically swept away."

"Let our broken and contrite hearts speak the word and God will be merciful and hear," was the plea of Mr. Kronman in his opening lecture of the Day of Atonement exercises held Sunday night. "God is ever waiting to forgive our sins if we will be patient."

Day of Atonement
"The Day of Atonement is the most personal of all Jewish holidays, it is a day for the individual and the present," Mr. Kronman said "it is a day when we may approach God individually with a prayer for the future." The speaker recounted the purposes of other Jewish holidays and stated that there were none so universal nor so lasting as the Day of Atonement.
