CHARITY WORKERS OF STATE GATHER FOR 1922 SESSION

SOUTH BEND, Ind., Oct. 7.—Charity workers and leaders in other forms of social service are in South Bend for the opening tonight of the thirty-first annual session of the Indiana State conference of charities and correction. The meeting will continue through Tuesday.

Tonight's program will be brief, consisting of invocation, a welcome by the Honorable Eli Seebirt, mayor of South Bend, and addresses by Rabbi Morris M. Feuerlicht, president of the organization, and George A. A. Shidler, superintendent of the Indiana Reformatory now located at Jeffersonville.

Rabbi Feuerlicht will speak on "A Community Program for Child Welfare," while Mr. Shidler will talk on "Problems of the Reformatory and How We Expect to Meet Them in the New Institution." A new state reformatory is being erected just outside of Pendleton to replace that at Jeffersonville.

Speaks on Program

Gov. McCray of Indiana, Homer Folks, president of the National conference of Social Work, New York; Alexander Johnson, of Ft. Wayne; Dr. William F. King, the new secretary of the Indiana State Board of Health; Amos Butler, secretary of the board of state charities, and others are on the program for addresses during the four days meeting.

The visiting delegates will speak in various churches in South Bend and nearby cities and towns tomorrow morning, according to announcement. A mass meeting is scheduled for the afternoon, with Gov. McCray, Mr. Folks and Mr. Johnson as the speakers. Mr. Johnson was the first secretary of the Indiana Board of State Charities.

Dr. King will preside over a general session in the evening. Mrs. Curtis Hodges, of Indianapolis, who is connected with the Riley Memorial hospital association, and Robert W. Felse, executive secretary, Council of Social Agencies, Boston, will speak.

Long sessions are scheduled for Monday and Tuesday.

FARM IMPLEMENTS FOR CHINESE

The Canton Christian College has been instrumental in introducing small farming implements into China from this country, and by their use the capacity of the small farmer is greatly increased. It is now possible to support a family of five upon a two-acre truck patch.

Compare Cars by standardized tests As Experts Do

There are 12 vital tests used by automotive engineers in judging different makes of cars. Their method is now available to the public.

Three years ago we gave to the public the accepted standards of comparison used by the leading automotive engineers. Previously their method had been a trade secret because it was so technical.

We simplified the method yet retained every fundamental element of comparison. We introduced then the first Marmon Demonstration week. We prepared a score-card which made it possible for anyone to compare several cars and know exactly what each could do.

So welcome and so successful was this plan that we have continued it and now announce the Third Annual Marmon Demonstration Week, October 9 to 14.

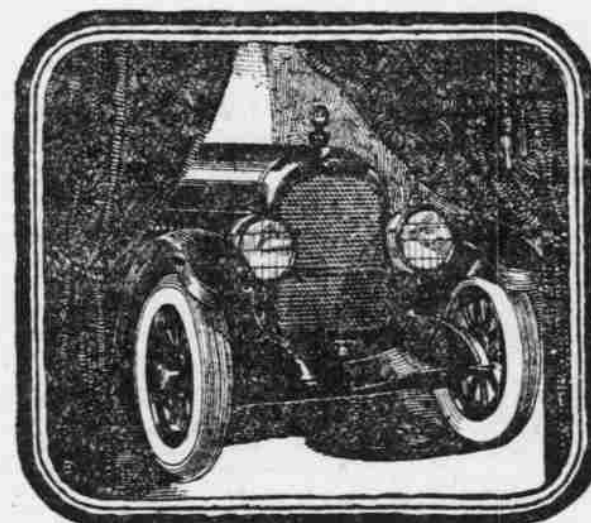

We invite every car owner to take advantage of this great educational opportunity. Marmons will be available for all who wish to conduct comparisons. The score-card shows how to put cars through the 12 vital tests of performance and how to score and compare.

This invitation is open to all, whether or not in the market for a new car. Those who accept will not be importuned to buy. Remember, we have advocated higher standards of comparison for three years and we hold this Demonstration Week each year in the cause of education, primarily. We are looking ahead—we know that the more people who can compare cars wisely will eventually join the contented group of Marmon owners.

So do not hesitate, please, to accept this invitation. Call or telephone. A Marmon will be placed at your disposal.

The new Marmon Phaeton, with the wonderful Panorama Top, is now on exhibit, together with other Marmon models. It is the finest Marmon of them all, with dozens of betterments, yet its low price, maintenance economy and dependability make it today's most attractive purchase among fine cars.
