EATON YOUTH ASKS $10,000 FOR LOSING HAND IN CANE MILL

EATON, Ohio, Oct. 12.—For the loss of his right hand, which allegedly was crushed and mangled in machinery of a cane mill to such an extent that amputation was necessary, Lloyd Alcorn, 18 years old, filed suit Wednesday for $10,000 against R. J. Scheid, owner of the mill, in common pleas court. An additional $110, alleged to represent a bill for medical services, is sought.

Because of Alcorn's age, the suit was entered for him by his father, Albert D. Alcorn, as his next friend. The complaint charges Scheid with carelessness and negligence, in that safety devices allegedly were absent in the mill and the machinery was not properly guarded.

The accident befell Alcorn Sept. 19. The cane mill is situated in Eaton and both the Alcorns and Scheid reside in Eaton.
