

ODD FELLOWS HEAR GRAND WARDEN TALK AT PREBLE MEETING

EATON, Ohio, Oct. 19.—Grand Warden Brown, of Lebanon, was a guest and speaker at the semi-annual meeting of the Preble County Odd Fellows association, held here Wednesday afternoon and evening in Odd Fellows hall. He spoke at an open session in the afternoon, when a program of exercises was presented.

C. R. Coblenz, of New Paris, and C. H. Moses, West Manchester, also were speakers. D. E. Howell, of Lebanon, presented a history of Odd Fellowship. Joseph Neal of Eaton gave an address of welcome to which C. R. Coblenz, New Paris, responded.

The Rev. Hiley Baker, of the Eaton Christian church, offered prayer. An orchestra furnished music. A brief business session was held after the close of the program.

The evening session was given over to degree work. West Manchester lodge degree staff conferred the initiatory degree on a class of candidates and Camden lodge degree staff conferred the first degree. A banquet preceded the evening session.

Two days meeting of the Dayton district Ministerial association of the Methodist church opened here Thursday in St. Paul's Methodist church, of which the Rev. Vinton E. Busler is pastor.

Bishop W. F. Anderson, of Cincinnati, and Dr. E. O. Crist, of Dayton, new superintendent of the Dayton district Methodist conference, are attending the meeting. The association has a membership of about 30.

Suit to recover $235 on a mortgage note has been entered by George E. Beard against Leonard, Charles and Robert Stayton in common pleas court. Beard avers the mortgage note was on an automobile owned by Emmet Fitzer and the Staytons procured the car from Fitzer on a garage bill, they having agreed to satisfy the note held by Beard, according to Beard's complaint. He asks for six percent interest from Nov. 15, 1918, claiming the note has not been satisfied.

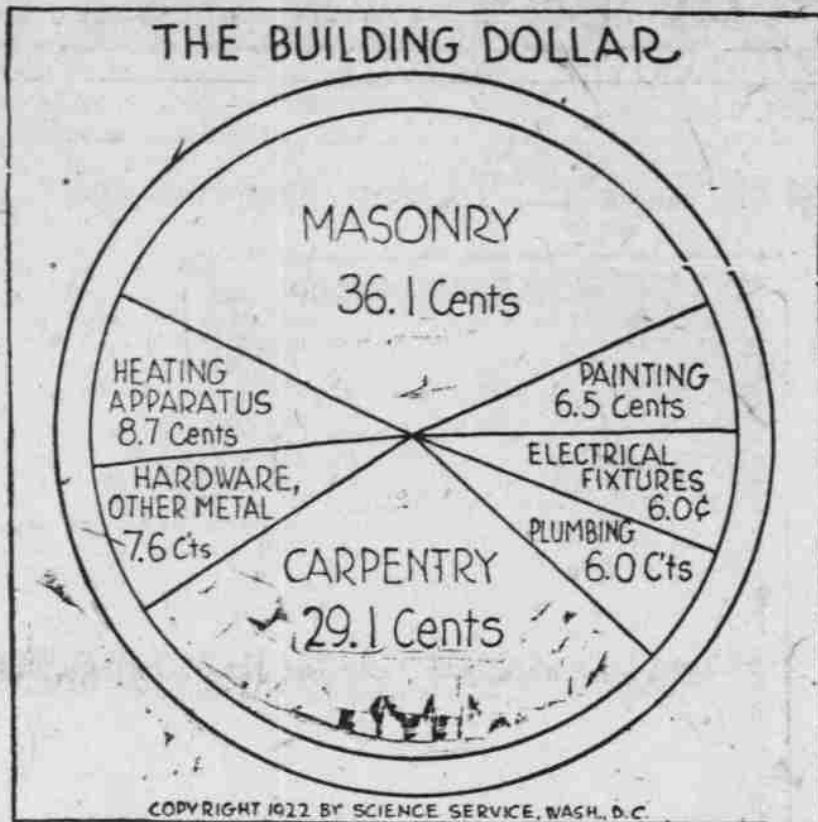

GO-OP COW TESTING ASS'N CONTEMPLATED

The organization of a co-operative cow testing association in Wayne county is contemplated by a number of dairymen who are interested. Contract forms have been obtained and are being signed. It is said that the association will be completed as soon as 25 signatures have been obtained. William Buckland, of near Richmond, has the honor of being the first signer and it is stated by Manager Schutte of the farmers' co-operative dairy, that a large number of its members are in favor of the association, and are ready to sign up. Ed Paul, well known dairyman of western Wayne county, is another who has given his endorsement.

As a result of interest and desire for further information on cow testing that were shown by local dairymen, arrangements were made a short time ago through County Agent Dolan, to have Prof. G. A. Williams, Purdue dairy expert, explain to Wayne county dairy producers, the operation of a testing association. The present movement is the outcome of that meeting, and if enough dairymen, after investigation, decide the association will be profitable for them, it will be completed.

Such an association operates by hiring a professional tester. It is his duty to spend one day with each member's herd, testing each cow's milk and assisting the member to work out any production problems he may have. A small monthly charge is made, which covers work for a herd of not more than 30 cows.

A new device has been brought out by a French inventor which detects icebergs when they are six miles away.

CELINA MEN TO FACE LIQUOR LAW CHARGES

GREENVILLE, Ohio, Oct. 19.—Virgil Dixon and John Beams, both of Celina, will be arraigned in court Monday to plead to the indictments charging the two with furnishing, selling and delivering intoxicating liquors contrary to the prohibition laws. The men were arrested and taken before Judge Teegarden Wednesday, who fixed the bond of each at $1,500. Dixon gave bond with John Bollinger as security, but Beams has been unable to secure bond.

Case Is Dismissed.
The case of John Jones against Della Rich, up before Judge Teegarden and a jury in common pleas court, was dismissed without prejudice by the plaintiff owing to the fact that he was unable to get witnesses, who were in Indiana, to testify in his behalf. Suit was brought to recover some $485 and interest alleged to be due the plaintiff from the defendant.

Woodrow Wilson May Be Unable To Cast Vote Because Of N. Y. Law

TRENTON, N. J., Oct. 19.—Decision by the Mercer county board of elections to enforce the New Jersey election law of 1920, which provides that a voter must cast his ballot in the district "in which he actually resides, and not elsewhere, probably will deprive former President Woodrow Wilson of his voting privilege in New Jersey this year.

Mr. Wilson formerly lived in Princeton, which is a part of Mercer county, and voted in the college town, while he was president of the United States. He can not vote in the district of Columbia where he now lives, and the ruling made yesterday bars him from voting here, according to the view of local officials.

The county board of elections has rejected the applications of half a dozen persons who formerly voted in this county and now live elsewhere, among them being several government employees who live in Washington and have been voting in New Jersey.

Mr. Wilson's registration has not been received, and he has until Oct. 24 to make application to vote.

POSTAL EMPLOYEES TO ENJOY HOLIDAYS

Postal employees may have a fuller opportunity to participate in holiday events given as part of a municipal, state or national observance under a new ruling emanating from the government postoffice department, and which has been received by Postmaster Ray H. Weisbrod. The order provides: "Whenever there is a total suspension of business in a state, city or town, or whenever there is a substantial suspension of business so that the requirements and demands upon the postal service on the part of the patrons are very materially reduced, a postmaster may curtail and reduce the service of the office to an extent reasonably commensurate with such suspension of general business; providing always that the postal service at all places shall be adequate to meet the reasonable requirements of the public on such days."

This order is not intended as adopting or sanctioning the observance of state holidays," the order continues, "because the department has no legal power to do that, but is intended rather to allow postmasters discretionary authority to reduce postal service to the extent of the public requirements on such days, and other days when general business is suspended."

Mastodon's Tooth Found North Of Connersville

CONNERSVILLE, Ind., Oct. 19.—The tooth of a mammoth was found by a local contractor this week, while digging a trench for a culvert a half-mile west of the Hankins school house, north of Connersville. The tooth has a grinding surface eight inches long and four inches wide. From the base of the root to the grinding surface, the tooth is eight and one half inches deep. The base of the triangular shaped tooth is ten and one half inches long. The tooth is that of a mammoth, a prehistoric animal somewhat resembling an elephant according to Allen Reynolds, geological expert. He is inspecting the scene of the find in the hope of discovering other remains. The tooth was found in clay beneath muck and gravel, at a depth of four and one half feet. It is on display at the city hall.

SLASH OF EXPENSES IMPORTANT FEAT OF G. O. P., SAYS ELLIOTT

WILLIAMSBURG, Ind., Oct. 19.—One of the important achievements of the Harding administration has been the reduction of governmental expenditures, said Representative Richard N. Elliott last night, addressing a largely attended Republican meeting at the I. O. O. F. hall. Mr. Elliott speaks at Green's Fork Thursday night and concludes his speaking tour of Wayne county Friday night with a meeting at Whitewater.

The establishment of the budget system, one of the first acts of the present administration, is largely responsible for the retrenchment in the operating costs of the government, Mr. Elliott declared.

He pointed to the fact that at the beginning of the fiscal year, which ended June 30 last, the treasury department estimated that the government's expenditures for that year would reach $4,554,000,000. At the close of the year it was found that they had actually amounted to $3,795,000,000, an actual saving of $759,000,000.

Further Retrenchment
By the application of the same methods of retrenchment Mr. Elliott believes that even the appropriations for the present fiscal year, cut by congress to minimum estimates, will be left with unexpended balances at the end of the year.

The most noticeable decreases in the 1923 budget, compared with the budget for 1922, are to be found in the appropriations for the army and navy, the congressman explained. The military and naval appropriations for the last fiscal year totaled $763,000,000 while for the present fiscal year they are $550,000,000, a saving of $213,000,000.

The administration also has accomplished big reductions in the national debt, Mr. Elliott said. At the beginning of the last fiscal year the debt stood at $23,977,000,000 and at the end of the year it had been cut down to $22,963,000,000, a reduction of $1,014,000,000.

The accomplishment of government economies has been translated by congress into reduced federal taxes. At the close of the present calendar year, the congressman said, the total saving to the people in federal taxes will reach $550,000,000.
