

PERIOD OF REFORM RECEDING IN CUBA; INVESTIGATE CASES

(By Associated Press)
HAVANA, Cuba, Oct. 24.—After threatening at one time to enfold the administration, the tidal wave of moral reform which raised its head when the contents of the famous 13 Crowder memoranda became public last June, has begun to recede. The backwash has left the judicial investigations into various phases of the $45,000,000 graft charges filed by Representative Bartolome Sagor high and dry, so far as public sentiment is concerned.

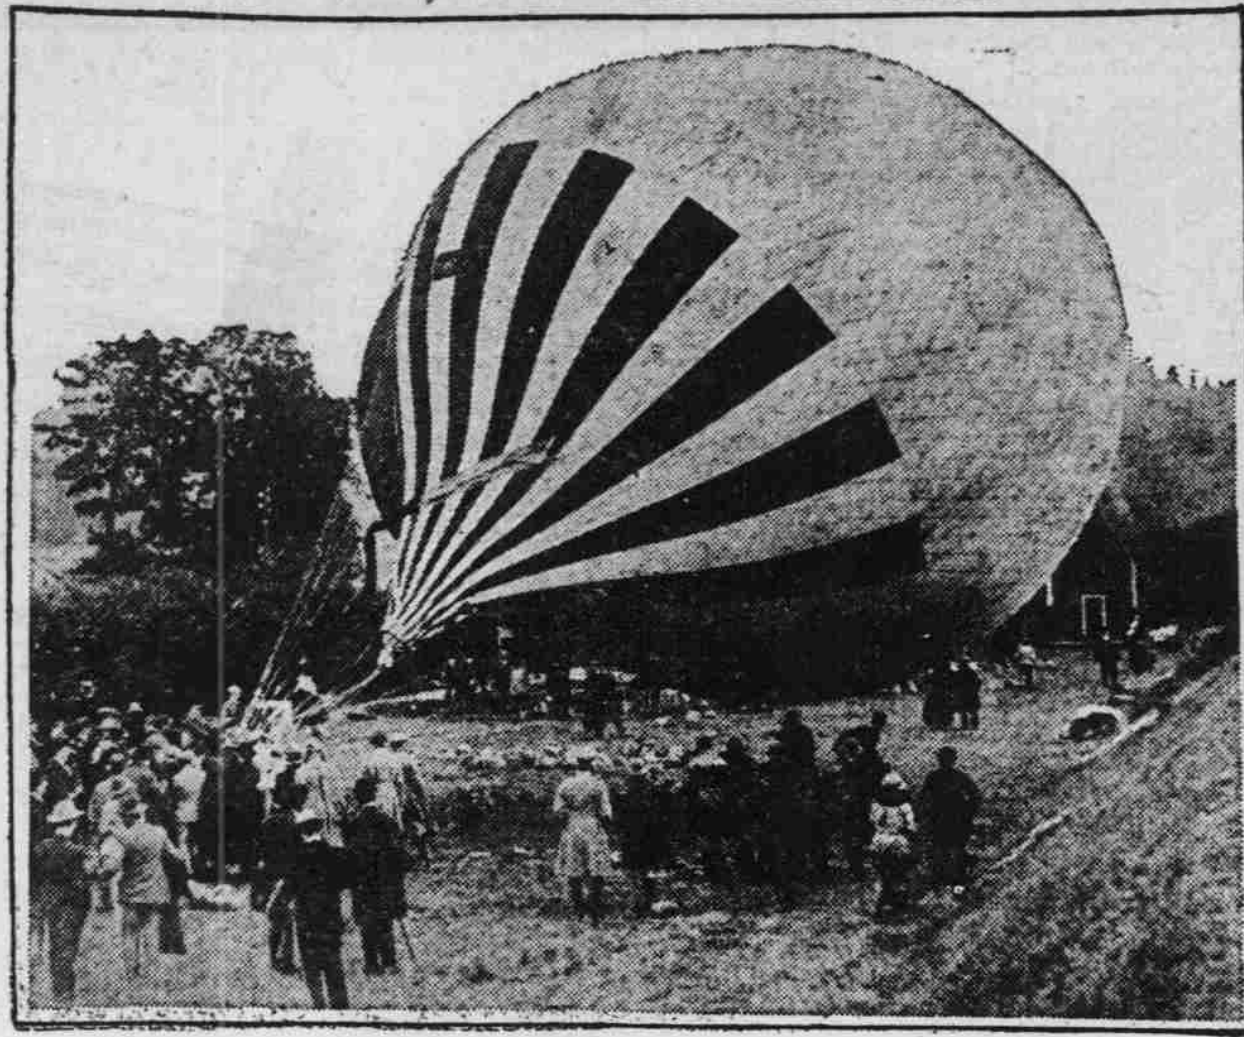

Special Judge Augusto Saladrigas, upon whose shoulders fell the burden of formulating indictments in the more important cases, has been relieved of one of his most onerous charges, that of probing into the alleged malversation of lottery funds during the first year of the Zayas administration. "The Upright Judge," as he is popularly called, has been substituted by Francisco Ilacy Argudin until the supreme court decides whether a technical objection raised by the states attorney will prevent Saladrigas from continuing his action.

The lottery case attracted much attention when it first came before the public, especially in view of the fact that President Zayas last June in a decree suggested and urgently pressed by Major General E. H. Crowder, ended the previous illegal collection of almost $10,000,000 a year through a 25 to 50 percent overcharge to the public for tickets.

Plenty of work remains for "The Upright Judge" however, in his attempts to bare the real facts in the disappearance of $100,000 in Liberty bonds from the national treasury, and in the graft charges against the Havana municipal administration.

WIND HINDERS BALLOON RACE START

Start of French long-distance balloon race outside of Paris.

A tempestuous wind hindered the start of the long-distance balloon race at St. Cloud, out-side of Paris. The contest, held under the auspices of the Aero Club de France, was to establish a new long-distance flight record for France. Just before the start gusts of wind almost tore the balloons from their moorings and caused considerable delay in starting.

I. U. DIPHTHERIA EPIDEMIC

BROUGHT UNDER CONTROL
BLOOMINGTON, Ind., Oct. 24.—The diphtheria epidemic which has threatened Indiana university for more than a month, has been brought under control, it was announced today by Dr. J. E. P. Holland of the university medical staff. A total of 85 cases developed among the students between Sept. 20 and Oct. 16, Dr. Holland said. At the present time there are only 14 cases under treatment among the students and one in the city of Bloomington.

Franklin County Village Cited As "Whisky Town"

CONNERSVILLE, Ind., Oct. 24.—Laurel, a small village in the north end of Franklin county, was stigmatized, during a liquor law violation trial here, as the worst offender in the state in the number of complaints of illegal whisky manufacture originating there. More cases of rum running, moonshining and bootlegging have indicated Laurel as the source of supply, than any other town in Indiana, a state enforcement officer declared. Eight liquor cases are pending in the city court, of which two are against Laurel residents. The mayor, James A. Clifton, stated that booze from this community is enjoying greater distribution in Connorsville than that from any other source.

SERIOUS BLADDER TROUBLE
"Could not stand nor sit and was forced to cry out from intense pain," writes Henry Williams, Tarkio, Montana. "The doctors said I had inflammation of the bladder and an operation was necessary. Tried Foley Kidney Pills and improved at once. Tell all my friends about Foley's as it will save many from suffering and perhaps, as in my case, a dangerous operation." Bladder and Kidney trouble demand prompt treatment. Foley Kidney Pills give quick relief. A. G. Luken Drug Co., 228-232 Main St.—Advertisement.

MRS McNALLY PLANS TO OBTAIN DIVORCE

SOUTH BEND, Ind., Oct. 24.—Mrs. Hazel McNally, who has been in a state of semi-collapse since her dismissal from the charge of slaying her "phantom twins," will return to South Bend as soon as she recovers.
