

SOCIETY

Robert L. Hill, of Centerville, returned home Monday from Glen Miller hospital where he underwent an operation for appendicitis on last Tuesday.

Dr. and Mrs. Victor L. Keene, of Indianapolis, were guests during the week-end of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Nixon, of Centerville.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Smelser, Mrs. Mae Smelser and Howard Smelser were guests Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. Walter McConaha and family.

Mrs. Clarence E. Mayhew, of North Thirtieth street, has returned from Philadelphia, Pa., where she has been spending several days.

Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Robinson of the National Road west, are spending the week in New York City and other points east.

Mrs. Harry Holmes, of Oberlin, Ohio, is the guest of her mother, Mrs. Charles Shively, of South Fourteenth street. A number of informal social events are being given in her honor.

Mrs. T. Evans of Terre Haute, has returned home after a two weeks' stay with her daughter, Mrs. Andrew J. Gruehlich, of South Twelfth street.

Mrs. W. G. McVay has returned home from Greenville, Ill., where for the past three weeks she has been directing the music at an evangelistic meeting.

Howard Hall of Atlantic City, N. J., spent a few hours in this city Tuesday the guest of friends. Mr. Hall graduated from Earlham college last spring.

Rohlen Juday, of Soap Lake, Wash., is the guest of his sister, Mrs. Lawrence Hoover, of North E street, and his aunt, Mrs. Warren McClure, of North Tenth street.

Mrs. H. E. Fossenkemper has returned home from a visit to Ann Arbor, and Detroit. While there she visited her son, Marius Fossenkemper, who is a student at Michigan university in his senior year and a member of the Detroit Symphony orchestra.

Miss Elizabeth Hasemeier presented a group of her pupils in a recital at the high school auditorium Tuesday evening which was attended by about 150 persons. Prof. F. K. Hicks' string quartet assisted with the recital. The pupils gave a splendid exhibition of resourceful interpretations and fine technique in the rendition of their selections. The quartet, which was recently organized, gave a most pleasing performance. All the members are musicians of unusual training and ability.

Mrs. J. P. Emslie was hostess to the Progressive Literary society Tuesday afternoon. A musical program was delightfully rendered by Miss Ruth Pell. Interesting papers were read by Mrs. W. A. Ellis and Miss Hazel

UP AND DOING

Just as dirt and dust have been side-stepped through the use of the vacuum cleaner and another household made pleasant, so has the drudgery of washday been relieved of its horrors and disappointments and every housewife made comfortable and happy through the adoption of Hewitt's Easy Task Borax Soap Flakes. Washday is simply "no trick at all." If your clothes are now snow-white, don't blame the wash woman. Get the big package at your grocer's.—Advertisement.

Grueg. The question box was conducted by Mrs. H. M. Kramen.

Chinch Bug Proof Corn

Interests Shelby Farmers

SHELBYVILLE, Ind., Nov. 22.—With the Shelbyville corn show scheduled to open Thursday, Nov. 23, interest now centers on the latest entry of a 10-ear and a single ear sample of Democrat corn, from an Illinois grower. This corn is said to be resistant to damage from chinch bugs which makes it especially interesting to Shelby county farmers, that county having suffered severely from the pest the last two years.
