

NAME ELDORADO MAN PRESIDENT OF PREBLE COUNTY FAIR BOARD

EATON, Ohio, Jan. 8.—Julius Waters, of Eldorado, was elected president of the Preble county fair board in a reorganization meeting of the board here Saturday afternoon. Henry E. Dalrymple, of Eaton, was elected vice president.

The board retained Harry D. Silver, of Eaton, as secretary and A. J. Hiestand, of Eaton, as treasurer. Secretary Silver has served a number of years and Treasurer Hiestand has served several years.

Three new members elected at the county fair in September took their places Saturday on the board. They are: Everett Morse, Eaton; C. P. Barr, New Paris, and Ed Ozias, West Alexandria. Old members re-elected and again taking their places on the board were: Julius Waters, Arthur Morton, and Henry Dalrymple, Eaton.

New Board Members
W. B. Elkenberry, of Eaton, and S. C. Karicofe, of Gratis, are new members of the board since September. Elkenberry was elected to fill out the unexpired term of Cleve Montgomery, Eaton, resigned, and Karicofe was elected to fill out the unexpired term of the late George Riner, of Gratis. They took office immediately after their election. Both unexpired terms end in January 1924.

The new board executive committee named Saturday, is made up of Henry E. Dalrymple, J. E. Flora, Gasper tp., and W. O. Morris, Dixon tp. The new auditing committee is made up of J. H. Pundt, Lewisburg; J. L. Haston, West Alexandria, and A. H. Morton, Camden.

Henry Unger, of West Alexandria, is the retiring board president. He served two terms.

Department Heads Chosen.

President Waters announced appointment of the department heads in the meeting Saturday. They are: Speed, J. L. Haston; horses, mules and ponies, A. H. Morton; J. H. Pundt; cattle and stock judging contest, W. O. Morris; hogs and sheep and pig club contest, J. H. Lamm; machinery and police, Ed Ozias; agricultural hall, C. P. Barr; admission gates, J. E. Flora; schools and poultry, E. T. Morse; amphitheatre, S. C. Karicofe; privileges, H. E. Dalrymple; art hall and flowers, W. P. Elkenberry; school exhibit, County School Superintendent W. S. Gentry; club work, County Agent E. D. Turner.

It is probable the date for the county fair this year will be changed on account of Butler county changing from October to August. It is likely the Preble county fair will be staged the week preceding or the week following the Butler county fair.

Suit for divorce has been entered by Harry Kanskiwer against Ruth VanSkiver in common pleas court. He alleges gross neglect and wilful absence since October, 1920. They were married in February, 1913, in Eaton. He seeks custody of a son now in his care. Another son is with the mother.

In a suit brought by the Eaton Tire Service company against John W. Barnhart, Jr., and Ada Barnhart, the company seeks to recover $937.59, alleged to represent a balance on a note for $2,001.71.

Suit over a sow that was filed in a squire's court by Lee Campbell against Harvey Neaves has been appealed to common pleas court by Neaves. Campbell sued to replevin the animal and the squire's court declared he was entitled to the sow and that Neaves was entitled to $50 for feed. Costs of $29.15 were taxed against Campbell.

John E. Sizelove has been awarded judgment for $113.50 against Harry Bittle, which represents a balance on a note.

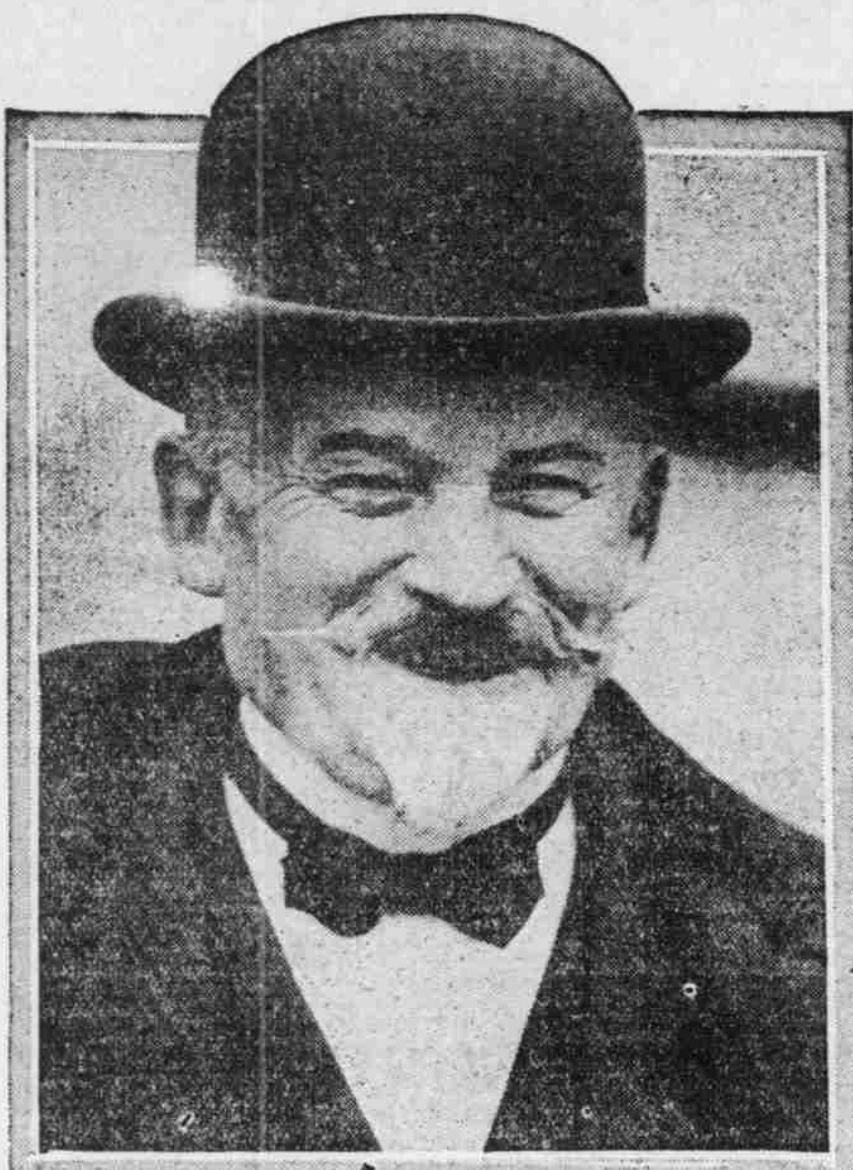

Bonds filed by four county officials have been approved. Sheriff Wehrley filed a $10,000 bond, with A. J. Hiestand, S. Swisher, J. H. Musson, J. M. Gale and C. W. Edison, bankers, and himself as sureties.

Coue Tells Americans Ways for Getting "Better and Better", Auto-Suggestion Master Tells Details of His Methods

DR. EMILE COUE

(Copyright, 1922, by Malcan Publishing Company, Inc.)

Editor's Note.—Emile Coue is in this country to demonstrate his methods. His book, translated into English from the original French text, gives the foundations for his faith in auto-suggestion. The first installment on self-mastery is printed today. Subsequent chapters will follow daily.

Suggestion, or rather auto-suggestion, is in one sense an entirely new subject, although, at the same time, it is as old as the world itself.

It is new in that, up to the present, it has not been studied from the correct viewpoint, and consequently wrong conclusions have been formed. It is old because it dates back to the advent of man on earth. Indeed, auto-suggestion is an instrument which we possess when we are born. It is a force of wonderful and incalculable power which produces, according to circumstances, the very best or the very worst effects. A proper knowledge of this force is useful to every one, but, more particularly, it is indispensable to physicians, magistrates, lawyers, and educators of the young.

When one knows how to employ it consciously he can, first of all, guard himself against provoking harmful auto-suggestions in others, the consequences of which may be disastrous; furthermore, he can consciously bring about helpful ones which restore physical health to the sick and mental and moral vigor to the nervously deranged—unconscious victims of previous harmful auto-suggestions; he can also guide into right ways those who have a tendency toward evil.

The Conscious Being and The Unconscious Being

In order to understand the phenomena of suggestion, or, more accurately, of auto-suggestion, it is necessary to realize that there exist, within us, two beings absolutely distinct from each other. Both are intelligent, but while one is conscious, the other is unconscious. That is the reason why the existence of the latter is not generally recognized.

The existence of this unconscious being may be easily proved if one will only take the trouble to examine certain phenomena and to think a little. For example:

Everybody is familiar with somnifer hire for the year, the allowance having been made by Common Pleas Judge A. C. Rinsinger.

For allegedly having blocked a railway crossing an unreasonable length of time, a Pennsylvania railway freight crew has been cited to appear here Tuesday night in Mayor Harry L. Rinsinger's court.

nambullism. We all know that the sleep-walker gets up during the night and, without being awake, leaves his room, dressed or undressed, goes downstairs, walks along corridors and, after having performed certain acts or accomplished certain work, returns to bed. Next morning he is greatly astonished at finding work finished which he had left unfinished the night before.

Nevertheless he himself did it, although he does not recall anything about it. What power then did his body obey, if not an unconscious force, his unconscious being?

Consider now, if you please, the regrettably frequent case of the drunkard in a state of "delirium tremens." In a paroxysm of rage he takes up whatever weapon is handy, a knife, hammer, axe, and strikes furiously at those who have the misfortune to be near him.

Unconscious Being Directs the Drunkard

When the paroxysm of rage has passed and he regains his senses he looks with horror at the scene of carnage, ignorant of the fact that he himself did it. Here, again, isn't it the unconscious that has directed the actions of the poor wretch? If we compare the conscious with the unconscious, we find that while the conscious is endowed with a very unreliable memory, the unconscious, on the contrary, is gifted with a marvelous memory which registers un-
