P. T. A. OF GARFIELD AIDS RILEY HOSPITAL

The Garfield P. T. A. held an interesting and enthusiastic gathering at the school Monday evening. Matters of vital interest to parents were discussed.

The association voted to send $115 to the Orme memorial fund for the Riley hospital for crippled children. One hundred dollars of the gift was received from the doll sale held in December and $15 from the sale of popcorn balls.

Literature that comes into the hands of children was discussed at some length at the gathering. Some discussion was also held on an amendment to the child labor law in order to make it constitutional. Further consideration of this question will be held at the association's next meeting.

All members and their friends are cordially invited.

All members of the Perseverance Bible class of the First Baptist church are requested to be present at the meeting to be held at the home of Mrs. Ozro Baldwin, 309 North Nineteenth street, Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

The Union Bible class of the First English Lutheran church will hold its regular monthly meeting in the basement of the church Tuesday evening at 7:30 o'clock. Gustave Hoelscher will read a paper on the "Trial of Christ" from a legal standpoint. This paper will be interesting as it will discuss the question whether under the Roman and Jewish laws of his time, Christ received a fair trial. Music will be furnished by Mrs. F. W. Krueger. Refreshments will be served.

Officers were elected at the meeting of the Benevolent society at St. John's Lutheran church, Monday night. The officers elected are as follows: George Weisshahn, president; August Paust, vice-president; Harry Shuerman, secretary; Carl Kehlenbrink, treasurer. Members of the sick committee were appointed as follows: Walter Kunz, Henry Kramer, Edward Placke, Harry Shuerman and Frank Hirschfeld.

interesting program of fun and frolic has been prepared for the occasion. All women of the church and their friends are cordially invited to be present.

The Christian Fellowship Circle of the West Richmond Friends church elected officers as follows: Evelyn Grant, president; Hugh Grant, vice-president; Dudley J. Woodman, secretary; Edith McMahon, treasurer.

The Loyal Daughters' class of the First Christian church held its monthly business and social meeting in the church parlors Monday evening. Mrs. Charles Cline and Mrs. Donna Parker had charge of the entertainment. Miss Dorothy McAlpin sang two solos. An original poem, entitled "St. Peter at the Gate," was read by Mrs. Russell Wiley. It was decided by the class to have several copies made which are to be sold among members for the benefit of the building fund. The class also decided to buy five shares in the building fund. This would total $500 as each share is $100. Reports for the year of 1922 showed that 200 members are now enrolled in the class; that 519 calls were made by the members during the past year; and that $1,729.56 was raised by the class during 1922. Later a social hour followed and refreshments were served. Officers and teachers of the class acted as hostesses for the evening. Seventy-five persons were present. Mrs. John Hinsky, president of the class for the past year, was presented with a box of roses, as an expression of the class's appreciation for her services.

Mr. Loren Jones, who is conducting the music of the campaign, is loud in his praises of the chorus. The chorus platform was filled with singers last night, which indicates that great things are to be expected from this chorus. The audience too, is getting into the spirit of the song services, and this feature of the meetings is very enjoyable.

Mr. Jones has been in Union Tabernacle meetings for years and knows how to get the most out of the song service. Mrs. Jones is at the piano. Tonight at 7:30, Rev. Stokoes will preach on "Human Failures Who Have Made Success of Life."

In a revival, and the special meetings at the First Methodist church stood the test in great shape. The crowd was fine and Rev. Stokoes was gratified to note so many who were there for the first time, especially several Pennsylvania men and their families. Rev. Stokoes, the pastor who is conducting these special services preached an excellent sermon last night. The service last night closed with an old-fashioned Methodist hand-shake, and the singing of "Oh, Happy Day."
