MRS. LESLIE CARTER GETS BILL FOR LIQUOR BOUGHT 10 YEARS AGO

DAYTON, Ohio, Feb. 1.—Bill for wines and liquors purchased 10 years ago was presented to Mrs. Leslie Carter, leading woman in "The Circle," which ended its engagement at the Victory theatre last night, by a bailiff of municipal court.

With the bill was a writ of attachment on the wardrobe and personal property of the actress. The bailiff was unable to locate any property belonging to her, as the wardrobe belongs to the company.

Judge White, of municipal court, said last night that Feb. 10 will be answer day, when Mrs. Carter, either personally or through counsel, may file an answer to the allegations of Charles E. Sanders, that she owes him $124.75 for liquors purchased in 1912.

If she does not file an answer judgment will be entered against her. In case she takes advantage of this privilege date will be set for the hearing.

In his writ Sanders alleges that between June 1 and Aug. 24, 1912, he delivered to Mrs. Carter wines and liquors for which he never has received pay.
