

SOCIETY

The Delta Theta Tau sorority will be hostess for one of the outstanding pre-Lenten events Feb. 12 when it entertains at the Eagles club with a dance. The Palms Garden orchestra will play the order of dances for the affair. Elaborate plans are being made to make the event one of the most successful of the season.

The Easter season will be conspicuous for the dance the Omicron Psi Sigma fraternity will give April 2 in the ballroom of the Eagles club. Jesse Barnes and His Original Memphis Melody boys, one of the country's finest dance orchestras, is being brought here from Chicago for the dance. Mr. Barnes formerly resided in this city and has a number of friends here.

The Richmond Day Nursery will hold open house at the nursery on North Twelfth street from 2 to 5 o'clock Sunday, Feb. 11, it has been announced, so that members of the Nursery association may have an opportunity to see what the organization is achieving through its efforts. A meeting of the association's board will be held at one o'clock Tuesday afternoon, Feb. 6, which all board members are requested to attend.

A Valentine dance will be held by the Happy Hour club Thursday evening, Feb. 8, in the I. O. O. F. hall. The Evan Smith orchestra will play the order of dances. The dance is one of two important affairs planned for February by the club. The other is to occur on Feb. 22.

Social activities at the Country club will be resumed the end of next week when the stewardess returns. The committee on social arrangements for February is composed of: Mrs. A. J. Harwood, chairman; Mrs. P. S. Twigg, Mrs. Walter Bates, Mrs. Ben Hill and Mrs. Fred Lemon.

The Public Art gallery will not be open Sunday afternoon. The Indiana Artists' exhibition has been removed and the Arts and Crafts exhibit is not to open until next Wednesday evening.

The meeting of the music department of the Woman's club to have been held Tuesday morning, has been postponed. It would be impossible to present the operatic program arranged for the meeting on account of illness. Postponement is also announced of the organ program which the department was to give Sunday, Feb. 18.

The Federated Missionary societies will hold their all day semi-annual meeting of this spring on Feb. 16 at the First Methodist Episcopal church, Fourteenth and Main streets. A very extensive program has been arranged for the occasion, which is to include a number of out-of-town speakers and special musical numbers.

Florence Clippenger, of Dayton, Ohio, is to be one of the speakers. She is field secretary of the missionary association of the United Brethren church and taught methods at the summer school of missions at Winona in 1921 and at the summer school at Geneva, Wis., in 1922. She is a sister of Bishop Clippenger of the Central district of Dayton, Ohio, and of W. S. Clippenger, president of Otterbein college.

The morning session of the meeting is to begin at 10 o'clock and the afternoon session at 1:15 o'clock. Luncheon will be held from 12 to 1:15. Everyone who attends will be registered. A special musical program is being arranged by the music committee.

Esther Morton Smith, of Philadelphia, Pa., a missionary from India and one from Africa are to be among the speakers. Fourteen missionary societies will be represented at the gathering and all women of the city are invited to attend.

Mrs. Lou Wynn was hostess to the Hhawatha Social and Literary club Friday afternoon at her home, 223 North Tenth street. Nineteen members responded to roll call. Mrs. Cora Caster and Mrs. Velma Brothman, and Mrs. Vera Wynn were guests of the club. The hostess served a delicious luncheon late in the afternoon, assisted by Mrs. Irene Dingling and Mrs. Vera Wynn. A social time followed. The club will be entertained with a Valentine party Feb. 16 at the home of Mrs. Edna Kenney, 118 South Fourteenth street. Mrs. Nellie Morgan will be reader and Mrs. Goldie Morel will have charge of entertainment.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Harman and family were given a surprise party by a number of friends at their country home southeast of the city Friday evening. Games and music were enjoyed and later refreshments were served. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. John Statzer, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Commons, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Studt, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Shute, Mr. and Mrs. E. N. Norris, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Becker, Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Jack, Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Hilling, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hartman, Miss Betty Moran, Miss Anna Moran, Charles Bostick, John Moran, Miss Lillie Statzer, Miss Esther Commons, Miss Viola Keys, Ernest Rummel, Miss Nellie Keys, Miss Edith Shafer, Miss Anna Bostick, Miss Gertrude Statzer, Miss Freda Hartman, Miss Rhea Statzer, Miss Ruth Commons, Miss Mabel Shute, Miss Mary Commons, Miss Edith Shute, Miss Bertha Hartman, Miss Martha Commons, Howard Blunt, Joe Bostick, Dewey Statzer, Herman Blunt, Paul Hartman, Earl Commons, Elmer Hartman, Ed Statzer, Oscar Hartman, Merl Bostick, Tom Statzer, Darrell Shafer, Albert Hartman, Harold Shute, Marshall Jack, Richard Hilling and Edward Jack.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Brown entertained a number of friends at their home, 325 North Eighteenth street, Friday evening in honor of their thirtieth wedding anniversary. Games and music were enjoyed during the evening and later refreshments were served. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. E. V. Stambach, Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Robison and daughter, Nanette, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Kern and daughter, Mary, Mr. and Mrs. Byron Smith and children, Charlotte and Jimmie, Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Shewalter, Mrs. W. C. Mark and son, Carroll, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Woods and children, Lucille and Phillip, Mr. and Mrs. B. B. Ewing and Mr. and Mrs. Brown and children, Richard and Neva.

Miss Marjorie Edwards was hostess for a lovely party Thursday evening at which she entertained the members of the N. N. C. club at her home on Kinsey street. Hearts were played at four tables, the favors going to Miss Marguerite Kessler and Miss Corinne Schneider. Later the hostess served a dainty luncheon. Those present were: Miss Helen Cook, Miss Bernadine Hoppe, Miss Marie Heltonimus, Miss Marguerite Kessler, Miss Freda Lohman, Miss Corinne Schneider, Mrs. George Canan, Mrs. Gordon Borton, and Miss Edwards. The club will be entertained by Miss Ruth Foulke at her home on Fourth street Feb. 15. All members are invited to be present at that time.

The Amoma class of the First Baptist church delightfully entertained with a party for the boys Wednesday evening in the church parlors. Music and games were features of the evening's entertainment. The class colors of blue and white were carried out in the table appointments. A two-course luncheon was served during the evening. The guests were: Miss Verona Stewart, Miss Thelma Williams, Miss Bonnie Yearyearn, Miss Carrie Stewart, Miss Alma Williams, Miss Clara Beach, Miss Vineta Yearyearn, Miss Laura Beach, and Messrs. Virgil Carly, Paul Monroe, William Hensley, Thomas Wilcox, Robert Crowell, Robert Powell, Taylor Holiday, Arthur Reez, Harry Norton, Harry Cox, Mrs. Norman Sheppard, and the Rev. R. W. Leazer.

Frank Hinson and Mrs. Dora Yundt entertained with an oyster supper for the threshing ring at their home west of Green's Fork. The affair was a surprise by the ring for Mr. Hinson and Mrs. Yundt. The following were present: Mr. and Mrs. Frank Thornburg, Mr. and Mrs. Denver Hollensworth, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wyrick, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Wyrick, Mr. and Mrs. O. J. Hatfield, Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Davis, Mr. and Mrs. Chauncey Cranor, Mr. and Mrs. John Riggelman, Mr. and Mrs. Loring Hatfield, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hunnicutt, Joe Williams, Will Sykes, Charles Retz, Mr. Bush, Cassius Gentry, Miss Mary Hatfield, Miss Josephine Davis, Porter Davis, Miss Lillian Hunnicutt, Miss Margaret Hunnicutt, Miss Edna May Hunnicutt, Albert Hunnicutt, John Canan, Richard Canan, Miss Eva June Wyrick, Frank Hanson and Mrs. Dora Yundt.

Mrs. E. H. Mendenhall was hostess to the Athenaeum society Friday afternoon at her residence on South Eighth street. Thirty-eight members were present. Mrs. W. B. Garver, of Springfield, Ohio, and Mrs. V. C. Griffiths were guests. An interesting program was given which included a paper by Mrs. Blanche Hoeffer, on "Puritans and Cavaliers" and "Extracts From Bacon's Essays" which were read by Mrs. Alpha Bond. A social hour followed and refreshments were served by the hostess.

The Wi-Hub club met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Black, 338 Pearl street, Friday evening. After a short business session euchre was played at five tables. Guests of the club were Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Evans, Mrs. Nellie Shinn and Nell Logue. The members present included: Mr. and Mrs. Fred Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Gable, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Thomas, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wilcox, Carl Wilson, James Marshall, Miss Reva Miller, John Black and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Black. The club will be entertained next Friday evening by Mr. and Mrs. Albert Thomas at their home, 302 South West Fourth street.

A silver tea was held at the residence of Mrs. G. F. Fosler, 303 Pearl street, Friday afternoon by the Missionary society of Reid Memorial church at which 50 women of the church were guests. Valentine colors and motifs were effectively used in the decorations and appointments for the function. Games were enjoyed during the afternoon and later tea was served. Miss Clella King and Mrs. Earl Ballenger poured tea. Hostesses who assisted Mrs. Fosler were: Mrs. W. J. Penquite, Mrs. D. W. Scott, Mrs. Claude Bannon, Mrs. Leroy Long, Mrs. W. C. Roop and Mrs. Robert Wilson.

The Tourist club was entertained by Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Heun, of East Main street, Friday evening. The evening's topic was "Siberia." Dr. Charles S. Bond had the paper and the discussion which followed was led by Mrs. J. Herschel Coffin.

Complimenting Miss Thomasina Riggelman, who is leaving for her home in Malvern, Pa., after completing her studies at Earlham college, Miss Elsie Marshall entertained a few guests informally at her home on South Sixth street Friday afternoon.

Announcement has been made of the marriage of Miss Esther Black and Earl Baldwin. The wedding was celebrated quietly Thursday evening at 7 o'clock at the parsonage of the Third

Methodist Episcopal church, the Rev. E. L. Gates officiating. The bride wore a beautiful gown of golden brown crepe meteor with brown accessories. Her flowers were a corsage of yellow rosebuds. Mr. and Mrs. Baldwin left on a short wedding trip, after which they will be at home in their newly appointed residence on Hunt street. Mrs. Baldwin is a graduate of the Reid Memorial Hospital Training School for Nurses. Mr. Baldwin is employed at the K-D Kitchen Cabinet company.

The Jolly Six club was entertained by Miss Bernice Goebel at her home on Northwest First street. A short business session was held and refreshment served. Those present were Miss Martha Weber, Miss Marjorie Edgerton, Miss Mary Louise Snavely, Miss Mary Parker, Miss Harriett Scott and Miss Goebel. The club will meet Feb. 13 with Miss Mary Parker at her home on Northwest Fifth street.

Mrs. Ray Wright, North Eighteenth street, entertained the Jolly Twelve club Friday afternoon. An informal musicale and contests were features of the afternoon. Mrs. Fred Brown won the favor. Later a six o'clock dinner was served by the hostess, the appointments being carried out in keeping with the Valentine season. Mrs. Frank Aiken will entertain the club Feb. 17 at her home on North Seventeenth street.

Complimenting Mrs. A. B. Fehlman in honor of her birthday anniversary, an informal party was given as a surprise at her home Friday afternoon. Contests were held and later a two-course luncheon was served. Those present were: Mrs. E. V. Stambach, Mrs. Charles Wiker, Miss Jennie Me-

Methodist Episcopal church, the Rev. E. L. Gates officiating. The bride wore a beautiful gown of golden brown crepe meteor with brown accessories. Her flowers were a corsage of yellow rosebuds. Mr. and Mrs. Baldwin left on a short wedding trip, after which they will be at home in their newly appointed residence on Hunt street. Mrs. Baldwin is a graduate of the Reid Memorial Hospital Training School for Nurses. Mr. Baldwin is employed at the K-D Kitchen Cabinet company.

The Jolly Six club was entertained by Miss Bernice Goebel at her home on Northwest First street. A short business session was held and refreshment served. Those present were Miss Martha Weber, Miss Marjorie Edgerton, Miss Mary Louise Snavely, Miss Mary Parker, Miss Harriett Scott and Miss Goebel. The club will meet Feb. 13 with Miss Mary Parker at her home on Northwest Fifth street.

Mrs. Ray Wright, North Eighteenth street, entertained the Jolly Twelve club Friday afternoon. An informal musicale and contests were features of the afternoon. Mrs. Fred Brown won the favor. Later a six o'clock dinner was served by the hostess, the appointments being carried out in keeping with the Valentine season. Mrs. Frank Aiken will entertain the club Feb. 17 at her home on North Seventeenth street.

Complimenting Mrs. A. B. Fehlman in honor of her birthday anniversary, an informal party was given as a surprise at her home Friday afternoon. Contests were held and later a two-course luncheon was served. Those present were: Mrs. E. V. Stambach, Mrs. Charles Wiker, Miss Jennie Me-

Methodist Episcopal church, the Rev. E. L. Gates officiating. The bride wore a beautiful gown of golden brown crepe meteor with brown accessories. Her flowers were a corsage of yellow rosebuds. Mr. and Mrs. Baldwin left on a short wedding trip, after which they will be at home in their newly appointed residence on Hunt street. Mrs. Baldwin is a graduate of the Reid Memorial Hospital Training School for Nurses. Mr. Baldwin is employed at the K-D Kitchen Cabinet company.

The Jolly Six club was entertained by Miss Bernice Goebel at her home on Northwest First street. A short business session was held and refreshment served. Those present were Miss Martha Weber, Miss Marjorie Edgerton, Miss Mary Louise Snavely, Miss Mary Parker, Miss Harriett Scott and Miss Goebel. The club will meet Feb. 13 with Miss Mary Parker at her home on Northwest Fifth street.

Mrs. Ray Wright, North Eighteenth street, entertained the Jolly Twelve club Friday afternoon. An informal musicale and contests were features of the afternoon. Mrs. Fred Brown won the favor. Later a six o'clock dinner was served by the hostess, the appointments being carried out in keeping with the Valentine season. Mrs. Frank Aiken will entertain the club Feb. 17 at her home on North Seventeenth street.

Complimenting Mrs. A. B. Fehlman in honor of her birthday anniversary, an informal party was given as a surprise at her home Friday afternoon. Contests were held and later a two-course luncheon was served. Those present were: Mrs. E. V. Stambach, Mrs. Charles Wiker, Miss Jennie Me-

Methodist Episcopal church, the Rev. E. L. Gates officiating. The bride wore a beautiful gown of golden brown crepe meteor with brown accessories. Her flowers were a corsage of yellow rosebuds. Mr. and Mrs. Baldwin left on a short wedding trip, after which they will be at home in their newly appointed residence on Hunt street. Mrs. Baldwin is a graduate of the Reid Memorial Hospital Training School for Nurses. Mr. Baldwin is employed at the K-D Kitchen Cabinet company.

The Jolly Six club was entertained by Miss Bernice Goebel at her home on Northwest First street. A short business session was held and refreshment served. Those present were Miss Martha Weber, Miss Marjorie Edgerton, Miss Mary Louise Snavely, Miss Mary Parker, Miss Harriett Scott and Miss Goebel. The club will meet Feb. 13 with Miss Mary Parker at her home on Northwest Fifth street.

Mrs. Ray Wright, North Eighteenth street, entertained the Jolly Twelve club Friday afternoon. An informal musicale and contests were features of the afternoon. Mrs. Fred Brown won the favor. Later a six o'clock dinner was served by the hostess, the appointments being carried out in keeping with the Valentine season. Mrs. Frank Aiken will entertain the club Feb. 17 at her home on North Seventeenth street.

Complimenting Mrs. A. B. Fehlman in honor of her birthday anniversary, an informal party was given as a surprise at her home Friday afternoon. Contests were held and later a two-course luncheon was served. Those present were: Mrs. E. V. Stambach, Mrs. Charles Wiker, Miss Jennie Me-

Methodist Episcopal church, the Rev. E. L. Gates officiating. The bride wore a beautiful gown of golden brown crepe meteor with brown accessories. Her flowers were a corsage of yellow rosebuds. Mr. and Mrs. Baldwin left on a short wedding trip, after which they will be at home in their newly appointed residence on Hunt street. Mrs. Baldwin is a graduate of the Reid Memorial Hospital Training School for Nurses. Mr. Baldwin is employed at the K-D Kitchen Cabinet company.

The Jolly Six club was entertained by Miss Bernice Goebel at her home on Northwest First street. A short business session was held and refreshment served. Those present were Miss Martha Weber, Miss Marjorie Edgerton, Miss Mary Louise Snavely, Miss Mary Parker, Miss Harriett Scott and Miss Goebel. The club will meet Feb. 13 with Miss Mary Parker at her home on Northwest Fifth street.

Mrs. Ray Wright, North Eighteenth street, entertained the Jolly Twelve club Friday afternoon. An informal musicale and contests were features of the afternoon. Mrs. Fred Brown won the favor. Later a six o'clock dinner was served by the hostess, the appointments being carried out in keeping with the Valentine season. Mrs. Frank Aiken will entertain the club Feb. 17 at her home on North Seventeenth street.

Complimenting Mrs. A. B. Fehlman in honor of her birthday anniversary, an informal party was given as a surprise at her home Friday afternoon. Contests were held and later a two-course luncheon was served. Those present were: Mrs. E. V. Stambach, Mrs. Charles Wiker, Miss Jennie Me-

Methodist Episcopal church, the Rev. E. L. Gates officiating. The bride wore a beautiful gown of golden brown crepe meteor with brown accessories. Her flowers were a corsage of yellow rosebuds. Mr. and Mrs. Baldwin left on a short wedding trip, after which they will be at home in their newly appointed residence on Hunt street. Mrs. Baldwin is a graduate of the Reid Memorial Hospital Training School for Nurses. Mr. Baldwin is employed at the K-D Kitchen Cabinet company.

The Jolly Six club was entertained by Miss Bernice Goebel at her home on Northwest First street. A short business session was held and refreshment served. Those present were Miss Martha Weber, Miss Marjorie Edgerton, Miss Mary Louise Snavely, Miss Mary Parker, Miss Harriett Scott and Miss Goebel. The club will meet Feb. 13 with Miss Mary Parker at her home on Northwest Fifth street.

Methodist Episcopal church, the Rev. E. L. Gates officiating. The bride wore a beautiful gown of golden brown crepe meteor with brown accessories. Her flowers were a corsage of yellow rosebuds. Mr. and Mrs. Baldwin left on a short wedding trip, after which they will be at home in their newly appointed residence on Hunt street. Mrs. Baldwin is a graduate of the Reid Memorial Hospital Training School for Nurses. Mr. Baldwin is employed at the K-D Kitchen Cabinet company.

The Jolly Six club was entertained by Miss Bernice Goebel at her home on Northwest First street. A short business session was held and refreshment served. Those present were Miss Martha Weber, Miss Marjorie Edgerton, Miss Mary Louise Snavely, Miss Mary Parker, Miss Harriett Scott and Miss Goebel. The club will meet Feb. 13 with Miss Mary Parker at her home on Northwest Fifth street.

Mrs. Ray Wright, North Eighteenth street, entertained the Jolly Twelve club Friday afternoon. An informal musicale and contests were features of the afternoon. Mrs. Fred Brown won the favor. Later a six o'clock dinner was served by the hostess, the appointments being carried out in keeping with the Valentine season. Mrs. Frank Aiken will entertain the club Feb. 17 at her home on North Seventeenth street.

Complimenting Mrs. A. B. Fehlman in honor of her birthday anniversary, an informal party was given as a surprise at her home Friday afternoon. Contests were held and later a two-course luncheon was served. Those present were: Mrs. E. V. Stambach, Mrs. Charles Wiker, Miss Jennie Me-

Methodist Episcopal church, the Rev. E. L. Gates officiating. The bride wore a beautiful gown of golden brown crepe meteor with brown accessories. Her flowers were a corsage of yellow rosebuds. Mr. and Mrs. Baldwin left on a short wedding trip, after which they will be at home in their newly appointed residence on Hunt street. Mrs. Baldwin is a graduate of the Reid Memorial Hospital Training School for Nurses. Mr. Baldwin is employed at the K-D Kitchen Cabinet company.

The Jolly Six club was entertained by Miss Bernice Goebel at her home on Northwest First street. A short business session was held and refreshment served. Those present were Miss Martha Weber, Miss Marjorie Edgerton, Miss Mary Louise Snavely, Miss Mary Parker, Miss Harriett Scott and Miss Goebel. The club will meet Feb. 13 with Miss Mary Parker at her home on Northwest Fifth street.

Mrs. Ray Wright, North Eighteenth street, entertained the Jolly Twelve club Friday afternoon. An informal musicale and contests were features of the afternoon. Mrs. Fred Brown won the favor. Later a six o'clock dinner was served by the hostess, the appointments being carried out in keeping with the Valentine season. Mrs. Frank Aiken will entertain the club Feb. 17 at her home on North Seventeenth street.

Complimenting Mrs. A. B. Fehlman in honor of her birthday anniversary, an informal party was given as a surprise at her home Friday afternoon. Contests were held and later a two-course luncheon was served. Those present were: Mrs. E. V. Stambach, Mrs. Charles Wiker, Miss Jennie Me-

Methodist Episcopal church, the Rev. E. L. Gates officiating. The bride wore a beautiful gown of golden brown crepe meteor with brown accessories. Her flowers were a corsage of yellow rosebuds. Mr. and Mrs. Baldwin left on a short wedding trip, after which they will be at home in their newly appointed residence on Hunt street. Mrs. Baldwin is a graduate of the Reid Memorial Hospital Training School for Nurses. Mr. Baldwin is employed at the K-D Kitchen Cabinet company.

The Jolly Six club was entertained by Miss Bernice Goebel at her home on Northwest First street. A short business session was held and refreshment served. Those present were Miss Martha Weber, Miss Marjorie Edgerton, Miss Mary Louise Snavely, Miss Mary Parker, Miss Harriett Scott and Miss Goebel. The club will meet Feb. 13 with Miss Mary Parker at her home on Northwest Fifth street.

Mrs. Ray Wright, North Eighteenth street, entertained the Jolly Twelve club Friday afternoon. An informal musicale and contests were features of the afternoon. Mrs. Fred Brown won the favor. Later a six o'clock dinner was served by the hostess, the appointments being carried out in keeping with the Valentine season. Mrs. Frank Aiken will entertain the club Feb. 17 at her home on North Seventeenth street.

Complimenting Mrs. A. B. Fehlman in honor of her birthday anniversary, an informal party was given as a surprise at her home Friday afternoon. Contests were held and later a two-course luncheon was served. Those present were: Mrs. E. V. Stambach, Mrs. Charles Wiker, Miss Jennie Me-

Methodist Episcopal church, the Rev. E. L. Gates officiating. The bride wore a beautiful gown of golden brown crepe meteor with brown accessories. Her flowers were a corsage of yellow rosebuds. Mr. and Mrs. Baldwin left on a short wedding trip, after which they will be at home in their newly appointed residence on Hunt street. Mrs. Baldwin is a graduate of the Reid Memorial Hospital Training School for Nurses. Mr. Baldwin is employed at the K-D Kitchen Cabinet company.

The Jolly Six club was entertained by Miss Bernice Goebel at her home on Northwest First street. A short business session was held and refreshment served. Those present were Miss Martha Weber, Miss Marjorie Edgerton, Miss Mary Louise Snavely, Miss Mary Parker, Miss Harriett Scott and Miss Goebel. The club will meet Feb. 13 with Miss Mary Parker at her home on Northwest Fifth street.

Mrs. Ray Wright, North Eighteenth street, entertained the Jolly Twelve club Friday afternoon. An informal musicale and contests were features of the afternoon. Mrs. Fred Brown won the favor. Later a six o'clock dinner was served by the hostess, the appointments being carried out in keeping with the Valentine season. Mrs. Frank Aiken will entertain the club Feb. 17 at her home on North Seventeenth street.

Complimenting Mrs. A. B. Fehlman in honor of her birthday anniversary, an informal party was given as a surprise at her home Friday afternoon. Contests were held and later a two-course luncheon was served. Those present were: Mrs. E. V. Stambach, Mrs. Charles Wiker, Miss Jennie Me-

Methodist Episcopal church, the Rev. E. L. Gates officiating. The bride wore a beautiful gown of golden brown crepe meteor with brown accessories. Her flowers were a corsage of yellow rosebuds. Mr. and Mrs. Baldwin left on a short wedding trip, after which they will be at home in their newly appointed residence on Hunt street. Mrs. Baldwin is a graduate of the Reid Memorial Hospital Training School for Nurses. Mr. Baldwin is employed at the K-D Kitchen Cabinet company.

The Jolly Six club was entertained by Miss Bernice Goebel at her home on Northwest First street. A short business session was held and refreshment served. Those present were Miss Martha Weber, Miss Marjorie Edgerton, Miss Mary Louise Snavely, Miss Mary Parker, Miss Harriett Scott and Miss Goebel. The club will meet Feb. 13 with Miss Mary Parker at her home on Northwest Fifth street.

Mrs. Ray Wright, North Eighteenth street, entertained the Jolly Twelve club Friday afternoon. An informal musicale and contests were features of the afternoon. Mrs. Fred Brown won the favor. Later a six o'clock dinner was served by the hostess, the appointments being carried out in keeping with the Valentine season. Mrs. Frank Aiken will entertain the club Feb. 17 at her home on North Seventeenth street.

Complimenting Mrs. A. B. Fehlman in honor of her birthday anniversary, an informal party was given as a surprise at her home Friday afternoon. Contests were held and later a two-course luncheon was served. Those present were: Mrs. E. V. Stambach, Mrs. Charles Wiker, Miss Jennie Me-

Methodist Episcopal church, the Rev. E. L. Gates officiating. The bride wore a beautiful gown of golden brown crepe meteor with brown accessories. Her flowers were a corsage of yellow rosebuds. Mr. and Mrs. Baldwin left on a short wedding trip, after which they will be at home in their newly appointed residence on Hunt street. Mrs. Baldwin is a graduate of the Reid Memorial Hospital Training School for Nurses. Mr. Baldwin is employed at the K-D Kitchen Cabinet company.

The Jolly Six club was entertained by Miss Bernice Goebel at her home on Northwest First street. A short business session was held and refreshment served. Those present were Miss Martha Weber, Miss Marjorie Edgerton, Miss Mary Louise Snavely, Miss Mary Parker, Miss Harriett Scott and Miss Goebel. The club will meet Feb. 13 with Miss Mary Parker at her home on Northwest Fifth street.

Methodist Episcopal church, the Rev. E. L. Gates officiating. The bride wore a beautiful gown of golden brown crepe meteor with brown accessories. Her flowers were a corsage of yellow rosebuds. Mr. and Mrs. Baldwin left on a short wedding trip, after which they will be at home in their newly appointed residence on Hunt street. Mrs. Baldwin is a graduate of the Reid Memorial Hospital Training School for Nurses. Mr. Baldwin is employed at the K-D Kitchen Cabinet company.

The Jolly Six club was entertained by Miss Bernice Goebel at her home on Northwest First street. A short business session was held and refreshment served. Those present were Miss Martha Weber, Miss Marjorie Edgerton, Miss Mary Louise Snavely, Miss Mary Parker, Miss Harriett Scott and Miss Goebel. The club will meet Feb. 13 with Miss Mary Parker at her home on Northwest Fifth street.

Mrs. Ray Wright, North Eighteenth street, entertained the Jolly Twelve club Friday afternoon. An informal musicale and contests were features of the afternoon. Mrs. Fred Brown won the favor. Later a six o'clock dinner was served by the hostess, the appointments being carried out in keeping with the Valentine season. Mrs. Frank Aiken will entertain the club Feb. 17 at her home on North Seventeenth street.

Complimenting Mrs. A. B. Fehlman in honor of her birthday anniversary, an informal party was given as a surprise at her home Friday afternoon. Contests were held and later a two-course luncheon was served. Those present were: Mrs. E. V. Stambach, Mrs. Charles Wiker, Miss Jennie Me-

Methodist Episcopal church, the Rev. E. L. Gates officiating. The bride wore a beautiful gown of golden brown crepe meteor with brown accessories. Her flowers were a corsage of yellow rosebuds. Mr. and Mrs. Baldwin left on a short wedding trip, after which they will be at home in their newly appointed residence on Hunt street. Mrs. Baldwin is a graduate of the Reid Memorial Hospital Training School for Nurses. Mr. Baldwin is employed at the K-D Kitchen Cabinet company.

The Jolly Six club was entertained by Miss Bernice Goebel at her home on Northwest First street. A short business session was held and refreshment served. Those present were Miss Martha Weber, Miss Marjorie Edgerton, Miss Mary Louise Snavely, Miss Mary Parker, Miss Harriett Scott and Miss Goebel. The club will meet Feb. 13 with Miss Mary Parker at her home on Northwest Fifth street.

Mrs. Ray Wright, North Eighteenth street, entertained the Jolly Twelve club Friday afternoon. An informal musicale and contests were features of the afternoon. Mrs. Fred Brown won the favor. Later a six o'clock dinner was served by the hostess, the appointments being carried out in keeping with the Valentine season. Mrs. Frank Aiken will entertain the club Feb. 17 at her home on North Seventeenth street.

Complimenting Mrs. A. B. Fehlman in honor of her birthday anniversary, an informal party was given as a surprise at her home Friday afternoon. Contests were held and later a two-course luncheon was served. Those present were: Mrs. E. V. Stambach, Mrs. Charles Wiker, Miss Jennie Me-

Methodist Episcopal church, the Rev. E. L. Gates officiating. The bride wore a beautiful gown of golden brown crepe meteor with brown accessories. Her flowers were a corsage of yellow rosebuds. Mr. and Mrs. Baldwin left on a short wedding trip, after which they will be at home in their newly appointed residence on Hunt street. Mrs. Baldwin is a graduate of the Reid Memorial Hospital Training School for Nurses. Mr. Baldwin is employed at the K-D Kitchen Cabinet company.

The Jolly Six club was entertained by Miss Bernice Goebel at her home on Northwest First street. A short business session was held and refreshment served. Those present were Miss Martha Weber, Miss Marjorie Edgerton, Miss Mary Louise Snavely, Miss Mary Parker, Miss Harriett Scott and Miss Goebel. The club will meet Feb. 13 with Miss Mary Parker at her home on Northwest Fifth street.

Mrs. Ray Wright, North Eighteenth street, entertained the Jolly Twelve club Friday afternoon. An informal musicale and contests were features of the afternoon. Mrs. Fred Brown won the favor. Later a six o'clock dinner was served by the hostess, the appointments being carried out in keeping with the Valentine season. Mrs. Frank Aiken will entertain the club Feb. 17 at her home on North Seventeenth street.

Complimenting Mrs. A. B. Fehlman in honor of her birthday anniversary, an informal party was given as a surprise at her home Friday afternoon. Contests were held and later a two-course luncheon was served. Those present were: Mrs. E. V. Stambach, Mrs. Charles Wiker, Miss Jennie Me-

Methodist Episcopal church, the Rev. E. L. Gates officiating. The bride wore a beautiful gown of golden brown crepe meteor with brown accessories. Her flowers were a corsage of yellow rosebuds. Mr. and Mrs. Baldwin left on a short wedding trip, after which they will be at home in their newly appointed residence on Hunt street. Mrs. Baldwin is a graduate of the Reid Memorial Hospital Training School for Nurses. Mr. Baldwin is employed at the K-D Kitchen Cabinet company.

The Jolly Six club was entertained by Miss Bernice Goebel at her home on Northwest First street. A short business session was held and refreshment served. Those present were Miss Martha Weber, Miss Marjorie Edgerton, Miss Mary Louise Snavely, Miss Mary Parker, Miss Harriett Scott and Miss Goebel. The club will meet Feb. 13 with Miss Mary Parker at her home on Northwest Fifth street.

Mrs. Ray Wright, North Eighteenth street, entertained the Jolly Twelve club Friday afternoon. An informal musicale and contests were features of the afternoon. Mrs. Fred Brown won the favor. Later a six o'clock dinner was served by the hostess, the appointments being carried out in keeping with the Valentine season. Mrs. Frank Aiken will entertain the club Feb. 17 at her home on North Seventeenth street.

Complimenting Mrs. A. B. Fehlman in honor of her birthday anniversary, an informal party was given as a surprise at her home Friday afternoon. Contests were held and later a two-course luncheon was served. Those present were: Mrs. E. V. Stambach, Mrs. Charles Wiker, Miss Jennie Me-

Methodist Episcopal church, the Rev. E. L. Gates officiating. The bride wore a beautiful gown of golden brown crepe meteor with brown accessories. Her flowers were a corsage of yellow rosebuds. Mr. and Mrs. Baldwin left on a short wedding trip, after which they will be at home in their newly appointed residence on Hunt street. Mrs. Baldwin is a graduate of the Reid Memorial Hospital Training School for Nurses. Mr. Baldwin is employed at the K-D Kitchen Cabinet company.

The Jolly Six club was entertained by Miss Bernice Goebel at her home on Northwest First street. A short business session was held and refreshment served. Those present were Miss Martha Weber, Miss Marjorie Edgerton, Miss Mary Louise Snavely, Miss Mary Parker, Miss Harriett Scott and Miss Goebel. The club will meet Feb. 13 with Miss Mary Parker at her home on Northwest Fifth street.

Mrs. Ray Wright, North Eighteenth street, entertained the Jolly Twelve club Friday afternoon. An informal musicale and contests were features of the afternoon. Mrs. Fred Brown won the favor. Later a six o'clock dinner was served by the hostess, the appointments being carried out in keeping with the Valentine season. Mrs. Frank Aiken will entertain the club Feb. 17 at her home on North Seventeenth street.

Complimenting Mrs. A. B. Fehlman in honor of her birthday anniversary, an informal party was given as a surprise at her home Friday afternoon. Contests were held and later a two-course luncheon was served. Those present were: Mrs. E. V. Stambach, Mrs. Charles Wiker, Miss Jennie Me-

Methodist Episcopal church, the Rev. E. L. Gates officiating. The bride wore a beautiful gown of golden brown crepe meteor with brown accessories. Her flowers were a corsage of yellow rosebuds. Mr. and Mrs. Baldwin left on a short wedding trip, after which they will be at home in their newly appointed residence on Hunt street. Mrs. Baldwin is a graduate of the Reid Memorial Hospital Training School for Nurses. Mr. Baldwin is employed at the K-D Kitchen Cabinet company.

The Jolly Six club was entertained by Miss Bernice Goebel at her home on Northwest First street. A short business session was held and refreshment served. Those present were Miss Martha Weber, Miss Marjorie Edgerton, Miss Mary Louise Snavely, Miss Mary Parker, Miss Harriett Scott and Miss Goebel. The club will meet Feb. 13 with Miss Mary Parker at her home on Northwest Fifth street.

Methodist Episcopal church, the Rev. E. L. Gates officiating. The bride wore a beautiful gown of golden brown crepe meteor with brown accessories. Her flowers were a corsage of yellow rosebuds. Mr. and Mrs. Baldwin left on a short wedding trip, after which they will be at home in their newly appointed residence on Hunt street. Mrs. Baldwin is a graduate of the Reid Memorial Hospital Training School for Nurses. Mr. Baldwin is employed at the K-D Kitchen Cabinet company.

The Jolly Six club was entertained by Miss Bernice Goebel at her home on Northwest First street. A short business session was held and refreshment served. Those present were Miss Martha Weber, Miss Marjorie Edgerton, Miss Mary Louise Snavely, Miss Mary Parker, Miss Harriett Scott and Miss Goebel. The club will meet Feb. 13 with Miss Mary Parker at her home on Northwest Fifth street.

Mrs. Ray Wright, North Eighteenth street, entertained the Jolly Twelve club Friday afternoon. An informal musicale and contests were features of the afternoon. Mrs. Fred Brown won the favor. Later a six o'clock dinner was served by the hostess, the appointments being carried out in keeping with the Valentine season. Mrs. Frank Aiken will entertain the club Feb. 17 at her home on North Seventeenth street.

Complimenting Mrs. A. B. Fehlman in honor of her birthday anniversary, an informal party was given as a surprise at her home Friday afternoon. Contests were held and later a two-course luncheon was served. Those present were: Mrs. E. V. Stambach, Mrs. Charles Wiker, Miss Jennie Me-

Methodist Episcopal church, the Rev. E. L. Gates officiating. The bride wore a beautiful gown of golden brown crepe meteor with brown accessories. Her flowers were a corsage of yellow rosebuds. Mr. and Mrs. Baldwin left on a short wedding trip, after which they will be at home in their newly appointed residence on Hunt street. Mrs. Baldwin is a graduate of the Reid Memorial Hospital Training School for Nurses. Mr. Baldwin is employed at the K-D Kitchen Cabinet company.

The Jolly Six club was entertained by Miss Bernice Goebel at her home on Northwest First street. A short business session was held and refreshment served.