

SOCIETY

The annual Arts and Crafts exhibit is to have its opening at the public art gallery Wednesday evening from 7:30 to 10 o'clock. Visitors will be received by members of the Woman's club art department, who are to be hostesses at the opening. Rare antiques are to be features for this season's exhibition. Antique china, glass, prints and samplers are to be shown and in addition Oriental hangings and tapestries. Mrs. W. O. Crawford is arranging two rooms with furnishings from the Crawford store. One will be a combined sunroom and breakfast room, the other an old-fashioned living room. Everyone interested is extended an invitation to attend the opening.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry D. Zuttermeister, who have been spending the past six weeks in southern California and San Francisco, sailed from there Feb. 3 aboard the steamship, H. F. Alexander, for Honolulu. They were accompanied by their son, Marlon, who has been granted a leave of absence from Leland Stanford university because of impaired eyesight.

Mrs. Harry Ryan and J. R. Gorman spent Sunday at Indianapolis, as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Turner.

Mr. and Mrs. George Harbert, stewards of the Richmond country club, have returned after a fortnight's absence.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Mathews and Miss Frances Mathews, of Centerville, were guests Sunday of Dr. and Mrs. C. H. Groce.

Mrs. Frank Shirk has returned from Muncie, where she spent last week.

Mrs. Walter Renk has returned from a two week's visit with her mother at Nevada, Ohio.

Mrs. Nellie Golden, of this city, has gone to Evansville for a visit of several weeks.

The marriage of Miss Hilda Hertz to Herbert Stuart Barker, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert S. Barker, was celebrated with a beautiful ceremony at 8 o'clock Thursday evening at the residence of the bride's father, William James Tiffany, 242 Granite street, Quincy, Mass. The ceremony room was banked with greenery and bittersweet. The double ring service was read by the Rev. Fred Albin Well, pastor of the Unitarian church. The bride's gown was an exquisite creation of white chiffon. She carried a shower of bride's roses and valley lilies. Her cousin, Miss Marjorie Monroe, acted as maid of honor. Her gown was of jade green georgette brocaded in silver. Her flowers were sweet peas in lavender shades. A reception was held following the ceremony. Mrs. Wiley Vandenberg, harpist, played during the reception. Mr. and Mrs. Barker have sailed for Bermuda where they will spend some time. The bride travelled in a suit of brown marle with accessories to correspond. They will reside in Quincy, Mass. Mrs. Barker is a niece of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Harwood, of this city, and has a large number of friends in this city, having resided here for several years.

The Bon Temps club will form a theatre party Monday evening at the Murray theatre to see the performance of "Steve," starring Eugene O'Brien. The following will be present: Miss Mary Mitchell, Miss Mary Carroll, Miss Marie Evans, Miss Goldie Fisher, Miss Blanche Lawler, Miss Ruth Klinger, and Miss Margaret Carroll.

Miss Melva Hoffman entertained the Friendly Five with a birthday party at her home, 1216 Ridge street, Friday, in honor of Miss Beatrice Mervin. Games and music were part of the evening's program. Refreshments were served to Miss Beatrice Mervin, Miss Grace Darnell, Miss Mildred Schneider and Miss Melva Hoffman.

A lovely party was held Sunday afternoon and evening at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Earnest of North Ninth street, in honor of their thirty-third wedding anniversary. Cards were a feature of the afternoon, after which an elaborate dinner was served. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. Lee Ridgeway, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Bescher, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Streeby, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Ball, Mr. and Mrs. E. Ball, Mrs. Pauline Ball, Miss Helen Ball and Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Earnest.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Davis, of 244 Pearl street, entertained at six o'clock dinner Sunday evening for the following guests: Mr. and Mrs. William Dietz, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Stevenson tained at the home of Mrs. Charles Davis, and Marion and Billy, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Davis, Fred Reynolds, Mrs. Nellie Shinn, Miss Florence Davis, and Robert Davis.

United Commercial Travellers and their families were entertained at the association's third annual banquet Saturday night at the L. O. O. F. hall. Profusions of cut flowers and potted plants ornamented the dining table which was laid for 90 persons. Dinner talks were a feature of the evening and later there was dancing and cards. The dance program was played by the Jesse Halberstadt orchestra. The banquet was served by members of the Penny club. Those attending the function were: Mr. and Mrs. George Christman and family, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Davis, Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Cramer, Mr. and Mrs. Ira Suits, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Hollopeter, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Englebrecht and family, Mr. and Mrs. George Hamilton, Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Sharp and family, Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Stegall, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lahman, Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Newhoener, Mr. and Mrs. William McClellan, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Cain and family, Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Thomas, Mr. and Mrs. Byron Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Downing, and Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Terbst.

The Home Extension department of the City Bible schools will meet Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Y. M. C. A. Mrs. William Day will have charge of the advance lesson for February.

A cafeteria supper will be served at the Second English Lutheran church from 5 to 7 o'clock Wednesday evening by the Bethany Bible class. The public is invited.

The Happy Hour club is giving a Valentine dance Thursday evening at the L. O. O. F. hall. The affair will be informal. Dancing will commence at 8:30 o'clock. Music will be furnished by the Evans Smith orchestra, the personnel being as follows: Paul Kring, saxophone and clarinet; Stuart Pratt, banjo; Pauline Sener, piano; Evan Smith, drums.

The Richmond Day Nursery board will meet at 1 o'clock Tuesday afternoon at the nursery.

The meeting of the Five Hundred club to have been held Monday evening with Miss Doris Puckett has been postponed on account of illness.

The Virginia Asher Business Women's council will be addressed by Ruth Pemberton Brown at its noon meeting Tuesday at the Red Men's hall. Mrs. Fred J. Bartel will sing. Mrs. Backus will give the Bible lesson at the evening meeting and there will be special music then. The meal will be served by women of the Third M. E. church. After the evening meeting the council members have been invited to attend evening revival services at Whitewater Friends church, and it is hoped a large number of girls will go.

The Chester Aid society will meet Wednesday afternoon at the hall for quilting.

The Degree of Honor will give a card party at the Red Men's hall Monday evening. Euchre will be played. The public is invited.

The Music department of the Women's club will hold no meeting Tuesday as announced in the yearbook. The meeting has been postponed on account of illness. The organ recital for Feb. 18 has also been postponed until further announcement.

The Garfield P. T. A. will hold an evening meeting at the school Monday evening. Superintendent of Schools W. G. Bate will speak on "Child Welfare." The program is to center about child welfare and the speaker is to deal with what is being done for the backward child. A full attendance is urged.

Mrs. B. F. Gehr will be hostess to the Show-Me club Tuesday afternoon at her home on South Fourteenth street. A report will be made by the entertaining committee. All members are asked to be present.

The Woman's Community club of Fairview will hold no meeting Tuesday of this week. The meeting has been postponed until Feb. 20.

A cafeteria supper will be served from 5:30 to 7 o'clock in the basement of the West Richmond Friends church Wednesday evening by the Ladies' Aid. The public is invited.

A reception will be held by the E. R. class of Reid Memorial church Monday evening at 8 o'clock in the church parlors. A full attendance is requested.

The Criterion club will be entered at the home of Mrs. Charles Davis, the dress. The ladies also finished a Groce, South A street, Tuesday afternoon.

Mrs. Stella Kercheval will be hostess to the Current Events club Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. Mary Newhoener and Mrs. Bertha Thompson will have the papers, their subjects being, respectively: "Mode of Education" and "Fighting the Mighty Opium Ring."

Richmond council, 2956 S. B. A., will hold its regular session Tuesday evening at 7:30 o'clock in the Colonial annex. Candidates will be initiated and important business transacted. A social hour will follow for which a special feature is in store. A full attendance is urged.

A card party will be given at the Moose club rooms at 2:30 o'clock Tuesday afternoon. The public is invited.

The Penny club will meet Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. Lizzie Bescher, at her home, 101 Lincoln street. Each person is asked to bring thimbles and needles prepared to sew. It will be lunch day.

The Woman's loyal club will meet Wednesday evening at 7:30 o'clock at the Moose home. After the business session the ladies will entertain their husbands and families with a short program. Later supper will be served by a committee.

Suburban

NEW PARIS, Ohio.—Mrs. John Arnold, of Richmond, spent Wednesday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Boze... Miss Sarah McGrew spent part of the week with Mr. and Mrs. L. P. Melody and daughter at Richmond.... Miss Evelyn Northrop and P. G. Northrop of Eaton, spent the week-end with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Northrop.... The women of the Pythian Sisters lodge held the first of their weekly soup sales Wednesday forenoon in the O. B. Aker store. Twelve gallons of soup was disposed of in a short time. Baked beans also were sold, and the proceeds from the sale added a nice sum to the treasury. These sales will be held weekly until further notice.... L. H. Davidson made a business trip to Green's Fork, Ind., Saturday.... Mrs. Eliza Timmons spent a few days the past week with Mrs. C. F. Scott and daughter during Mr. Scott's absence on a business trip to Chicago.... Mrs. Jessie A. Melody spent Sunday at Richmond with her son, L. P. Melody.... John H. Shelton, of San Francisco, Calif., spent a few days of this week with John M. Sawyer at Columbus, and both came to New Paris Tuesday and remained for a few days' visit at Mr. Sawyer's home.... Miss Doris Harris spent Saturday and Sunday at Wrightland, Richmond, with Miss Phyllis Ward.... Edwin Midaugh, Ed. B. Reid, T. F. Bice, H. E. Wiley and W. C. Hapner went to Detroit, Mich., Sunday and drove back cars for an automobile company at Richmond.... The Henry Becker property, reported sold to W. L. Hahn, was an error, as Forrest Pierson and family have the property leased for rental and will move there at once from the Thompson property on High street.... Orland Burnam returned Thursday to the National Military Home, Dayton, Ohio, after ten days' visit with his aunt, Mrs. Nancy King.... E. C. Mikesell has been in Eaton for a week on the jury in the Fowle will case.... Mrs. Emma Straight, of New Madison, spent the past week with her sister, Mrs. W. F. Wrenn.... W. C. Hapner drove the Harris, Parker and company poultry truck during the illness of George Lehman, manager, who has been ill with influenza. Mr. Lehman is improved and able to be up, but unable yet to take up his work.

J. W. Pearce of Greenville was a New Paris business visitor Saturday.... The Wesleyan Brotherhood class of the Methodist Sunday school held their regular joint January meeting Friday evening in the church parlors. A program was given and refreshments served.... The special bridge carpenters' gang of the Pennsylvania railroad company have laid new ties in the big railroad bridge south of New Paris, and for a day or so, trains were switched to allow the men to finish their work.... The Royal Women's class of the Presbyterian Sunday school has shipped several hundred pounds of reading matter to the Ohio State penitentiary. This reading matter was gathered up in response to the appeal of the chaplain of the institution.... An enjoyable all-day missionary meeting was held Thursday by the Presbyterian Misionary society at the home of Mrs. A. B. Reid. A dish dinner was served at the noon hour and a program given in the afternoon. Mrs. V. E. Brown of Richmond, gave an interesting address. The ladies also finished a large amount of bandage making for hospital use.... Mr. and Mrs. J. A. White spent Tuesday with Mr. and Mrs. Fred White and daughter at Pleasant Hill.... Roads are reported in a bad condition. Great ruts and heavy mud make some of the roads in the township almost impassable.... Frank Cowgill of Richmond is aiding his brother, Walter Cowgill, in the latter's grocery business, and has established a number of country routes in all directions from New Paris. These are covered daily and are quite a convenience to farmers' wives.... Mr. and Mrs. Ray Menke, of Dayton, visited Mr. and Mrs. Orville Veits and family Wednesday.... Mr. and Mrs. Harry Yost and family of Richmond were guests Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. Chalmers Denny and family.... G. A. Hill recently donated 10 columns to the public library.

Members of the Gleaners class of the Methodist Sunday school were delightfully entertained on Friday evening by Miss Ruth and William Engle at their country home. Devotional service was conducted by William Engle and after the business session the evening was spent in merry making. Refreshments were served.... William Waggoner returned Thursday from a several weeks' visit in the south.... Guy Murray is spending the week at Columbus.... M. and Mrs. Amos Black had as their guests Sunday Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Young and son, Donald, Mrs. Emma Burg, Chester, Ind., Mrs. Eleanor Mikesell went to Chicago Tuesday for an extended visit with her daughter, Miss Mae Hayes.... Mrs. A. T. Barber returned Thursday

Multigraph Letters Get the Business. Use them. Ask us about our service.

CLEVELAND CLUB SENDS QUEEN TO MARDI GRAS BALL

Wanda Barnes.

Wanda Barnes is one of the happiest girls in Cleveland, for she not only was proclaimed the most beautiful among two thousand girls at the Martha Lee club's Mardi Gras ball, but she will get a trip to New Orleans as a reward to see the real Mardi Gras of nation fame. Her expenses will be paid by the club and Mrs. Martha Lee, president of the club, will chaperon her. Miss Barnes is eighteen years old.

large amount of bandage making for hospital use.... Mr. and Mrs. J. A. White spent Tuesday with Mr. and Mrs. Fred White and daughter at Pleasant Hill.... Roads are reported in a bad condition. Great ruts and heavy mud make some of the roads in the township almost impassable.... Frank Cowgill of Richmond is aiding his brother, Walter Cowgill, in the latter's grocery business, and has established a number of country routes in all directions from New Paris. These are covered daily and are quite a convenience to farmers' wives.... Mr. and Mrs. Ray Menke, of Dayton, visited Mr. and Mrs. Orville Veits and family Wednesday.... Mr. and Mrs. Harry Yost and family of Richmond were guests Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. Chalmers Denny and family.... G. A. Hill recently donated 10 columns to the public library.

Members of the Gleaners class of the Methodist Sunday school were

delightfully entertained on Friday evening by Miss Ruth and William Engle at their country home. Devotional service was conducted by William Engle and after the business session the evening was spent in merry making. Refreshments were served.... William Waggoner returned Thursday from a several weeks' visit in the south.... Guy Murray is spending the week at Columbus.... M. and Mrs. Amos Black had as their guests Sunday Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Young and son, Donald, Mrs. Emma Burg, Chester, Ind., Mrs. Eleanor Mikesell went to Chicago Tuesday for an extended visit with her daughter, Miss Mae Hayes.... Mrs. A. T. Barber returned Thursday

Multigraph Letters Get the Business. Use them. Ask us about our service.

RICHMOND TYPEWRITER EXCHANGE

9 S. 7th St., Ph. 1010 In the Colonial

THE RAINBOW Steering Column Bracket eliminates jar and vibration, also the twist or give of the column. For Fords only. Makes driving a pleasure. 75c each.

McCONAHA'S GARAGE, 418 Main

Be Satisfied—Use

FAULTLESS FLOUR

WM. FISHER

738 Sheridan St. Phone 3314

Evening Coiffure Demands

Spanish Comb

Milady's evening coiffure demands some kind of ornaments this season. See our stock of fancy combs—pan-shaped and completely jeweled.

We Do Marcelling

M. E. STEELE

408 Second National Bldg. Phone 2499

5

C

Now Buys Delicious

ESKIMO PIES

All Richmond are eating them now.

Bender's

PURE

ICE CREAM

Specials for Tuesday and Wednesday

These items listed for the two day special selling will prove great money saving values to you—Read these carefully.

Men's blue chambray gingham work shirts, $1.25 values all sizes—

79c

Sandsilk, all wanted shades, 10c values, special

5c

Muslin gowns, very attractive trimmings, $1.45 values special each...

85c

Ladies' union suits in summer weight, three styles, 85c values, special

50c

Ladies' thread silk hose in plain and fancy, $1.35 and $1.75 values, special

98c

Windsor crepe gowns in $1.35 quality.

95c

Percale one yard wide, light white coat and dark, 25c quality

17c

$10.00 WOOL SWEATERS

$10.00 all wool sweaters, jumbo knit, brown and cardinal, special for Tues- day and Wed. ea.

$5.00

$8.00 SLIPOVER SWEATERS

$8.00 all wool slipover sweat- ers in black and maroon, also white coat and slipover, special

$3.95

Black silk messaline in our regular $1.65 quality, just one piece left, special Tues- day and Wednesday, $1.10

yard