

RISING SUN:

SATURDAY MORNING, JULY 2, 1836.

We have two or three communications on hand, which we are compelled to lay over until next week. The recent change in the departure of the mail, makes it necessary that our paper should be made up early on Friday morning. Correspondents, therefore, cannot send in their articles too early in the week.

We are authorized to announce JAMES WALKER, Esq. of Laughery township, as a candidate to represent Dearborn county in the next House of Representatives of this state.

After publishing the general Road Law of this State, we perceived that there were other duties pertaining to the office of Supervisor; or rather, that there were some alterations in the law incorporating the townships of this county, in regard to Roads and Highways, which rendered its publication necessary. We have, therefore, given it a place in to-day's paper.

The disputed Boundary line between Ohio and Michigan, which created so much excitement last summer, and which had nearly caused bloodshed, has been adjusted by Congress, according to the line claimed by the State of Ohio. This is as it should be, in our opinion; and the Wolverines will doubtless hereafter, be more careful in setting up claims to portions of territory not their own.

We have heard many inquiries made in regard to what our Millers intend offering for wheat the present season. We have not heard what the Mills in this village intend to give; but we understand that one establishment in this county will offer but 62 1-2 in cash. Were we to spend our opinion in regard to the price of Wheat this season, we would say that seventy-five cents will probably be as much as can be obtained, at least, at the start.

Laborer's and harvest hands are uncommonly scarce in this neighborhood. High wages are offered, and still there are none to be obtained. We think if some of the laborers in our large towns and cities were to take to the country, they would find it much to their advantage. Instead of living from "mouth to mouth," as many of them do, they could obtain a first rate living.

A public meeting was held at Indianapolis, on the 11th ult. for the purpose of appointing delegates to represent the State of Indiana in the contemplated Rail Road Convention, to be held at Knoxville, in Tennessee, on the 4th of July, inst. Gov. NOBLE presided at the meeting. Ten delegates were appointed. Among them we perceive the names of Lt. Gov. WALLACE, and GEORGE H. DUNN, Esq. of this county.

THE CROPS.

This is the season of the year to hear something about crops. We have seen several paragraphs in the Eastern papers, stating that the appearance of crops in some parts of Pennsylvania, Virginia and Maryland, are rather unfavorable. In Ohio, it is said, the crops are generally good. In this section, the crops, on an average, will not be so good as they have been; the wheat being more thin on the ground than usual; but notwithstanding this the crops will be good; and there is at present every prospect of an abundant supply.

It may not be generally known that two young men from this county, have been assisting the Texans in their struggle for Liberty; yet such is the fact. Their names are IRWIN ARMSTRONG, son of Walter Armstrong, Esq. of Lawrenceburgh, and JACKSON GRAY, son of John Gray, Esq. of Union township. A letter has been published in the Palladium; from young Armstrong, dated on the San Jacinto battle ground, the 7th of May. He says he was on the extreme right in the front rank of his company, during the whole of the charge.

We understand that Mr. Armstrong has recently received a letter from his son, in which he states that he was the third man who mounted the enemy's cannon—and that he is now one of the guards over Santa Anna.

A writer in the Philadelphia Herald suggests to Travellers and others who carry with them any large amount of bank notes, to "mark each bill in such a way that they could describe it, and that others would know it by the mark." If this were done, in case of their pockets being picked, or of being robbed, they would stand a better chance of recovering the money, and detecting the robber or thief. We think the idea a good one.

NEW PERIODICAL.

We have received the first number of the work alluded to in the following paragraph from the Ohio State Journal—and we do not know that we could better express our opinion of it than by saying that we fully agree with the Journal. We will remark however, that take Mr. GALLAGHER where you will, you always find the productions of his pen full of interest. We hope that both Editor and Publishers may meet with the encouragement which the undertaking deserves.

We have received the first number of a new periodical publication, just commenced in the City of Cincinnati, by Messrs. Smith & Day, under the title of "Western Literary Journal, and Monthly Review." It is neatly printed on fine medium paper—each number containing 92 large octavo pages of original matter, well stitched and handsomely covered—at the rate of Three Dollars per annum, if paid at the time of subscribing; Three Dollars and Five Cents, within the year; or Four Dollars, if payment be delayed till after that time.—We have taken occasion to give a few of the leading articles a hasty perusal, and find them interesting and well-written.—When we state, however, that the work before us is conducted by William D. Gallagher, Esq., a gentleman advantageously known in the West as the author of several publications of acknowledged merit, as well as in the capacity of Editor of the Cincinnati Mirror, and that a number of ladies and gentlemen of high literary attainments will be regular contributors to its pages, we need add nothing else by way of recommendation.

FOR THE TIMES.

To Messrs. P. Johns, A. C. Pepper, David Guard, Thomas Guion, and John P. Dunn—

GENTLEMEN: On looking over the columns of the Times and the Palladium, we see your names announced as candidates to represent the county of Dearborn in the next General Assembly of the state of Indiana; and as the doctrine is acceded to by all parties, that the People have a right to demand of those who serve them in a public capacity, their sentiments on matters and things interesting to those who may be their constituents, we therefore propound to you the following interrogatories, as to the course you will pursue, and your views, in the event of your being elected to the office to which you aspire.

First. What course will you pursue in regard to the election of United States' Senator? Will you vote for a Van Buren candidate, if he (Van Buren) gets a majority of the votes of this county at the ensuing Presidential election?

Second. What are your views in regard to the act passed at the last session of the Legislature, providing for a general system of Internal Improvement?

Third. What are your views in regard to the ad valorem system of taxation?

Fourth. What course do you intend pursuing in respect to a division of the county of Dearborn—and what are your views on that question?

Fifth. What course will you pursue in case the county seat question comes up again before the Legislature?

MANY VOTERS.

June 27th, 1836.

Dearborn county Literary Institute and Association of Teachers.

The committee appointed at the last meeting of this Association to make arrangements for a special meeting in Rising Sun, remind the public that this meeting will be held on Saturday, the 2d of July. The arrangements made are the following. A meeting in the forenoon, in the Presbyterian Church, at 10 o'clock, to hear and act upon a Report, and for other business.

A meeting in the afternoon, at 2 o'clock, at which time resolutions will be presented, and addresses made.

The committee have thought it best to dispense with the lecture proposed, as it is expected that the meeting will be addressed by several gentlemen.

Gentlemen and Ladies are invited to attend.

CHARLES BARTLETT,
WILLIAM TWINING, } Com.
J. E. BRIGHT,

CONGRESS.—It has been suggested to us that the most effectual mode of inducing this body to break up and go home, would be to refrain altogether from publishing its proceedings. If every editor in the country would pursue this plan, the two houses would soon disperse. There are hundreds of members who seem to protract the session for no other purpose than to see their names in print and to receive their pay.—Baltimore Chronicle.

THE CHAMPION UNCHAMPIONED.—We learn from the last St. Louis Republican, that the steamboats Champion and Paul Jones, had a trial of speed between Alton and that place on the 17th inst. It was an even start, but the Paul Jones completely eclipsed the eastern boat, and kept the lead the whole distance.—Louisville Adv.

HOOSIER CALF.—On the 5th inst, a Cow belonging to Mr. Uriah Sample of this township brought forth a Calf which at the age of 24 hours, weighed Ninety four pounds. The Cow is of the common blood, and the sire was old St. Peter, a Durham Bull, owned by Samuel Serring, Esq.

Nineteen hundred and seventy-three emigrants arrived at the port of New York, during the three days preceding the 31st of May.
