Brookston Checker Players Bumptuous Too.

Another noisy lot of checker playing talk is coming out of Brookston, and the editor of the Reporter there thinks there are several of the Brookston bunch that can "leary" Mr. McFarland and the game. The paper says that Brookston can boast of six players that can really play the game. Presumably Ed M. Ferguson is one of these, as he ended up very well in the recent Brookston-Chalmers match, but when Mr. Ferguson visited Rensselaer last summer he failed to get a game from either McFarland, Thomas or Stevens. If these players think they are equal to the task, the invitation is open to meet them in a team match, from 5 to 8 men on each side, to be played in Rensselaer, Brookston or Reynolds.

Now let these noisy White county editors have their checker champions toe the mark.

You Can Easily Operate This Typewriter Yourself

Don't worry your correspondent. Don't write him anything by hand that it takes him time to make out—that may leave him in doubt that he can't easily read.

And don't fill out legal papers or menu memos—or make out accounts or hotel menus in your own hand writing.

It looks bad, reflects on your standing, makes people think you can't afford a stenographer, and is sometimes ambiguous.

You can write out your letters—make out an abstract—fill in an insurance policy—enter your card memos—make out your accounts, or a hotel menu—or do any kind of writing you need, on any kind, size or thickness of paper, and space any way you want to.

The OLIVER Typewriter

The Standard Visible Writer

You can write any of these things yourself if you do not happen to have a stenographer.

For you can easily learn, with a little practice, to write just as rapidly, and as perfectly, as an expert operator on the OLIVER. Because the OLIVER is the simplified typewriter. And you can re-er every word you write. About 80 per cent more durable than any other typewriter, because it has about 80 per cent less wearing points than most other typewriters.

80 per cent easier to write with than these other complicated intricate machines that require "humoring"—technical knowledge—long practice and special skill to operate.

Than machines which cannot be adjusted to any special space—with which it is impossible to write abstracts, insurance policies, or odd-size documents except you buy expensive special attachments requiring experts to operate.

You can adjust the OLIVER to any reasonable space—you can write on any reasonable size and thickness of paper, right out to the very edge, without the aid of any expensive attachment or special skill, and your work will be neat appearing legible and clear.

For the OLIVER is the typewriter for the doctor, the lawyer, the insurance agent, the merchant, the hotel proprietor—or any man who does his own writing.

Write us now for our booklet on the simplified features of the OLIVER.

ADDITIONAL MONDAY LOCALS.

Monticello played all around Goodland at basketball last Friday night, the score being Monticello 6, Goodland 22. In the first half Monticello played an entire substitute team, and the half ended in Goodland's favor, 17 to 9. But in the second half Monticello introduced its real champion players, and they ran up a score of 57 to 5 for the half. Saturday night Monticello played Crawfordsville. The Deaconess Advocate for January, a paper published by the Chicago Training School for Deaconesses, contains a halftone picture of Mary Delamar Kinnear Monett, mother of Miss Cordeletta Monett, in whose memory it is expected to erect a building at the Chicago Training School. The paper itself is a very excellent exponent of the deaconess labors for the rescuing and educating of the unfortunate orphan.

Deaths from drowning are daily reported in the newspapers, and this should serve as a warning to parents to restrain their boys from taking any risks. The new river channel is very deep and will require much freezing before it is safe for skating. Several boys have been ducked there this year and parents should forbid them going on the channel until a thorough test of its safety has been made. We are told that several boys have crossed over the channel in a spirit of bravado, and that their escape was a matter of good fortune. Keep the boys off the river, don't run any risk with them.

Earl Sayler, of Elbow Lake, Minn., in sending $3 for two years subscription, writes very entertainingly of his home there. He says they have also had a very fine winter with very little snow. He thinks the money stringency was not so much noticed there as in the east, altho it effected the price of grain. He could have sold his wheat at one time for $1.03 a bushel but finally sold it at 92 to 96 cents. In commenting on the big load of corn D. A. Tanner hauled last fall, he said he believes he holds the record there for a bumper load of oats, having hauled 156 bushels on one wagon, a distance of four miles and received 42 cents a bushel for it. His family were all well, but the grip was sweeping the country. In closing he says: "I wish I could hand around some of the fine fish we have here. We had six nice pickerel this week."

The ladies of the Christian church will hold their regular 10 cent monthly social at the home of Mrs. Pierce on next Wednesday afternoon Jan 22. All are invited. Members are requested to come a little early as there is some business to be attended to.

"A Rag Picker's Child."

The management of the Ellis opera house has an important offering for Tuesday night, January 21, which deserves special mention, the J. G. Stamm Amusement Company, present "Virginia Myer," the remarkable clever and accomplished young actress, supported by a carefully selected cast, in Bert Brookhart's powerful five act drama, "A Rag Picker's Child," staged under the personal direction of the author. The play, while a thrilling melodrama is full of good comedy, and replete with startling situations and is pronounced by press and public to be one of the most interesting of dramas of the present day. Judging from the interest which has been manifested, the attendance will be large, so secure your tickets at once, now on sale at Jessen's. Prices, 25, 35 and 50 cents.
