GET IT AT THE LITTLE GEM

The majority of people haven't any idea of the importance of our candy department.

It, like the others in our store, is in charge of an expert, a specialist.

Deliciousness is not the only appealing feature of the "Little Gem" Candies. Purity is rigidly adhered to in every stage of their manufacture. That's why discriminating lovers of sweets prefer them to other kinds.

Take our cream chocolates at 30c the pound. The crisp coating on the outside and the soft mellow and piquant flavor of the inside make a combination that will beckon on the most backward palate.

There is a great variety of other candies here also, and we are confident that each grade is superior to any other sold at 20 cts. the pound more.

Our fine line of fancy boxes will have to be seen to be appreciated.

We fill them with our fresh hand-made Chocolates while you wait.

On last Sunday afternoon at about three o'clock the news came that little Merl, oldest son of Mr. and Mrs. John Lewis, broke thru the ice and was drowned. He in company with two of his boy schoolmates went out to the lagoon at Fountain Park, it seems that they were skating about when all at once this unfortunate boy struck a thin place in the ice, and went under, he came up struggled and screamed for help, but all in vain, his body sank to the ground and it was fully forty minutes before the body was recovered. Medical aid was summoned, restoratives and artificial respiration was kept up for more than three hours, but all attempts to re-suscitate proved futile. The body was brought home in the evening. Merl was a modest boy, loved by all who knew him at the Sunday School, the class room, by old and young. The community on mass extend to the bereaved parents, their most sincere sympathy.

Deserts Army Thirteen Times.

Patrick Horrigan has been captured. He is now in custody in San Francisco and the military authorities say they have at last captured the champion deserter of the American army. It is charged that in the past 15 year Horrigan has enlisted and deserted 13 times.
And, altho his body is gorgeously tattooed, he has managed to escape the recruiting officer in spite of the fact that descriptions of him had been sent all over the country. Recently the war department decided that Horrigan had deserted enough and that the unlucky thirteenth should be his last.

You Can Easily Operate This Typewriter Yourself

Don't worry your correspondent.
Don't write him
anything by hand that takes him time to make out—that may leave him in doubt
that he can't easily read.

And don't fill out legal papers or card memos—or make out accounts or hotel menus in your own hand writing.

It looks bad, reflects on your standing, makes people think you can't afford a stenographer, and is sometimes ambiguous.

You can write out your letters—make out an abstract—fill in an insurance policy—enter your card memos—make out your accounts, or a hotel menu—do any kind of writing you need, on any kind, size or thickness of paper, and space any way you want to

The OLIVER Typewriter

The Standard Visible Writer

You can write any of these things yourself if you do not happen to have a stenographer.

For you can easily learn, with a little practice, to write just as rapidly, and as perfectly, as an expert operator on the OLIVER. Because the OLIVER is the simplified typewriter. And you can rec every word you write. About 80 per cent more durable than any other typewriter, because it has about 80 per cent less wearing points than most other typewriters.

80 per cent easier to write with than these other complicated intricate machines that require "humoring"—technical knowledge—long practice and special skill to operate.

Then machines which cannot be adjusted to any special space—with which it is impossible to write abstracts, insurance policies, or odd-size documents except you buy expensive special attachments requiring experts to operate.

You can adjust the OLIVER to any reasonable space—you can write on any reasonable size and thickness of paper, right out to the very edge, without the aid of any expensive attachment or special skill, and your work will be neat appearing legible and clear.

For the OLIVER is the typewriter for the doctor, the lawyer, the insurance agent, the merchant, the hotel proprietor—or any man who does his own writing.

Write us now for our booklet on the simplified features of the OLIVER.
