H. E. Glick, president of the Lafayette Life Insurance Co., of Lafayette, is here today visiting Attorney E. P. Honan, the local agent of that company.

Major D. I. McCormick, of Indianapolis, is here to assist Capt. Healey in locating a rifle range for Company M. It is probable that the range at Parr will be chosen.

John Duggins, who has been working on one of the Sternberg dredges, returned this morning from Faye's county, Ill., to visit his father, Geo. Duggins.

Prof. C. A. Tressman, of Minneapolis, Minn., left Monday, after several days' visit with A. C. Pancoast and family, for Berlin, Germany, where he will enter on a three years' course of languages.

In a Junior and Senior class scrap at Delphi one of the Seniors used a shot gun and slightly wounded a Junior, a shot being taken out of his neck and another out of his hand. An investigation is being made.

Miss Opal Remley returned last week from a visit at Payne, Ohio. She was accompanied home by her cousin, Miss Bertha Lebold, and her betrothed, Mr. J. Perry. They started back to their home today.

Ed Meyer and wife, of Cedar Lake, were guests Sunday of his sister, Mrs. John Meyers and family, at Kilmarnock, and he and John spent Monday in Rensselaer. Mrs. Meyers' parents are Chicago, also visited here last week.

Freeman Wood returned yesterday from Fairbury, Ill., where he left his sister somewhat improved. She had another attack of appendicitis, and as soon as she is well enough to stand it, she will submit to an operation.

Ben Smith, the hog man, went to Springfield, Ill., today, where he will have charge of Chas. Wellington's Poland China hog exhibit. Charley won 16 ribbons at the Iowa state fair and 10 at Indianapolis, and expects to do well at Springfield.

W. O. Nelson, the Wheatfield hustling photographer, is in town today. At Hazelton last Wednesday he secured a good snap shot of a group of which Mr. Taft, Mr. Watson, and George Ade were a part. It is a very clever picture, and will doubtless find a ready sale.

Ehrhardt Wuerther, Jr., was in town yesterday and tells us that he believes he had one of the best clover seed yields in the county this year. Thirteen acres thinned out 46 bushels and 16 pounds, which is a little better than 3½ bushels to the acre. If there were any better yields he would like to have it reported.

Frank Crosscup is attached to Co. I, of the 10th Indiana regiment, and that is the company now stationed at the barracks. Thursday of this week they are to start on a 200 mile hike, going to Richmond, Ind., and back. So he will get some stiff hiking experience to begin with. He is well pleased as far as he has experienced regular army life.

Emerson Coen, who recently joined the United States navy, and who is located at Newport, R. I., writes back that he is mighty well pleased with the navy. He has made the f.o.b. team, and he says it is "some team." Emerson was one of the stars of the Rensselaer high school and athletic teams and has the two qualities so essential to a good football player, viz. speed and nerve.

Frank Goff is down from Fair Oaks today. He has been handling the Fair Oaks pickle station this year and reports that at that station they have taken in 13,000 bushels of pickles, for which they have paid out to the farmers the large sum of $9,000. The plant there is the property of the National Pickle Co. and they are as well pleased with the result at that place that there is a probability that they will erect a finishing plant there.

True Woodworth brought a mighty fine flavored and large peach to the Republican office this morning. He had expected when he built his new barn last spring to have to cut the tree down, but later determined to save it, and he yesterday picked a bushel and a half of very fine peaches from it. There was certainly an abundance of peaches raised in this locality this year, but very few trees produced the quality that Mr. Woodworth has.

It is probable that several of the newspaper articles that discussed the possibility of Representative Meeker's refusal to vote for the county option bill, were not well founded, for Mr. Meeker voted for the temperance measure at every stage. The temperance people of Jasper county should let him know that they appreciate this and letters commanding his action should be written to him. His address is Monticello, and he should be flooded with letters of approval.

New corn is quite apt to start at the remarkably high price of 75 cents per bushel, and a stock feeder at Lafayette has made an advance purchase of 13,000 bushels at that price. Many farmers living near Rensselaer are estimating that they will have from 25 to 40 bushels to the acre, but there are also many fields that will not make nearly that much and an average of 18 or 20 bushels for the entire acreage planted is not far off. If corn does start at 75 cents it is not improbable that it will reach the dollar mark before another crop is raised.

Miss Alice Banta, whose burial took place at the Osborne cemetery Monday, was about 48 years of age, and had spent much of her life in this county. Her home was in Chicago, but for some time she had been with relatives at Milford, Ind. For the past nine months she had been a victim of locomotor ataxia, which was the cause of her death. Her funeral was held at Milford, and the body shipped to Monon, and taken directly to the Osborne cemetery in Hanging Grove township, arriving there at about 1 o'clock. Among the relatives attending the funeral was a cousin, Mr. Tom McErney, of Chicago.

Jesse A. Snyder left this morning on the early train for Indianapolis, where he becomes a patient at the Indiana State Hospital, and within a few days will be operated on for appendicitis. Jesse has had a quite bad time of it for the past few months, having had two severe attacks of appendicitis, and he decided to forestall another attack by having an operation performed.

John Eger, the grocer, was one of the first men on the scene of the fire Sunday morning and assisted in breaking in the back door to let the hosemen get at the fire. Just as the door sprang open a timber fell from the roof and struck John on the left side of the face and on the left wrist. It was ablaze and left its mark where it struck. The burn is not serious, but a plaster two inches square adorns his cheek and the arm requires some bandaging.

W. O. Rowles returned from a business trip to Chicago this morning.

List of letters remaining uncalled for in this office for the month ending September 26, 1908: William Dilts, Merle Dunn, Geo. K. Jones, Patrick Kohen, Edd Moore, Will Franz, W. D. Culbertson, Ed Tamies (4), W. A. Townsend, Conrad Stahl.

Harry Shortz, who has lived in Rensselaer for the past two years, and who works on the big Sternberg dredge, will move his family the last of this week to Charlotte, Mich., where another Sternberg dredge is at work and where he will go after this job is completed. His object in moving his family away at this time is to complete the move before cold weather sets in. He will remain here until the Iroquois contract is completed, which will probably be about December 15th.

The new Hemphill horse stocks manufacturing company already have a reputation that is America wide, and the stocks have been sold from coast to coast and from Florida to Canada, and the company enters into business with the success of the stocks under Mr. Hemphill's management, as a foundation. This last week Mr. Hemphill had an inquiry from Yorks, England, and it is probable that a sale of a stock will be made there. The company is entering upon its business with the full belief that there is a fine chance for it to become a big concern. The stocks are now recognized as the most successful on the market and with the push that its enterprising promoters have the result should be the building of a big factory here eventually for its manufacture, and also for the manufacture of the wagon coupler.

Homer Dobbins and Ray Hopkins are each receiving almost daily mention in the Indianapolis papers in connection with the training of the Wabash college football team. Dobbins is again to play right end and "Fat" is to play left guard and probably part of the time at tackle. The papers always speak of Hopkins as the "Rensselaer giant." It is probable that these two will be the only varsity players that Rensselaer will have this year. Vaughn Woodworth, who was one of the best high school and athletic players Rensselaer has had in recent years, will have no trouble in making the Purdue freshman team, and it is also probable that he could make the varsity team, were it not for the rule that bars freshmen from playing on the teams in the association. The first game for Wabash will be next Saturday, when they play Franklin college. The following Saturday they will play Rose Polytechnic.

A Lazy Liver

May be only a tired liver, or a starved liver. It would be a stupid as well as savage thing to beat a weary or starved man because he lagged in his work. So in treating the lagging, torpid liver it is a great mistake to lash it with strong drastic drugs. A torpid liver is but an indication of an ill-nourished, enfeebled body whose organs are weary with over work. Start with the stomach and allied organs of digestion and nutrition. Put them in working order and see how quickly your liver will become active. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has made many marvelous cures of "liver trouble" by its wonderful control of the organs of digestion and nutrition. It restores the normal activity of the stomach, increases the secretions of the blood-making glands, cleanses the system from poisonous accumulations, and so relieves the liver of the burdens imposed upon it by the defection of other organs.

If you have bitter or bad taste in the morning, poor or erratic appetite, coated tongue, foul breath, constipated or irregular bowels, feel weak, easily tired, despondent, frequent headaches, pain or distress in "small of back," gnawing or distressed feeling in stomach, perhaps nausea, after eating, and kindred "rings" in throat after eating, and kindred symptoms of weak stomach and torpid liver, no medicine will relieve you more promptly or cure you more permanently than Doctor Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. Perhaps only a part of the above symptoms will be present at one time and yet point to torpid liver or biliousness and weak stomach. Avoid all hot bread and biscuits, griddle cakes and other indigestible food and take the "Golden Medical Discovery" regularly and stick to its use until you are vigorous and strong.

The "Discovery" is non-secret, non-alcoholic and is a glycerine extract of native medicinal roots with a full list of its ingredients printed on each bottle, a paper and attested under oath. It's ingredients are endorsed and extolled by the most eminent medical writers of the age and are recommended to cure the diseases for which it is advised.

Don't accept a substitute of unknown composition for this non-secret MEDICINE OR KNOWN COMPOSITION.
