Dave Alter Buys a Store.

David S. Alter has purchased of Thos. W. Grant his grocery store near the depot, and is now in possession of the business, although Mr. Grant will run it for him until he can close up some matters on the farm and move to town. In the deal Mr. Grant takes Mr. Alter's Union township farm of 160 acres, and trades to Alter along with the store some pieces of town property.

Mr. Alter will be welcomed to the business circles of Rensselaer.

Mrs. A. Simpson and Mrs. Chas. Simpson have returned from their visit at Indianapolis and other places.

Mrs. McGlynn returned home from Wheatfield this morning, after a week's visit at her former home.

Mrs. Jesse Gates went to Gary today for a few days' visit with her sister, Mrs. P. F. Warren.

Two car loads extra fine Michigan potatoes, 72 cents a bushel, off the car at the G. E. Murray Co.

Peter Parks, of Valparaiso, formerly of Remington, is here today and will go over to Remington to look after some business interests.

Mrs. B. L. Brenner and son, Mrs. A. F. Long and Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Warner and daughter went to Chicago this morning.

Worland handles Hershman mattresses and Rest Easy springs. When you are getting the best. He will sell you that kind and life will be one grand sweet dream.

Mrs. C. W. Coen and Miss Mildred Harris are attending as delegates the state convention of the Daughters of the American Revolution, now in session at Muncie.

Mrs. Ira F. Meader, of Union township, went to Lafayette yesterday afternoon to attend the conference of Farmers' Institute workers, which meets at Purdue Thursday and Friday.

C. N. Knapp, of near Panama, N. Y., is here for a short visit with his son, J. M. Knapp. He is glad to notice that since his last visit here Rensselaer has disposed of the saloons.

The man that feels best in the morning is the one that sleeps on a Hershman mattress and a Rest Easy spring. Worland will make you feel good if you buy your mattress and springs of him.

Free Wood, the colored barber, is home from Bloomington, Ill., where he was with his sister during the time she was operated on for appendicitis. He has heard from her since he returned home and she is getting along very nicely.

Don't forget that Crown Point will play football here Saturday afternoon. Our high school boys know that they will be up against a hard proposition but they think they are equal to the task. The weather promises to be ideal, and a large crowd should witness the contest.

Word reached here this morning that Peter Pursey, son-in-law of Peter May, and who moved from this county to South Dakota less than two years ago was dead. Mr. May went to their former home in Illinois this morning to attend the funeral, the remains being brought back there for burial.

Uncle Wallace Murray and wife and son Charlie left this morning for Carnegie, Okla., where they will make the winter living with their daughter and son-in-law, Sam English. Mr. Murray wrote a notice of his departure on our blind reporter's note book, closing it with the words "and he will vote for Taft."

Miss Ilma Robinson went to Indianapolis this morning, where she will again be employed as a sene- grapher and typewriter. Last spring she was compelled to give up her work there because of poor health, but the rest at home has completely restored this and she will try to avoid such close confinement as her last position called for, although she will probably return to work for the same firm.

Mrs. Margaret Miller, of the Life Boat Mission, in Chicago, received some very cheerful support while in Rensselaer yesterday and found that our people are always ready to assist any worthy charity, either at home or abroad. Mrs. Miller met the Republican's blind reporter, Erie Zea, at the depot, and took a very kindly interest in him, and promised that she would get him a new wheelchair. This was a very cheering and unexpected offer of assistance and he is wondering if she will forget the promise.

Mr. Bryan may now be expected to accuse John D. Rockefeller of stealing his thunder. The oil man in the first of his series of autobiographical articles, just published, makes some remarks on corporations that are quite Bryanic. Could W. J. B. have been asked to revise the proofs of J. D. R.'s first essay in literature, or did that friend of Standard Oil, the treasurer of the Democratic national committee, lend his aid?

After his defeat for governor four years ago, John W. Kern said:

"I am proud of the fact that I did not receive a single negro vote. I was elected by the white vote, but defeated by the ignorant nigger vote."

And now Kern and Bryan are trying their best to capture the negro vote.

The colored brother is not so short of memory or short-sighted as to be de- scribed by the "nigger hater."

We will have three cars of Fancy Ripe Michigan Potatoes on and after Oct. 16th; 5 bushel lots and over out of car 73c a bushel; 75c a bushel delivered.

WATSON'S CHARACTER

Strong Endorsement by Ministers and Prominent Home People.

At the beginning of the campaign

Mr. Marshall, candidate of the Democ-atic party for governor, said he would do no mud-slinging nor encourage it in the contest. He has kept his word. But men and newspapers supporting him are vilifying Mr. Watson as much as they can. They are lying fluently all over the state. They are going around saying that Mr. Watson is "a man of vicious habits, a drinking man and a gambler." This defamation is prompted by the brewers. The saloon men have taken the contemptible

cue. They are adepts in the knife-plays, knock-out drops and bottle

blows, and the dirty, lying tongue-play comes easy to them. Taggart heelers think they are earning their money and helping Marshall to his election

by circulating the slander. We might speak of Tom Marshall and his past, but we respect him as one who has risen on stepping-stones of his dead

self to higher things.

Men who slander Jim Watson don't know him; most of them never saw him. Yet they take as truth the wicked word of men they would not introduce to their wives and spread
