

A DAILY DELIGHT

That is a stranger to many, but should not be, is the use of a full set of teeth. If you have neglected and allowed most of your teeth to waste away, you can't do better than to protect the remaining good teeth by securing a plate at once. You can easily become accustomed to this necessity when it is fitted with extreme care. The minutest attention I give to this work gives many of my patients a wish to have had a plate before.

Come in and I will tell you about the kind most suitable for you—the kind that will not arouse your temper.

DR. HORTON OPP COURTHOUSE

FRIDAY

Born, Wednesday, to Mr. and Mrs. Tom Parker, of this city, a son.

Born, this morning, to Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Amsler, residing south of town, a son.

Mr. and Mrs. John D. Lucy are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Amos McCoy, at Lowell.

Lee Weedon, of Lafayette is here visiting his sister, Mrs. C. A. Haas for a few days.

Rev. A. W. Wood and daughter, of Delphi, come today for a short visit with his brother, Henry Wood, and family.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Samuelson, who has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Taedtley, left today for their home at Champaign, Ill.

The postoffice furniture was shipped from Indianapolis today, and probably can not be installed so as to admit of the removal before the latter part of next week.

Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Gooding, of Ann Arbor, Mich., who have been visiting their cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Andrus, went to Lafayette yesterday on their way to California.

Mrs. William Baker returned this morning from Woerott, where she had been visiting her daughter, Mrs. C. T. Boelcourt and family. Mrs. Boelcourt and her two children returned home with her for a visit.

Emmet Fidler returned yesterday from Presho, S. Dak., where he registered for the Rosebud land drawing, which begins next Monday. N. A. Hendrix and A. F. Shesler, who accompanied him there, have not yet returned.

Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Albin were called to Tefft yesterday by the death of his mother. Paralysis was the cause of her death. She was 54 years of age. Mrs. A. B. Claspel, formerly of this place, is also a daughter of the deceased. The funeral will probably be held at Tefft Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Copeps, of Medaryville, are here to visit relatives, and will probably remain for about a week. It is 57 years since Squire Copeps came to Gillam township, and he was one of the patriotic sons of this county to enlist with Milroy in the 9th Indiana volunteers.

George W. Goff returned yesterday from his visit with his son, Bert Goff, and family, at Belle Fourche, S. Dak. He says that Bert is getting along nicely with his two claims of 320 acres there and has it all fenced in, and ranges his cattle outside on the free range. Bert and his family are enjoying the very best of health.

"He is a Genius." "His word paintings are wonderful. A leader among men." "Intense, earnest and fearless." "The multitudes throng to hear him." "His voice, his personality, his gestures, are peculiar to himself." "An unsurpassed power of description." Wm. A. Quayle at the Christian church, Monday, October 26.

The 8 months old baby of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Moore, of Barkley township, was stung by a bumble bee behind the ear Thursday evening and she became so sick that a physician was called. She was so sick that she vomited and her parents were quite alarmed for time. This morning, however, she was considerably better.

Will T. Walker, from the state statistician's office, was here yesterday evening and this morning. He has been going about over the state gathering some statistics from cities and towns that will be used in the next issue of the bi-annual report from that office. In it each town is to receive some recognition touching on its manufacturing and agricultural conditions.

Mrs. Emerson Matheny, residing northeast of town, has been very low since yesterday morning, when she was seized with Eclampsia consisting of severe convulsions and which necessitated later in the day the delivery of a child which was stillborn. She was in a precarious condition during the day but was quieted before night and now has an excellent chance for recovery.

SATURDAY

Philip Kistner is in Monon on business today.

Mrs. E. C. English is spending the day in Chicago.

Dick Crowell was in Lafayette on business yesterday.

Capt. Burnham returned today from a visit at Morocco.

William Middlecamp, of Kniman, is here on business today.

L. E. Rollo, of Chicago, spent the day at St. Joseph College on business.

Joe O'Connor was at Remington this afternoon posting up election notices.

Mrs. Willey, who has been visiting here, left for her home at DeKalb, Ill., today.

Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Eldredge of Barkley township, are visiting in Monon.

Emma Husdry, who has been visiting this summer with her sister, Mrs. Hauer, left for her home in Lincoln, Neb., today.

Superintendent Schanlaub of Newton county, came yesterday for a day or two visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Schanlaub.

Rev. A. W. Wood, pastor of the M. E. church of Delphi, and his daughter, Miss Zona Wood, are visiting his brother Henry Wood and family.

Mrs. Massey and Mrs. Ballard, of Medaryville, who have been visiting Grandmother Antrim and Mrs. Rachel Scott, returned home last evening.

Judge Hanly, of Rensselaer, has been selected to try the Bessie Cronin libel suit against the Logansport Reporter and Journal. They are set for hearing at the next term of the White Circuit Court.

Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Clark are making arrangements to spend the winter in Oklahoma City. They will visit relatives in Lafayette and Francesville until the election, after which they will depart for Oklahoma.

A. M. and J. T. Robertson and D. A. Protsman of Morocco and Art Spayne, of Goodland, formed a party that went to South Dakota, last week and filed an application for a contract of Indian land.—Morocco Courier.

County Superintendent Schanlaub is out again this week visiting the country schools. Mr. Schanlaub does most of his running around through the country during the season of pumpkin pies and fried chicken. And he admits his guilt, too.—Kentland Enterprise.

Newton county has a few big farms. One farm contains 17,000 acres and the next largest 14,000, and the third 10,000. A farm of 160 acres is only a truck patch when compared with these large ones. These large tracts of land are a detriment to the country so far as increase in population, wealth and improvements are concerned.

The Rensselaer papers each contained a write-up this week regarding that city's two oldest residents, James T. Randle and Uncle David Newells, aged respectively 77 and 88 years. Mt. Ayr has a resident who is older than either of the above and who is still quite spry. Every day he is on the street and walks around considerably. We speak of the aged father of Dr. Merry, who, if he lives until next April—and it is quite likely that he will—will be ninety years old. It is no uncommon sight to see Mr. Merry out early every morning, either tottering along the street or going to the well after a pail of water. His main occupation until a short time ago was sawing wood and he is occasionally seen at this now, but not frequently. Mr. Merry has been an aged man as long as the writer can remember and if he is not taken sick he may live to be a hundred years old.—Mt. Ayr Pilot.

HOUSEHOLD GOODS FOR SALE.

As we are going to leave Rensselaer, we wish to sell at once all our household goods, consisting of side board, base burner, wood heater, dining table, chairs, beds, dressers, hall tree, good organ, stands, kitchen table, etc.

MRS. C. L. BENJAMIN.

SUNDAY

The new mince meat at the Home Grocery is fine.

Leave your order for Michigan potatoes with the G. E. Murray Co.

Lump coal, $2.75 at yard, $4 delivered, at Maines & Hamilton's, dwlw.

Mrs. Frank Maloy and two children, of Lowell, spent Sunday with relatives here.

Mr. and Mrs. Coghill and children are visiting Mrs. Fred Murch, at Kankakee, Ill.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Donnelly went to Chicago Saturday to visit the latter's parents.

The highest market price for your eggs and butter.

CHICAGO BARGAIN STORE.

Another car of potatoes at 70 cents per bushel off car. Leave orders at the Chicago Bargain Store.

You will save money and get the Michigan stock, by buying your potatoes of the G. E. Murray Co.

Mrs. L. K. Merrill, of New York, and Mrs. J. F. Lawrence, of Ann Arbor, Mich., are guests of Mrs. F. A. Ross.

Two car loads extra fine Michigan potatoes, 72 cents a bushel, off the car at the G. E. Murray Co.

Miss Martha Long spent Saturday in Chicago with her mother and others of the party that went there Friday.

Jesse R. Gray went to Danville, Ill., this morning to take work as a hack driver for the winter.

Mrs. T. J. Rogers of Monon, returned home today after a short visit here with the family of N. J. York.

Another great cloak and suit sale, all the city styles, Thursday, October 22nd, at the Chicago Bargain Store.

Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Randle, of Rensselaer, were guests Sunday of J. N. Baker and family in Barkley township.

Dr. C. R. Palmer and wife, both being osteopathic practitioners in Chicago, were guests over Sunday of Dr. and Mrs. F. A. Turfier.

Our agent will fit the hard to fit, Sale day, cloaks and suits, Thursday, October 22nd, at the Chicago Bargain Store.

J. N. Burton, of near Panama, N. Y., came last week to visit his cousin, John M. Knapp, and will remain here for a few days.

We handle more farm produce than anybody, because we pay highest price. Farmers head in with your produce at the Home Grocery.

Another car of potatoes in a short time, 70 cents per bushel in 10 bushel lots, on or off car.

CHICAGO BARGAIN STORE.

Mrs. Mary Troxell and Mrs. Cora Zimmerman, came here Saturday for a short visit with Mrs. E. G. Warren and family.

Jas. Ennis and wife went to West Chicago Saturday for a short visit with her son, Robert Sheets and family.

W. C. Baker, of Chicago, spent Saturday night and Sunday with his father, J. N. Baker, and family in Barkley township.

We will have three cars of Fancy Ripe Michigan Potatoes on and after Oct. 16th; 5 bushel lots and over out of car 73c a bushel; 75c a bushel delivered. JOHN EGER.

Mrs. J. H. Burns, of Goodland, was the guest of Sylvester Gray and family last week, and also visited her sister, Mrs. J. L. Babcock and family, of Parr.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Gurtner, of Wabash, returned home Saturday, after visiting their niece, Mrs. Chris Morganegg, and family for several days.

A representative will be here Thursday, October 22nd, to show the largest and most complete line of cloaks and suits at the lowest prices.

CHICAGO BARGAIN STORE.

Mrs. C. L. Benjamin has decided to remove to California with her son, Merle, and they are hoping to effect the sale of their household goods before that time. Merle was out on the coast last year and had employment while there and found it to be very congenial to his health.

County Superintendent Lamson of this county and County Superintendent Will Schanlaub, of Newton, spent several days last week together, visiting the schools of the two counties and comparing methods. They found it a very easy matter to visit several schools with Supt. Lamson's new auto to get around with, and the result of the visits they made should prove mutually beneficial to the superintendents and the schools.

The recent Scottish trades union congress passed resolutions in favor of old age pensions and in favor of compulsory intervention in labor disputes.

He is educator, preacher, author, and lecturer. William A. Quayle at the Christian church, Monday evening, October 26th, under the auspices of Ladies' Literary Society.

Your wife wants a new sewing machine. Why not get her the very best and have it last a life time. Worland has the FREE, the best ever manufactured.

DON'T buy a sewing machine until you see the FREE at Worland's furniture store. Will put it up against any machine ever manufactured, and I am selling it at a rock bottom price, either cash or on installments. See it before you buy.

Frank Maloy, the Lowell football enthusiast, who gathered his first pig skin impetus here in Rensselaer and cultivated it while a student at South Bend, is coaching another Lowell team and would like to have a game with Rensselaer. It is not improbable that some of the old timers will organize just to accommodate Lowell. Frank would like to hear from some Rensselaer enthusiast along this line.

The republican meeting at Wheatfield was quite a success last Saturday, and both Mr. Dowling of Indianapolis, and Mr. Ball, of Muncie, made fine speeches. The crowd would have been much larger but for the fact that so many were compelled to return to their homes to fight the prairie fires, which were started shortly before the meeting began. The Watson quartette from Rensselaer sang several songs and were cheered and brought back repeatedly.

Harrison Wasson and wife have been entertaining his brother Calvin A. Wasson and family for the past few days. For the past two and a half years Mr. Wasson and family have been living on a claim he had near Truxas, N. Dak., and now he has paid it out but decided that he would not like to live in that country, and he will probably locate again at his former home in Ohio, although keeping his North Dakota farm. Today they went to Union City, where they will visit relatives before going to Ohio.

Miss Maude Adams will begin a brief engagement at the Illinois theatre, Chicago, next Monday evening October 26th, in "What Every Woman Knows," a brand new comedy by J. M. Barrie, who wrote "The Little Minister," "Quality Street," and "Peter Pan" for her. This will be one of the big events of the current theatrical season in Chicago. Miss Adams is always a welcome visitor on whatever stage she appears or in whatever role, but when she comes in a brand new character drawn by the magic pen of the brilliant Scotsman who gave her Lady Babbie and Peter Pan the pleasure is increased tenfold.

Some Kniman Notes.

Wm. Heilscher, the blacksmith, is building an addition to his blacksmith shop, 22x42 feet in dimensions.

It will make him a fine shop and he will install all the latest equipment in it.

Chas. Kramer and wife are planning to go to Chicago for the winter and the other evening they were most pleasantly surprised by about 25 of their friends. Mrs. Kramer also entertained Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Hanna and Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Boyles for tea Tuesday evening.

The political situation at Kniman looks all right from a republican viewpoint. Taft and his record and his clear and firm and fair attitude toward all matters of legislation in which the country is interested, looks good to the Walker township citizen. The past twelve years have suited us, and we don't want any experiments by false prophets. And Watson and advance temperance also looks good up here. And while these things are all right and are going to be supported by all republicans and by a number of democrats who don't intend to vote against their conscience, we believe that there is a feeling of the necessity of voting the township and county tickets straight. That is where the success of a party lies. Nominating good men and then staying by them. And the republicans have done that this year all along the line.

A good republican speech would be appreciated at Kniman. We will get a good crowd.

Charles Comiskey, owner of the Chicago White Sox, was fined $75 and costs in Hammond Wednesday before Judge Joseph Conroy. Comiskey was defendant in a personal injury suit brought by the father of Isadore Goldberg, a messenger boy for the Western Union in Chicago. The suit was a friendly one and was by agreement taken to Hammond for settlement. Comiskey on the first of August steered his automobile into the lad, who was riding a bicycle in Michigan avenue in Chicago.

The recent Scottish trades union congress passed resolutions in favor of old age pensions and in favor of compulsory intervention in labor disputes.

The man that feels best in the morning is the one that sleeps on a Hershman mattress and a Rest Easy spring. Worland will make you feel good if you buy your mattress and springs of him.
