Large crowds heard Bryan at Monon and Brookston Tuesday from the rear platform of his special train. He is the same smooth and specious pleader as in 1896 and 1900, and this year, as in those years, the people will flock to hear him, laugh at his sallies and vote against him.—Monticello Herald.

Probably the last application in Newton county under the present law is being made by J. J. Garrity, the present Mt. Ayr saloonist. His application for a saloon license will come before the Newton county commissioners at the November term. At that time the new county local option law will probably be in effect, but it is doubtful if an election will be held soon.

A bunch of young fellows held a "rally" last night, and gave several people a serenade along about 10 o'clock. Bass and snare drum and fife were used in the charivari and the notes were rather discordant, but they had the desired effect of waking up all those who were serenaded. The cause was one of simply deviltry, and the result not a very damaging one to any one concerned. Hurrah for the spirit of '76.

Mrs. J. L. Smith returned home yesterday from Hebron, where she has been to attend the wedding of her son, Roy B., to Miss Beulah Wilcox, at the home of the bride's uncle. An elaborate supper followed the ceremony. After spending a few days at Logansport and Chillicothe, Ohio, the newly married couple will visit the groom's mother here. Mr. Smith is an employee of the Pennsylvania railway at Hebron.

Ex-postmaster F. B. Meyer, who is now a deputy in the Gary postoffice, had shipped to him in that city today 150 leaky old campaign torches that had been stored in his barn some time during the last century, when political enthusiasm ran high and torch light processions were of nightly occurrence during a campaign. The torches will be used in parades in Gary, and Meyer is expected to march at the head of the parades with other "large" men of that city.

The Monon has arranged to meet the interurban competition on passenger fares between Frankfort and Indianapolis, and beginning with November 1, the Monon will sell what is known as the two-trip ticket for $1.50, each ticket being good for thirty days. This two trip ticket is good for one round trip by one person, or for two persons going one way, or for one person going one way, or for one person going one way twice within thirty days.

The original "Topsy" died in Massachusetts the other day—not the Topsy of Mrs. Stowe's novel, but the Topsy of the play. Her name was Mrs. George C. Howard, and she made her appearance in the role of the negro girl in "Uncle Tom's Cabin" in 1852 and continued to play the part until 1887—thirty-five years. This record exceeds that of many far more celebrated actors, but probably none of them ever gave pleasure to as great a number of people as did she in this simple comedy part.

The Kind You Have Always Bought

You can't always tell what will happen. For instance here is a story of a man who determined to commit suicide. He went up town and purchased a rope, can of oil, box of matches, dose of arsenic and a revolver. He went down to the river, pushed his boat from the shore and paddled down to where a tree hung over the water. He got up in the bow of the boat and tied one end of the rope to a limb and the other around his neck, saturated his clothing with coal oil and set fire to them, took a dose of arsenic, put the muzzle of the revolver to his temple and pulled the trigger. But the bullet glanced and cut the rope above him and he fell kerwallow into the water and put the fire out; he got tangled and coughed the arsenic up and rose up and waded out and declared himself a candidate for office on the Reform ticket.

Fuller will put in a new alley and expects to have a fine business. His son will have charge of it.

County Assessor John Q. Lewis was over at Delphi one day this week on a business trip and spent part of the day with the family of Chas. Castor, formerly of this county. Most of our people will remember Mr. Castor, who ran a blacksmith shop for a time at Pleasant Ridge, and at other times at Blackford and near Valma. Mr. Castor is now a blacksmith at Delphi. He had the misfortune to lose his wife on the 17th of August, and this was a great affliction to him and his family of six children. Only one of the daughters is married and the other two and the three sons are all at home. They have a very pleasant home and all are prospering, and the children have developed into fine young men and women.

HIGH SCHOOL TEAM TIES WITH HAMMOND

Rensselaer Lads Make Great Showing Against Their Heavy Opponents in Saturday's Game.

The grit displayed by the Rensselaer high school boys at Hammond last Saturday was applauded by the Hammond spectators. They were greatly outweighed by the Lake county team, but played such a spunky game that they held the terrors of the north end down to a tie score of 6 to 6.

The difference in the size of the players was very noticeable when they came on the field in Harrison park, Hammond, and the rooters were all predicting an easy game for Hammond, and even the Rensselaer boys, who always have a lot of confidence in themselves, thought the outcome would be a defeat, but they decided that what they lacked in size they would make up in ginger and they deserve great credit for holding the big northerners to a tie. Neither side scored during the first half. Rensselaer held their opponents for downs and forced them to punt repeatedly and only on one or two occasions did Rensselaer succeed in carrying the ball the required distance on downs, but they too were forced to punt. When the first half ended and Rensselaer had prevented the crossing of their goal line they felt confident of the result, and soon after the second half began they got the ball to within ten yards of the Hammond goal line, but on the 2d down they were carried back seven yards. They did not try for either a drop or place kick, but Kirk got through right tackle for 16 yards, just one yard short of a touchdown. The ball went to Hammond, who tried to punt, but Don Beam blocked the kick and "Pede" Meyers fell on the ball behind the goal posts. Kirk kicked goal and the score stood Rensselaer 6; Hammond 0.

Rensselaer was confident of victory until a fluke allowed Hammond to make a touchdown. They had punted and the ball after being touched rolled over our goal line. Haas was slow in going after the ball and a Hammond player fell on it. They also kicked goal and tied the score.

After that there was nothing doing, although Kirk almost made a place kick on two different occasions.

Kirk, Miller, Norman and English are said to have been the leaders in the Saturday game, Norman playing a star game at tackle against a 200 pound opponent.

The next two Saturday games will be played in Rensselaer; Oakwood, of West Lafayette, who succeeded in defeating Logansport last Saturday by the score of 26 to 0 being here the coming Saturday and Hammond being here the following Saturday.

The Home Grocery received several lots of very fine well ripened potatoes last week through their ad in this paper, but they report that they are able to handle still more, and anyone having nice "spuds" would do well to see them.

Word was received this morning from Frank E. Lewis, the Gifford railroad superintendent who was assaulted and robbed last Friday night at Kersy. He was not feeling at all well, it having developed that he had been injured in the neck and spine. He rested very well Sunday and no serious injury is expected to result from the blow or blows that he received. It is now stated that he lost more than $200, of which $100 was his own and the remainder belonged to B. J. Gifford and the express company. No trace whatever was discovered of the thieves.

Lowell Really Means Business.

Frank Maloy, the moving spirit in Lowell football affairs, having gained his first knowledge of the game when a resident of Rensselaer, writes as follows from Lowell:

"I note with pleasure the mention you make in your valuable paper concerning football, also the fact that Bruce Hardy had taken the matter in hand and that in all probability a game could be arranged between the two teams. In this regard I would thank you to keep the matter hot as far as your duties will permit, and help us to get a game for Nov. 15th or 22nd. Thanking you for anything you may do for us, I beg to remain, "FRANK MALOY."

Thus it will be seen that Lowell is after us, and we will have to go some if we defeat them. Bruce is getting along quite well with his squad and will doubtless be able to accept one of the dates suggested. Among the husky boys that will get into the game are John Morgan, Rice Porter, Ross Porter, Gay McFarland, Guy Gerber, Garland Grant, John Putts, Ed Goetz, Earl Chesnut and others. The line will be heavy and the back field swift.

Death of Mrs. Barbara Meyer.

Mrs. Barbara Meyer, mother of former postmaster Frank B. Meyer, died shortly after noon last Saturday. She was more than 80 years of age, but her exact age could not be ascertained. She has been in failing health for a long time, and about three weeks ago slipped and fell while out on the porch of her home on Van Rensselaer street.

Since then her decline has been very rapid and Friday noon it became evident that the end was not far distant.

Since her accident she has been constantly in care of her daughter-in-law, Mrs. F. B. Meyer, and of Mrs. Dickinson, a nurse.

Four Tickets in Union Township.

After consulting the election law for several days and debating the question for several hours Saturday with different lawyers here, County Clerk Warner decided that all four of the names that had been certified from Union township for assessor would have to appear on the ballot in that township.

Chas. U. Garriott was originally nominated by the democrats, and then Edward Lakin petitioned to be put on the ticket as an independent candidate. Later the democrats found that they could elect some other person easier than they could Garriott and they also discovered that he was ineligible because he had resigned a judicial office only last spring, having been a justice of the peace, and the law specifying that no judicial officer can run for an office not judicial during the natural term of his office, even though he has resigned.

Both Garriott and Lakin were ready to withdraw from the ticket, but the law also says that a withdrawal can not take place unless within three days after the name has been certified to the clerk.

So it was decided that all four names must appear on the ballot, viz. Democrat ticket, Solomon Norman; republican ticket, George E. McCoy; independent democrat ticket, Chas. U. Garriott; independent ticket, Edward Lakin. There will, therefore be three democrats from Union running for assessor and one republican. The voter can take his choice. But, it is probable that Garriott would be disqualified even if he received a plurality of the votes cast.

Stood on the Bridge too Much.

Swaying to and fro with the wind above the placid waters of Deer Creek the suspension bridge was a new sight for many people who went to see the football game yesterday afternoon. At the close of the game several men started across the bridge toward town and the spliced cable could not stand the pressure of seven men and it gave way on one side, letting the pedestrians into the water.

Ordinarily the water is very deep at this place but yesterday the drought proved to be of some benefit as it had occasioned low water and thereby made it possible for the young men to escape from the creek without serious trouble aside from being as wet as rats.—Delphi Herald.

Somewhere between Terre Haute and their old home in England the wife and children of George Morris are on their way to Terre Haute to find he was killed by a fall of slate in the mine where he was working. Morris had sent for his family and was expecting them daily. Thomas Botts also was killed.
