Mrs. W. H. Beam's Father Dies Suddenly.

Mrs. W. H. Beam was notified Sunday of the sudden death of her father, George Wright, whose home is in California, but who was visiting another daughter, residing at Caro, Mich. Mrs. Beam left for that place Sunday afternoon. Her father was about 66 years of age.

Death of Mrs. Precilla Humes.

Mrs. Precilla Humes died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. W. Frank Osborne, in Rensselaer, at about 2 o'clock this Monday morning. Deceased was 69 years of age. The funeral will be held at the Brushwood U. B. church, of which she was a member, at 2:30 o'clock Tuesday afternoon. Deceased leaves four children. Obituary later.

Two New Cases Filed.

Two new cases are filed Saturday to be tried at this term of the circuit court. James A. Kelster alleges that on Sept. 5th he was assaulted by John F. Mitchell and struck with a club. He alleges that he was so thoroughly beaten that he was compelled to go to bed and that he has received permanent injuries, for which he seeks damages in the sum of $500.

The Indianapolis Saddlery Co. brings suit against John Carmichael, alleging an unpaid account.

Rev. Charles F. Barrett, who began a series of meetings at the M. E. church Sunday evening, held the closest attention of his large audience and impressed them most favorably. Evidently Rev. Barrett is the whole-souled sort of evangelist, who considers life a practical matter, and lives it and treats it as a real thing to be made the most of. There is no long-faced ultra seriousness about Rev. Barrett. His idea of religion is that it should make everybody happy, and he preaches Jesus Christ with an earnestness and enthusiasm that is sure to attract and please and should convert many people. He is not only enthusiastic but aggressive and frankly says that it is not the idle church member but the active Christian that is going to inherit the Kingdom of God. If Rev. Barrett does not awaken some real religious enthusiasm in Rensselaer and vicinity we miss our guess.

Beautiful Pearly-White Teeth

Usually cause a pleasure long to be remembered.

They are usually the result of the very closest attention at the proper time. If you have postponed this important duty, you will be glad to know how I can help you to "make good." One reason you will likely commend my operations—I am a firm believer in work that makes my patients so well satisfied that no desire will enter their minds that they could have done better at another dentist.

Come in and get a few facts about your teeth.
