

FRIDAY

According to the morning Star neither Hopkins nor Dobbins will be in shape to get into today's game against Notre Dame.

Mrs Julia A. Healey, who has been spending several weeks with her daughter, Mrs. Frank B. Lyon, at Delphi, is here for a few days.

The Makeever Hotel changed landlords a day or two earlier than was at first intended and Landlord Brenner succeeded Landlord Bruner at noon Thursday.

Invitations are out for the wedding next Tuesday, Nov. 17th, of Mr. Philip Henson and Miss Catharine Michael, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Michael in Jordan township. The groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Nat. Henson, who resides just north of Rensselaer.

H. Deam, representing the Chicago Industrial Co., is here trying to create some interest in the matter of locating a factory here, his company being in that business and now having some two factories to locate. He has interested a number of citizens in the project and an informal meeting was held this afternoon at Foltz & Spitzer's law office to discuss the prospects of creating general interest.

John Nichols is home from Dixon, S. Dak., and his daughter-in-law, the widow of the late Dallas Nichols, came as far as Chicago with him and after a short visit there will also come to Rensselaer. Jointly John and Dallas owned a quarter section of land near Dixon, which they have contracted to sell on March 1st, for $3,050. Mrs. Nichols did not like to be so far away from her relatives and has decided to return to Rensselaer and will probably buy property here.

Jim Hemphill, formerly a partner with his brother Fred in the blacksmithing business, has decided to engage in the same business at Goodland, and is putting in an entirely new shop there. Dave Hines, who has worked for M. L. Hemphill for several years, and who is a splendid workman, will go to Goodland to work for Jim. They expect to open up the shop next week and Jim will move there the first of the week. Russell Schuyler, the barber, will occupy the house vacated by Jim.

Major D. T. McCormick, instructor in small arms practice for the Indiana National Guard, came here this morning and will superintend the erection of the swinging targets for the range which M company has leased from Judge Thompson, Harry Kurrie and Logan Wood.

The range will be one of the very finest in the state when completed and will be one of only a few that will be supplied with two of the Aiken steel frame targets. It will have all the ranges from 200 to 1,000 yards, and a fine skirmish run, and members of the local militia company should be able to develop some fine shots when it is in operation. The lease of the ground is for five years, and the targets will be set in cement pits, and everything done with a permanent intention. It is probable that arrangements can be made to hold next year's battalion shoot there.

SATURDAY

Born, Thursday, Nov. 12th, to Mr. and Mrs. Russell Willets, of Hanging Grove township, a daughter.

William Schwartz returned to Lafayette today after a short visit with his sons, Carl and Frank, at the college.

Mrs. James Kennedy and two children, of Walkerton, came today for a short visit with G. E. Meyers and family.

George Plaut arrived home yesterday from Payne, Minn., where he has been for several weeks, living with Nick Guss, and working as a teamster.

Mrs. J. F. Hemphill and two children, of Danville, Ill., who have been visiting her parents in Chicago, arrived here yesterday to visit Mrs. E. P. Honan and mother.

The Mt. Ayr saloon license expires on the 2nd day of December. That will put a stop to a lot of the jags coming down this way.—Brook Reporter.

The high school football team went to Wolcott this morning to play a game. Next Saturday Hammond plays here. McKinley high school of Chicago, will play here on Thanksgiving.

C. H. Tryon, who owns the farm occupied by Conrad Hildebrand at Pleasant Ridge, arrived here this morning from Sackets Harbor, N. Y., and after a few days will be joined here by Mrs. Tryon and they will then go south to remain during the winter.

We understand that Geo. Ade contemplates a trip around the world for his winter vacation, and will probably spend some weeks with President Roosevelt and party in Africa, and later will spend some time viewing the sights of India.—Brook Reporter.

Judge Artman and Attorney General Bingham, two of the greatest foes the whiskey men ever had, went down into defeat. Who says that the whiskey men and the prohibitionists do not carry the balance of power? "Shall the people rule?"—Brook Reporter.

Andy Tillison and wife and three sons, of Pratt Center, Kansas, who have been visiting relatives at Hope, Ill., are expected here today to visit the family of his brother-in-law, Henry Doan, and his brother, George Tillison, in Hanging Grove township. Miss Nora Tillison, of Hope, will also accompany them for a visit.

Mrs. E. L. Hollingsworth and daughter Dorothy went to Chicago this morning to attend the Robert Mantell production of Louis XI at the Grand opera house. They go as guests of Mr. Mantell's wife, Marie Booth Russell, with whom Mrs. Hollingsworth has long been acquainted.

A. L. Padgett went to Lafayette today to arrange for the sale of some of his horses at a big combination sale to take place there on Dec. 10th. Among the horses he will sell will be Turk McDillora and Bourbon Jay, both of which won several good races this year. He will also sell Joe Prospect, a young horse without a record.

Art Daugherty returned this morning from his trip to Canada. He went there the latter part of June and remained until about three weeks ago when he went to Shelby Junction, Mont. He got around over the Alberta country a great deal and liked it fine. He says that Sam Duval, who went to Nanton from here some years ago, is now worth about $40,000, and is doing splendidly.

The residents of this section of the state were greeted by a little snow this morning, which came quietly enough at first but later was accompanied by some blizzard indications. The sun has been playing hide and seek throughout the day and now seems to be buried behind a dense thickness of clouds that forebode some bad weather. But we have had such an ideal fall that we could stand a little blizzard and not complain.

J. P. Shore has purchased the Louis Wildberg clothing stock of Moses Tuteur, who had charge of it for his sister, Mrs. Wildberg. The deal was made Friday, at which time there were three buyers here from different places. The purchaser lives at Duluth, Minn., where the stock will be shipped, and the packing began immediately after the deal was completed. Herman Tuteur, who has been managing the store largely for the past year, will probably remain the tailor order part of the business, securing a room downtown for the continuance of the same.

A. J. Harmon returned yesterday from Mitchell, S. Dak., where he had been for about a week. His father and he have a half section of land within twelve miles of that city, and they had a fine crop of both corn and wheat this year. All Jasper county people, Russell reports, did fine there, and he talked with several who have moved there from here and all are satisfied. He thinks that on an average land is at least $15 higher than it was two years ago and that no purchasers there made any mistake. Within the past three weeks there have been some land transfers there ranging from $85 to $100 an acre. These were, of course, well improved quarters, with good buildings and orchards.

In some cases the voting machines were a failure this year, at least in one point, or some one has become educated to the fact, that like some people, the thing could be "worked." At the election in this township, the cards bearing the candidates names, either by design or accident, were moved off of the candidates names to some extent, and in one instance the eagle got up where the rooster usually holds forth, and in the other case it lost the republican trustee his office. For township trustee and assessor, the reformer received ten less votes, and the latter an even twenty-five less votes than the balance of the ticket, the card having slipped entirely off of the keys that registered these candidates numbers.—Brook Reporter.

MONDAY

Palmer D. Wells made a business trip to Chicago this morning.

McKay is dying to deliver your bread and cakes, will also deliver bread tickets, six for 25 cents.

Buy Sleepy Eye flour, made from pure northern wheat, at $1.40 per sack.

MURRAY'S GROCERY.

Born, this Monday morning, Nov. 16th, to Mr. and Mrs. James Downs, in Hanging Grove township, a son.

We will sell you our best Kansas flour at $1.35 per sack.

THE G. E. MURRAY CO.

D. H. Yeoman is now figuring on a job of dredge ditching in Spencer county, and will go there this week to make a bid.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Marion, of Peru, were here over night on their way to Mt. Ayr, for a short visit with relatives.

"The Devil", successfully played here several weeks ago, will again appear at the Ellis opera house next Tuesday night.

Mrs. McKay thoroughly cleans all vegetables as well as meats before cooking "which she does well" thereby making them palatable, digestive and nutritious.

You can get just as good a dinner or short order at McKay's for 25c and 20c respectively as any place in town and the public is invited to inspect our kitchen, at any time.

We are in high on the flour deal. For the next two weeks we will sell our best known flour for $1.35, and our Sleepy Eye at $1.40.

THE G. E. MURRAY CO.

Dave Elder and son Charles will this week complete the big house and barn that they have been building for Rinehart Elts, in Union township. The house has nine rooms and is a very fine farm residence.

If you have a delicate stomach just call Mrs. McKay, phone 432 and she will prepare you a dieting meal, if you can eat like a razor back hog, order corn beef and cabbage, which will be served in car lots or less.

Buildings to the value of $100,000 belonging to the state at Jeffersonville were burned Sunday. The manufacturing plants at the reformatory were largely destroyed. The 1,300 inmates at the reformatory were locked in their cells during the fire.

We are furnishing many dinners which are taken to the homes for serving. Let us know in time and we will fix your order, furnish bread, pies and cakes if wanted. We are looking for your business. We thank you in advance because we know we are going to get it.

MR. and MRS. MCKAY.

Jim Hemphill sent his household goods to Goodland today and himself and family will hereafter reside there. He is putting in an entirely new blacksmith shop there and being a fine workman he will undoubtedly build up a good business, and we gladly recommend him to the people of Goodland as a fine mechanic and a good citizen.

Neither Dobbie nor Hoppe played football with Wabash college Saturday and Notre Dame won by a score of 8 to 4. Rensselaer people are of the opinion that our two husky lads might have turned the tide in Wabash's favor if they had been in condition to play. Dobbie has been out of the game for four or five weeks with a bad knee, that the massage artist seems unable to heal.

A deal was being negotiated between Frank Kreiser and his uncle, Bruce Porter, by which the former will take the latter's house on Weston street and Mr. Porter will take Frank's farm near Mitchell, S. Dak. Bruce has had some Dakota inclinations for some time and visited his daughter, Mrs. Will Clark, there this fall and "saw for himself" and came back home very favorably impressed. If the deal is consummated Mr. Porter will probably move there.

John Behrens will hold a public sale on Dec. 4th, at the Granville Moody farm, in Barkley township, and will later move to a farm he has purchased near Big Rapids, Mich. Mr. Behrens has lived most of the time since he was 12 years of age with Mr. Moody. The farm he purchased near Big Rapids consists of 80 acres and was bought last September. A. K. Sayler, Will Wishard and other former Jasper county people, also reside near that city now.

WE OFFER the WORLD

John Martindale has decided on Nov. 25th as the date for his big sale. He will have for sale 5 herd of horses, 13 milch cows, considerable other live stock and a long list of farming implements for sale. After the sale he will remove to Rensselaer and occupy the old Spitzer property north of the railroad, which he recently bought.

Beautifully staged and exceedingly well acted, Franz Holnar's sensational three act play "The Devil", will be offered by a select company of metropolitan players, headed by the eminent character actor, E. Lawrence Lee, whose artistic portrayal of the title role has been endorsed by the press as a superior article. This attraction will be at the Ellis Theatre, Tuesday, Nov. 17th.

Translated into twenty different languages, which embraces nearly every place where civilization is known, Franz Holnar's sensational book is the talk of the day; regardless of creed, sex or nationality, it has been perused by thousands and has been acknowledged by all a sensation. The dramatization of this great novel is a superior article, which tells an interesting story of the supernatural character, "The Devil," or the present day Mephistopheles, and is one that will command the attention of all who appreciate things that are both elevating and instructive. Mr. E. Lawrence Lee will appear in the title role, supported by an excellent company. An artistic performance can be assured. Ellis Theatre, Tuesday, Nov. 17th.

BUTCHER SHOP NOTICE.
Commencing with Sunday, Nov. 15th our shops will be closed on Sunday. We will also close every evening except Saturday at 8 o'clock. Don't fail to get your Sunday meat Saturday.

Anson Cox is able to be out this morning, the first time since he was injured by being thrown from a horse at Parr a week ago last Friday. He found him able to be up and they saw the football game that afternoon between Wabash and Notre Dame, and in which Ray would so much have loved to play. Mr. Hopkins was quite enthusiastic over the game, saying that it was the best game he ever saw. Ray is getting along nicely now and will probably avoid any serious sickness.

Nim Hopkins was at Wabash College last Friday to see his son, Ray, who was reported to have malarial fever. He found him able to be up and they saw the football game that afternoon between Wabash and Notre Dame, and in which Ray would so much have loved to play. Mr. Hopkins was quite enthusiastic over the game, saying that it was the best game he ever saw. Ray is getting along nicely now and will probably avoid any serious sickness.

On Thanksgiving day we will hold a blue rock shooting match at Parr for turkeys, ducks and geese. A large number of shots are expected. CHAS. ROWEN, JESSE ELDREDGE.

Forty thousand members of Catholic church societies took part in a parade which closed the centenary celebration of the Boston diocese.
