

Mammoth Reduction in FURNITURE

10 to 40 Per Cent Cut on
Every Article in the Store

IN taking charge of the Furniture Store recently purchased of the Jay W. Williams heirs, I find it desirable to greatly reduce the stock, and to accomplish this in the least possible time I have decided to mark every article for sale at a greatly reduced price during the season of heaviest furniture buying. This price reduction extends to every article of furniture in the store, except kitchen cabinets, which by contract with the manufacturers can not be sold except at the factory retail price. Everything else has been marked down as low as we could afford to sell it, and there is at least a 10 per cent reduction on it all, and this cut in price extends to as much as 40 per cent on some articles. The price advantage is certain to attract attention and create a great rush for the first choice, and I have decided to give all an equal chance by starting the sale Saturday Morning, Dec. 12, and continuing it to Dec. 31.

My clerks have carefully gone over every article, left the old sale price tag and placed over it a new red tag with the reduction price thereon. Both prices are in plain figures and customers can see for themselves that the reduction is actual. My motive in making this great sacrifice sale is to condense the stock which is now displayed and stored in several rooms, and to allow the display of new goods that are to arrive on Jan. 1.

This is not an effort to sell old and out-of-date furniture, for it is doubtful if there was a better stock in Northern Indiana than the Williams stock, and this means rare bargains in the best furniture.

Purchases for Christmas Presents will be Marked "Sold."
and Laid Away.

Among the things offered at a reduction are the following:

Rocking Chairs,
Morris Chairs,
Center Tables,
Cabs, Go-carts,
Bed-Room Suites,
China Racks,
Bookcases, Mirrors, Princess Dressers,
Dining Tables, Springs, Mattresses, Pillows.

Everything I shall offer will be the very best in the store or on the market, all thoroughly reliable and placed for sale at a great reduction right at a season when people most desire to buy. It will pay the person wanting furniture to drive many miles to get at these rare bargains, and as the probability is that the public will be right after them it will be well to come in without delay. Remember, the sale commences Saturday, Dec. 12, and lasts until the last day of the month, and it will be a matter of the first come, first served.

Don't let this chance get away from you. Now is the time to buy. Get in early and get first selections. Red Tag has Reduction Price plainly marked.

Jas. Downs is moving on a farm north of Rensselaer. He has lived during the past seven on the Lutz farm.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Greenlee took their 5-year-old son, Willie, to Rensselaer Thursday to have a few stitches taken in his chin, as a result of coming in contact with the back of a chair with which the child had been playing. It was a real severe bump for the little fellow, but nothing serious.

There was a slight mistake in Friday's issue, when it stated that Jas. Lefler would move up to Wisconsin and take charge of Mary E. Lowe's farm there, when in place, Mr. Lefler owns 400 acres of fine timber land there himself which he intends to oversee and have some of the timber made into lumber. Mr. Lefler was well pleased with the result of his sale and thought he got the worth of his property as a whole.

One or two articles of machinery that were practically good as new, went a little under value; however, that is pretty generally the case.

James Lefler had a very nice day for his big sale and quite a large crowd attended. The bidding was quite spirited all the way through the sale, and everything was sold by a few minutes past three. It was the general sentiment also that Mr. Lefler had the fattest and best looking bunch of horses that have been put up at public sale here for some time. One coming two-year-old half Jersey heifer with calf by side, brought $61.50, and would have been cheap at $75 to anyone wanting a good milk and butter cow. Col. Phillips said it was the nicest animal of the cow species he ever sold in Jasper county.

Tickets on sale Dec. 24 and 25, good returning until Dec. 28, also on sale December 31, and January 1, good returning until January 4th.
