The Republican force is two short today. Mr. and Mrs. Cloyd Repogle are spending the Christmas vacation in Chicago, and Mr. and Mrs. Thad Stevens are visiting her parents in Chicago.

The matrimonial bug is said to have again been getting in his work at the telephone office. To what extent it has inoculated the "Hello" girls is not known, but one resignation has already taken place and others are said to be threatened.

Joe Reynolds, who now travels for the J. W. Butler Paper Co., spent Christmas with his mother, Mrs. S. R. Nichols, here. He was accompanied by Mr. O. G. Smith, also an employee of the Butler Co., who spent the day with Joe.

Mrs. Korah Daniels receives daily word from Chicago Heights about the condition of her father, Rev. A. C. Abbott. It was thought Thursday that he was better but now seems to be about the same except for a gradual weakening. It is hardly probable that he will survive the sickness.

Mr. A. E. Wallace, who is a clerk in railway offices in Chicago, will resign his position there and come to Rensselaer about the 15th of January, and himself and wife will take up their residence at the Irwin tile mill west of town. They expect to engage in poultry raising.

A representative of the Wabash glee club is here visiting Ray Hopkins and is receiving encouragement to bring the glee club of 18 members and also the banjo and mandolin clubs here for an entertainment in March. It would doubtless draw a large crowd.

Moses Tuteur returned Wednesday evening from Peoria, Ill., where he has been visiting relatives for the past three or four weeks. He left his sister, Mrs. Louis Wildberg, who has been in very poor health since the double affliction of her husband's and only son's death, somewhat improved.

A new serial story begins in this issue of the Daily Republican and will appear in installments in the Saturday Daily hereafter. It is a very entertaining story, maintaining the keenest interest of the reader. The title is "A Race for a Wife." Read the opening chapter today and don't miss the succeeding chapters. It will appear exclusively in the Saturday issue of the Daily Republican.

Homer Dobbins expects to leave Wabash college, and has about decided to enter Leland Stanford university, in California. His half brother is now running a hotel there and offers Dobbins expenses if he will come there. As he is compelled to earn his own way, it is probable he will accept. He is now at his home in Francesville, but will visit here before he starts for the west.

W. H. Morrison and wife have moved here from Marion, and are occupying one of the flats above the Republican office. He will have charge of the new cream station here, the proprietor, Mr. McPherson, of Monon, having arranged with A. Leopold to build him a room adjoining Haskell's barber shop. The room is to be completed in about ten days and they will begin buying cream at once.

The sale by John Bruner of his residence property to Harrison Watson was completed Thursday and Mr. Bruner and family will leave Monday for their future home at Bartlesville, Okla. Mr. Warren will probably move here the first of the year and occupy the house he has purchased. Mr. Bruner's prime object in moving was for the benefit of his health. His telephone business here will be looked after by his sons, Frank and Earl, who will continue to live here.

G. L. Thornton was in from near Surrey this morning, leaving his order with the Republican for sale bills. His sale will take place Monday, Jan. 11th, and he will move to town and occupy his residence where his son, Mel Thornton, now lives. He expects to engage in some kind of business.

Harry Shirey is again a resident of Rensselaer, having come back from Westville and resumed his night work at the Monon station. He was made the day agent at Westville and another man in the Westville job moved there just 21 days ago, but another shifting of operators put another man in the Westville job and Harry packed right up and came back here. He will resume the night work and W. A. Davenport will again become Agent Beam's day assistant. Mr. and Mrs. Davenport will go to Louisville, Ky., for a week's visit the first of the week and Hurley Beam will continue as day assistant until after his return.

Peasley Clark and others who have been working for the contractors, Smith & Co., on the Remington and Carpenter township stone roads came home for the Christmas season. They will do but little more work on that contract this winter, having only two or three cars of stone to unload before stopping for the winter. There will still remain to build next year eleven miles of road, in four sections. Two miles on the north and two miles on the south road to Goodland, and the other seven miles is north and south road three and five miles west of Remington. When completed Carpenter township will be one of the best road townships in Indiana.

Gus Short, who worked for some time on the Sternberg dredge here, and who is now running a steam shovel at Dixon, Ill., has been the guest of his brother, Henry, for a few days, and will accompany him part way to Charlotte, Mich., overland. The start will probably be made tomorrow morning.

Ross Grant arrived here from Jamstown, N. Dak., Saturday and will remain here until about the middle of January. His wife came several weeks ago and will accompany him on his return home, when his headquarters will probably be transferred from Jackson, N. Dak., to Minneapolis, Minn., but he will continue to have supervision for the fruit company he represents over the same territory he has had in the past.

Peter Lear went to Brook this morning, having the job on hand of plastering two new business rooms. One of them is the property of Dr. Aaron Wood, a former Rensselaer boy, and was built especially for Orle B. Stonehill, who will hereafter publish the Brook Reporter therein. Brook is a hustling town, the factories having increased its population and its business importance. The overall factory largely employs women and girls, who work by the piece and it is said some of them now make as much as $9 or even more a week. Factories pay and Rensselaer needs one or more of these industries and is in a position to get them now by an altogether pull.

From 10 to 20 per cent off on all heating stoves at Rhoades' Hardware.

Nobody Spared.

KIDNEY TROUBLES ATTACK RENSSELAER MEN AND WOMEN, OLD AND YOUNG.

Kidney ills seize young and old. Come quickly with little warning. Children suffer in their early years. Can't control the kidney secretions. Girls are languid, nervous, suffer pain.

Women worry, can't do daily work. Men have lame and aching backs. The cure for man, woman, or child. Is to cure the cause—the kidneys. Doan's Kidney Pills cure sick kidneys—

Cure all forms of kidney suffering. Mrs. Andrew Brenner, 1821 Toledo Street, Logansport, Ind., says: "We think just as highly of Doan's Kidney Pills at this time as when we gave a statement recommending them in 1897, after they had cured our daughter of a very distressing case of kidney trouble. Her kidneys became weakened after a severe attack of typhoid fever and as a result, she endured much suffering. I had used Doan's Kidney Pills with such good results that I decided to have my daughter try them and procured a box. They helped her greatly from the first and she steadily improved until completely cured. This cure took place in 1897 and as no recurrence of the trouble have taken place, I feel that I can recommend Doan's Kidney Pills to other sufferers."

Plenty more proof like this from Rensselaer people. Call at B. F. Fendig's drug store and ask what customers report.

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.
