

Social and Other Interests of Women

SOCIETY

Announcement has been made of the marriage of Miss Hattie Savids, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lester Savids of southeast of the city to August Hanish. The ceremony was performed Saturday afternoon at the parsonage of Grace M. E. church by Rev. F. K. Dougherty, pastor. Mr. Hanish is a native of Russia. For the present the young couple will reside with the bride's parents, but in the near future will move to the city.

Among other delightful events for Miss Winifred Weld, who will be married Thursday evening to J. Raymond Turner of Pittsburgh, Pa., was the tea given Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the Lexington tea rooms by Miss Katherine Hull. Covers were placed for seven. The color scheme in decoration was artistically carried out in the yellow and white, marigolds being fashioned into a centerpiece. The guests included the Misses Florence and Winifred Weld, Miss Lyle Whitcomb, Mrs. Alma O. Ware, Miss Charlotte Partridge, Mrs. Cloyd Harn of Tacoma, Wash., and Miss Katherine Hull.

Miss Marie Place, 322 S. Lafayette st., was hostess Tuesday evening to 25 members of the Phi Sigma sorority. Following a brief business meeting the evening was spent informally and a dainty luncheon was served at its close by the hostess. The house was very prettily adorned with roses for the occasion. The sorority will be entertained Oct. 27 by Miss Florence Cregier, 329 N. Lafayette st.

Miss Florence Butzbach, 631 S. St. Joseph st., entertained 60 friends Tuesday evening at a miscellaneous shower honoring her sister Eleanor, whose marriage to Rosecoe Hart will take place Oct. 21. Autumn foliage was used profusely in decoration. A musical program was rendered during the evening and served to make the event very enjoyable. Luncheon was served.

The Women's Home Missionary society of St. Paul's Memorial church was entertained Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. F. C. Koos, 824 Park av. The assisting hostesses were Mrs. Ida Weaver, Mrs. Howard Emmons, Mrs. Charles Smith, Mrs. Will Allen and Mrs. Call. The principal talk of the afternoon following the business meeting was that of Mrs. Marvin Campbell, who spoke on the dedication of the settlement house in Gary. Other articles were read pertaining to the subject for study, "The Oriental Frontier Work," were read by Mrs. Allen, Mrs. Emmons and Mrs. Weaver. The meeting closed with a social time and refreshments served by the hostesses. The society will meet Nov. 10 with Mrs. George Besev, 715 Cleveland av.

The South Bend section of the Women's league of the First M. E. church met Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. Charles Lantz, 523 S. St. Joseph st. The hostess was assisted by Mrs. D. W. Place, Mrs. J. A. Carter, Mrs. F. T. Sultz and Mrs. Walter Roberts. A short business meeting was held following a social time during which refreshments were served by the hostesses. Nov. 16, Mrs. Martha Hillier, S. Michigan st., will entertain.

The regular meeting of the Ayudadora circle was held Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. George Secor, 207 W. Marion st. There was no special business for the afternoon, the cases of a number of destitute children being considered. The remainder of the time was spent socially. Luncheon was served. Miss Elizabeth Neilson, 527 N. Lafayette st., will be hostess Oct. 27.

The Tuesday circle was very pleasantly entertained Tuesday afternoon by Mrs. L. A. Lydick, 646 Diamond av. There were 11 members of the club present. In the flower contest the favors were awarded Mrs. William McManis, dainty luncheon was served by the hostess during a social time. Mrs. McManis will entertain the club Oct. 27 at her home on Portage av.

Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Coil, 114 E. Broadway, celebrated their golden wedding anniversary Tuesday with a family reunion at their home. Mr. Coil is 72 years old and Mrs. Coil is 71. All of their five children were with them to help in the celebration and one great grandchild. A number of other relatives dined. The children are Mrs. Minnie Becker, Mrs. Clara Becker, Mrs. Lloyd Richards, Mrs. Harry Coil, all of South Bend, and Harry Coil of Elkhart. Out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. John Setzer of North Liberty and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Coil of Elkhart.

There in a nut-shell is the story of Dr. A. Reed Cushion Shoes—comfort plus style. And there's not another shoe made at any price that can equal the Dr. A. Reed Cushion Shoe in either.

It's far and away the easiest shoe on your foot. For it has a soft cushion insole that adapts itself to the sole of your foot—fills the hollows, supports the arch, and spreads your weight over your whole foot. That in itself means ease in walking. But more than that, the foot sinking down into the soft cushion insole releases the uppers—so that you can be sure you won't be bothered by corns, bunions and tired, aching, burning feet.

Up to the minute in style—you can have your choice of a big variety—everyone new and attractive. Why not come in today and see this restful, easy, stylish
