SOCIETY

An all day meeting of the Ladies' Aid society of the First Brethren church was held Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Eva Thomas, 315 Milton av. The morning was spent with needlework and following the picnic dinner a business and devotional meeting was held during which Mrs. Thomas and Mrs. Winnie Lawrence gave reports of the state conference held recently at Milford, Ind. The next monthly meeting will be held with Mrs. Emma Bechtel.

Mrs. Herbert Barnard, 412 Cushing st., was hostess Wednesday afternoon to members of the Violet club. The regular business meeting was followed by cards enjoyed at three tables. Favors were awarded Mrs. Lucia McMullen, Mrs. Emma Hoffman and Mrs. Alice Brown. The guest prizes were given Mrs. Maude Coleman and Mrs. Elsie Werman. Dainty refreshments were served during a social time. Mrs. Dora Evans, 1106 S. 6th st., River Park, will entertain the club Oct. 28. On Oct. 22 there will be a card party by the club at the W. O. W. hall on Jefferson blvd.

Mrs. F. L. Rockstroh, 702 N. Michigan st., was hostess to the members of the Bon Ton Sewing club Wednesday afternoon. Needwork was the feature of the afternoon which closed with a social time and refreshments. Mrs. Amiel Schmok, S. St. Louis st., will entertain Oct. 28.

The Sunshine club was entertained Wednesday afternoon by Mrs. George Nusshart, 1314 Elwood av. After a business meeting contests were enjoyed, favors going to Mrs. Jesse Taylor, Mrs. Frank McDonald and Mrs. Arthur Wilson. Luncheon was served during social hour. There will be a general social meeting of the club Oct. 28, at the W. O. W. hall, 118 E. Jefferson blvd.

Section one of the department of literature of the Progress club held a most interesting meeting Wednesday afternoon. The department has chosen as its season's topic the study of Tenneyson and the afternoon was devoted to papers by Miss Manda Romer and Miss Rose Bennett, who spoke on "Tenneyson's Friends, Personal and Literary," and "The Home Life of Tenneyson." At the next meeting, Oct. 28, Miss Edith J. Brown will have charge and the program will be a study of the Lyrics of Tenneyson.

Miss Clara Lockstidt, 314 Keasey st., entertained at an aluminum shower Wednesday evening in honor of Miss Bertha Zilly who will be married the latter part of the month to Merle Lee Doty of Bakersfield, Cal. The guests numbered 20. The house was prettily decorated for the occasion with autumn flowers and foliage, a color scheme being carried out in red, green and white. Music was furnished by Miss Inez Zilly who rendered a number of piano selections and the Misses Clara Zilly and Eldora Zears who contributed several vocal solos. At the close of the evening a delicious buffet luncheon was served.

Mrs. O. G. Huff, 613 Park av., assembled a number of young women at the home of Mrs. E. A. Bryan, 1225 E. Jefferson blvd. The subject of the afternoon's study was that of Confucius and his teachings. The leader was Mrs. A. L. Brick. The club will meet next Wednesday with Mrs. Brick at her home, 745 W. Washington av.

In honor of their daughter, Miss Winifred Weld who will be married this evening to J. Raymond Turner, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Weld, 1002 W. Colfax av., entertained Wednesday evening at a family dinner. Covers were placed from nine. The color scheme in decorations was green and white, garden flowers being used in profusion. Out of town guests were Mrs. Grant C. Fox, Ridgewood, N. J., Mrs. Bell Sheldon of Perry, N. J., and Mrs. George Turner of Sturgis, Mich.

Little Miss Myrtle Nesvant, S. Carroll st., was hostess to 42 of her young friends Wednesday morning at the Lafayette school kindergarten in celebration of the 10th anniversary. The little people spent the morning with games and a dainty luncheon was served them. Favors were tiny paper baskets filled with bonbons.

The first meeting of the North Side Culture club was held Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. William Bartsch, Portage av. Mrs. L. Greenan discussed books one and two of volume four of Les Misérables in an interesting manner and Mrs. Louis M. Hammerschmidt gave a paper on "Inheritance and Environment," a study of the child. The meeting closed with a social hour and refreshments. October 28 Mrs. John Bordner will entertain at her home on the Niles rd. Mrs. S. M. Leck and Mrs. Charles Francis will have charge.

The old South Bend Light Guards will hold its annual reunion and dinner next Friday evening.

The Ladies' Aid society of the First Presbyterian church will meet in the church parlors Friday afternoon when the officers will be hostesses.

The Young Women's Missionary circle of the First Christian church will hold its first meeting at the home of Miss Alvah Krusell, 803 Park av., Friday evening.
