

CHILD'S TONGUE BECOMES COATED IF CONSTIPATED

When Cross, Feverish and Sick Give "California Syrup of Figs."

Children love this "fruit laxative," and nothing else cleanses the tender stomach, liver and bowels so nicely.

A child simply will not stop playing to empty the bowels, and the result is, they become tightly clogged with waste, liver gets sluggish, stomach sour, then your little one "goes across, half-sick, feverish, don't eat, sleep or get up early, breath labored, system full of cold, hoarse throat, stomach ache of diarrhoea. Listen, Mother! See if tongue is coated, then give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," and in a few hours all the constipated waste, sour bile and undigested food passes out of the system, and you have a well, playful child again.

Millions of mothers give "California Syrup of Figs" because it is perfectly harmless; children love it, and it never fails to act on the stomach, liver and bowels.

Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly printed on the bottle. Beware of counterfeiters sold here. Get the genuine, made by "California Fig Syrup Company." Refuse any other kind with contempt.

WOMAN SUFFRAGE IS SURE TO COME

The More Men and Women Talk Sense Together the Less They Will Talk Nonsense Says Rabbi Cronbach.

"The more that men and women talk sense together, the less will they talk nonsense," was one of the striking phrases of Rabbi Cronbach's Sunday sermon at Temple Beth-Eh on the subject "The Worth of Womanhood." He said in part:

"When it was said 150 years ago that all men were equal, the meaning was not that men are equal as two and two equal four. The meaning is that all men are precious, all men are valuable, all men are good for something, can be used for something.

"As surely as life is many-sided, so surely is everyone useful, valuable, important. There is no such life and such variety that if you are not useful, valuable, important in one particular, there are a score of other particulars in which to be useful, valuable, important.

"And insofar as advancing civilization makes for the increased civilization of life, in just that far do the particulars grow more numerous in which one can be useful, valuable, important.

"The question is not whether the sexes are equal but whether the sexes are useful, valuable, important. That womanhood has, during the last few decades made marvelous strides forward in usefulness and importance, is obvious to every discerning eye.

"Women do and can do everything that men do, and in addition a few things that men cannot do. Men are heroes only in rare and exceptional cases, while most women are heroines. Every mother is a hero. There is little in the experience of the average man that equals the heroism of maternity.

"By way of certain exemptions and by way of special honors and courtesies, women should receive some compensation for the hardships and impediments incident to motherhood.

"Increased participation of women in public affairs will make for increased comradeship that is what we need. Not only will home life be happier if men and women have more interests in common, but even outside of the home life will be purer.

"The more that men and women talk sense together, the less will they talk nonsense. The more that a woman satisfies a man's intellectual desires, the less will he use her to satisfy other desires.

A SURE WAY TO END DANDRUFF

Stop Falling Hair and Itching Scalp—At Once.

There is one sure way that has never failed to remove dandruff at once, and that is to dissolve it, then you destroy it entirely. To do this, just get about four ounces of plain, common liquid, even from any drug store, (which will you need), apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips.

By morning most, if not all, of your dandruff will be gone, and three or four more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy every single sign and trace of it, no matter how much dandruff you may have.

You will find all itching and digging of the scalp will stop instantly and your hair will be fluffy, lustrous, glossy, silky and soft, and look and feel a hundred times better.

If you value your hair you should get rid of dandruff at once, for nothing destroys the hair so quickly. It not only starves the hair and makes it fall out, but it makes it stringy, straggly, dull, dry, brittle and lifeless, and everybody notices it.

Theaters

THE AUDITORIUM.

"The Going of the White Swan," a beautiful story of the Canadian wilderness by Gilbert Parker and featuring Bessie Eytom and Wheeler Oakman is one of the attractive pictures on the Auditorium today, with "The Million Dollar Mystery," "On Circus Day," a Lubin comedy, and "Love by the Pound," an Edison comedy.

Tomorrow brings a beautiful two-reel Edison entitled "The Poisoned Bit," a George Ade fable called "The Adult Girl Who Got Busy" with Richard Travers in the cast; "The Mystery of the Glass Tubes," an Edison drama; "An Embarrassing Predicament," a Selig comedy, and the Selig weekly of current news full of interesting items.

AT THE COLONIAL.

Big Sunday crowds at the Colonial attested to the popularity of Thompson, Cooper and Thompson, the colored trio of harmony signers who pleased with a number of high-class songs and medleys. Today they will offer a new and interesting program of popular selections. They will remain during the week, varying their programs frequently. In addition will be seen today three reels of interesting pictures including the great Selig dramatic film "Who Killed George Graves" and an Edison educational picture entitled "Making a Convert." The prices at the Colonial have again been reduced to five cents and the high quality of the programs will continue to be maintained.

THE SURPRISE.

"Out of the Air," a two-reel Majestic drama, will be the attraction at the Colonial theater today. It is said this story contains plenty of action and proves a winner of its kind. The discharged hero finds his chance to make good when he rides in an aeroplane to catch a runaway train. He crawls down on a rope and lands on the freight just in time to stop it and save the girl's life.

"The Final Test" is a Princess film. A story of a doctor with humanitarian instincts finally winning a bride over an impossible brute.

Tomorrow will bring an excellent two-reel Domino, "The Game Keeper's Daughter," and "The Animated Weekly" with the latest pictures of the war.

DAMAGED GOODS.

Whatever else may be said of "Damaged Goods" which comes to the Oliver for two performances this week—Thursday and Friday nights—it certainly has the distinction of being the most talked about play ever staged in America. Singularly enough its highest commendations and most emphatic endorsements come from prominent officials, clergymen of all denominations, scientists—especially family doctors of repute—and women in eminent in physical and moral hygiene.

The faculties of many leading universities and colleges have caused their students to attend the performance in a body, and the amazing play has been made the subject of sermons, lectures, clinical discourse and even collegiate debate. "I took my son to see it," said a Cincinnati enthusiast, "because it tells him and convinces him of all those awful dangers about which a parent hates to talk to his children."

AT THE MAJESTIC.

The new musical comedy offered for the first time Sunday by the permanent stock company now employed at this theater is entitled "Don't Meddle." It is a lively farce full of amusing complications and interspersed with the latest gags and novelty dances. W. W. Hall, who plays the leading role introduced a new song, sung for the first time on any stage, "Gee, How I Love My Fio." It was written by Earl Keene of this city, a talented composer who is now directing the Majestic orchestra. Lora Lorraine, who joined the company Sunday to play leading roles, has a splendid soprano voice and sang a late ballad, "Just for the Night." Eddie Wright has a capital character comedy song in "Chinatown" which he sang with good effect and with the assistance of the lively girl chorus. George Teas is another new member of cast who pleases. Adding to chorus people, new costumes and a long program of musical numbers tended to complete a most satisfactory performance.

THE LASALLE.

"John Barleycorn" will be the attraction at the LaSalle theater today. Six reels tell the story beginning with the little chap of five, who drinks beer intended for his father plowing in the distant field, and ending with the dramatic fight of the successful writer of today against the final master of Barleycorn.

It is a swift and impassioned story of adventure, drawn with the hard lines of realism, but lighted with all the color of romance. The struggling factory boy during childhood, the adventurous life in San Francisco, bay as a oyster pirate, the scenes aboard the steamer, "Sophie Sutherland" with the Binin Islands, the glimpse of San Francisco's barbary coast, Hayde and her love, the first influence which led this former newsboy and unlearned seal hunter toward his present position, and above all the part John Barleycorn played in all this, are the chief factors in the vivid scenes of the play. "The Million Dollar Mystery," latest episode, will also be shown.

Tomorrow will bring the story of "Burning Daylight" and his Klondike adventures, released by Bowesworth of Paramount pictures in a five-reel version of Jack London's story of that title. "The New Butler" is a Joker comedy.

NEWMAN'S PICTURES.

An unique feature of E. M. Newman's second traveltalk, "The Holy Land From Mt. Sinai to Jerusalem," to be presented at the Oliver opera house next Tuesday evening, Oct. 23, is a series of photographs, which he secured from a Mohammedan pilgrim returning from Mecca. Mecca is the holy city of the Moslems and an "unbeliever" enters it only on penalty of death. Neither is it permissible to take photographs within the sacred precincts of the city and for a Moslem to be instrumental in having them fall into the hands of one who is not an Islamite is the height of treason.

SHOWS IN DAMAGED GOODS AT THE OLIVER

JANE BABCOCK.

Miss Babcock takes leading role in "Damaged Goods" to be presented at the Oliver Thursday and Friday.

Newman secured these pictures he does not say.

Some of the pictures show the sacred way to the huts, the sacred carpets, and the thousands of praying Moslems before them. Others show the myriad tents on the sacred mountain outside the city and several bird's-eye views of the city itself. In this traveltalk, Mr. Newman will also include pictures taken during his visit last summer to Mt. Sinai and the rock city of Petra in the Arabian desert.

AT THE ORPHEUM.

There are plenty of laughs, novelties and good songs on the new bill which opened at the Orpheum Sunday. The principal act, employing three attractive young girls and an equal number of clean cut active men is entitled "When Love Is Young." It is slightly reminiscent of "Sorority Days" in as much as the talk, songs and characters are typical of young college folks. M. M. Meagley, as the freshman acts cleverly, is naturally pleasing and put over any number of amiable lines. Jack Edwards does a rhythmic dancing act, this is gracefully and skillfully accomplished. The girls are pleasing in appearance, songs and actions and Dot Van is an agile dancer. An attractive special setting adds much to the act.

Joe and Ernie Van take the laughing honors of the bill. Their act includes harmony that is pleasing and not enough of it to become tiresome. The humorous lines are original and well worked up. The Chinese money joker does a clever act, this is the main laugh they get out of it.

Anita Diaz presents her numerous trained monkeys in all sorts of humorous and entertaining tricks. The little animals are well trained and a special plush drop enhances the act. Burns and Aker in a military traveltalk, with amusing parades please, and Wilson and Aubrey open the show with comedy wrestling and symphonic performances. Sunday's audiences is an agile dancer. An attractive special setting adds much to the act.

NEIGHBOR LOVE IS SUBJECT OF PASTOR

God's Love Can Only Exist as It Finds Someone or Something to Love.

At the Sunday evening services at the Trinity Presbyterian church, Rev. John S. Burns took for his theme, "Neighbor Love." He drew several fine lessons from the Bible on love of fellowman. He spoke, in part, as follows:

"John is the apostle of love, love of God, love to man. It is a great subject. Neighbor love is born of God. He who loves his neighbor as himself is begotten of God and knoweth God.

"God's love can only exist as it finds someone or something to love. Therefore Jesus Christ is the expression of God's love. He came to us that love to God and man might be born in us and be made perfect in us.

"Yes, God's love is perfected in us. His love is not all that He wishes to be until it is seen constantly in the lives of His children, shining out through our every thought, word and action.

"We can be conscious of this indwelling, abiding love of God in us, by confessing Him and trusting Him. For this will be taken away and we will be living the true life of love to God and love to man."

ALL LOCAL MAIL IS NOW BEING COUNTED

The counting of the individual pieces of various classes of mail began last night at the postoffice as per order of Postmaster Gen. Burleson at Washington. All mail that was dropped
