

BRITAIN GUARDED IN TROUBLE ZONES BY MILLION MEN

Tommy's Uphold England's Prestige in All Parts of Globe.

LONDON, Aug. 13.—There are 675,000 British soldiers scattered abroad upholding the prestige of the British empire.

Nearly two-thirds of this force is retained to enforce the fulfillment by Germany of the peace treaty. This huge army does not include British soldiers in Ireland or other portions of the British Isles numbering over 200,000; hence the British army totals about 1,000,000 men.

206,000 Along Rhine.

In the British army of occupation along the Rhine are 206,000 soldiers, while in France and Flanders, forming the communication services and clearing up the battlefields are 214,000 men who would act as a reserve for the Rhine army in case of need.

In Italy there are about 11,000 troops, most of them engaged in "clearing up" work. One battalion forms the British portion of the international garrison at Flume.

In the Black sea area there are 44,000 troops, about a division being in the region of Constantinople and 22,000 in the Caucasus, where highly valuable oil fields are being guarded.

garrison in Egypt.

In Egypt and Palestine there are 56,000 British soldiers. As it well known a large garrison is being kept in Egypt to prevent revolution and Turk-German plots coming to a head. Asia Minor is very unsettled; there's trouble between the Kurds and Armenians, which, with the dissatisfaction of the Turks, makes it necessary for a considerable force to be kept in Palestine, for which Great Britain has the mandate.

In Mesopotamia there are 21,000 British garrison troops. The Kurds there have been stirring up trouble. Central Arabia also is inclined to be war-like, mostly of tribal kind but without sects.

India is Restive.

In India, where there are a million natives trained to arms, but who have been demobilized, the British garrison numbers 62,000. Unrest in India itself, together with punitive expeditions now and then by the Afghans, makes this force essential to continuance of British rule.

In Siberia, where international troops are guarding the Trans-Siberian railroad from the Bolsheviks, there are 1,400 British troops. In addition there is a military mission designed to aid Admiral Kolchak, with headquarters at Vladivostok.

In North Russia, where the British policy is to hold the Bolsheviks in check while Russians are being trained and equipped so they can "carry on," there are some 15,000 British troops, most of which are near Archangel. The British forces are gradually being brought home.

In addition, there are 6,000 British troops in defended ports of the British empire abroad. These ports include Gibraltar, Hong Kong, Singapore, Bermuda and Malta.

MOONSHINERS SHOT DEPUTY STATE OFFICER

CHARLESTON, W. Va., Aug. 13.—Deputy Will Farley, of the state prohibition department, was shot and killed by three moonshiners as he lay in bed at his home on Dart's creek, near here, Monday night, according to reports received here Tuesday afternoon by W. S. Halianian, state prohibition commissioner. Farley's wife who was asleep in the bed was uninjured.

The shooting followed a raid by Farley and Deputy G. S. Johnson Monday afternoon. The officers seized a still and took it to Farley's home. According to reports here, the moonshiners later went to the Farley home broke in and opened fire as Farley lay asleep. Johnson, who was in another room, fired at the assassins but they escaped.

A posse was organized early Tuesday and started in pursuit of the moonshiners who are believed to have fled toward the Kentucky border.

GRANT WAGE INCREASE.

NEW YORK, Aug. 13.—The war labor board at its final session here today granted an increase of 12 per cent in wages to employees of ten traction companies centering in Boston, Pittsburgh and Cleveland.

Alkali in Shampoos Bad For Washing Hair

Most soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much alkali, which is very injurious, as it dries the scalp and makes the hair brittle.

The best thing to use is Muislined cocoanut oil shampoo, for this is pure and entirely greaseless. It's very cheap and beats anything else all to pieces. You can get this at any drug store, and a few ounces will last the whole family for months.

Simply moisten the hair with water and rub it in, about a teaspoonful is all that is required. It makes an abundance of rich, creamy lather, cleanses thoroughly, and rinses out easily. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and is soft, fresh looking, bright, fluffy, wavy and easy to handle. Besides, it loosens and takes out every particle of dust, dirt and dandruff.

Actors and Sympathizers in Strike

STRIKING ACTORS, ACTRESSES AND SYMPATHIZERS IN AN OVERFLOW MEETING AT HEADQUARTERS ON 45TH STREET

The actor's strike in New York is spreading, and while the managers announce that they will soon reopen all the theaters that have been closed since the actors walked out the actors are more than confident and declare that many more stars are joining every day. The Actor's Equity Association at a monster meeting showed much enthusiasm over the prospects of victory.

Negro Boy Alleges He Was Assaulted While in Jail

OWENSBORO, Ky., Aug. 13.—Elwood Brackett, a negro boy residing in Harrisburg, Ill., who sues by his next friend, Peyton Ruby, has countersued Kentucky.

It is alleged in the petition that United States court in this city while Brackett was confined in the jail at Greenville during the month of November, 1918, all of these defendants jointly entered the jail and assisting each other in assaulting beating and bruising Brackett to such an extent that he suffered great horrors and pain, and that his body has been permanently injured.

Brackett claims that he was making no resistance or attempt to escape from jail, but that the men placed a rope around his neck, and while beating, assaulting and sweating him, they also threatened him with death.

The governor announced Tuesday evening that he would furnish the attorney general's department, from the governor's contingent fund, finances with which to assist county prosecutors in their fight against unreasonable profits and also that he would provide revenue from the same fund to defray the expenses of the state food administration in giving publicity to margins of profit on staples.
