GREAT BARGAINS IN FOOD STUFFS

Postmaster Secures a Large Amount of Government Supplies for Next Week.

People of Mishawaka will have the opportunity Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, August 18, 19 and 20, of purchasing government food at a price below cost, plus parcel post, according to a letter received Friday morning by Postmaster Herzog from the office of the postmaster general at Washington. In part the letter reads, "In accordance with a resolution recently passed by congress, providing for the distribution of certain foodstuffs now on hand at the several military substation depots by utilizing the parcel post, the postmaster general desires that all employees of the postal service cooperate with the authorities of the war department in carrying out plans to place the material in the hands of consumers."

"In order to secure the best results and to be certain that the foodstuffs get into hands of bona fide consumers, it is necessary to utilize postoffices as distributing agencies and to leave to the individual postmaster some measure of discretion as to the actual consumers to whom sales should be made and in what quantities."

Announce Allotment.

Following is a list of the articles allotted to the Mishawaka postoffice: 2,600 cans of bacon, gross weight, 17 pounds to the can, price $4.15; 6,489 cans corned beef, gross weight, 1.36 lbs., 29 cents; 3,200 cans of corned beef containing 2.72 lbs., 55 cents; 870 cans of corned beef containing 7 lbs. at $1.75 per can; 5,400 cans of roast beef containing 1.25 lbs. at 29 cents per can; 5,900 cans of roast beef containing 2.50 lbs. at 65 cents per can; 540 cans of roast beef containing 7 lbs. at $1.90 per can; 4,100 1.25-lb. cans of hash corned beef at 22 cents a can; 3,500 3-lb. cans of hash corned beef, 37 cents per can; 4,740 cans of baked beans containing 1.25 lbs., 4 cents per can; 569 2.72-lb. cans of baked beans at 6 cents; 7,600 2.60-lb. cans, 9 cents; 1,050 2-lb. cans of string beans, 9 cents; 9,800 cans of sweet corn containing 2.25 lbs., 9 cents a can; 7,427 cans dry beans containing 101 lbs. at $6.49; 370 cans of cherries containing 2.55 lbs., 21 cents; 4,903 cans of flour containing 101 lbs. at $6.41; cans pepper containing half pound, 9 cents a can; 1,100 100-lb. bags of rice at $6.74; 12,400 cans of green peas containing 2.25 lbs., 9 cents; 8 1-lb. cans of vegetable soup, 8 cents per can; and 700 8x12. cans of tomatoes at 33 cents.

HAS SEVEN WIVES LIVING; IS JAILED

Former Evangelist is Convicted of Bigamy — Married One Woman Twice.

NEW YORK, Aug. 16.—Convicted of bigamy on his confession that he has seven living wives, one of whom he married twice, Charles Hugh Wilson, 48 years old, former Y. M. C. A. secretary, evangelist and traveling salesman, was sentenced Friday to three years and six months in Sing Sing prison where, he announced, he will take up prison reform work. Judge Wadsworth told the prisoner he would have given him five years, the maximum sentence, but deducted 18 months, the period spent by Wilson in a Wisconsin penitentiary for a largely which another man afterward confessed to having committed.

Wilson commenced his matrimonial career on Jan. 22, 1909, when he married Elizabeth May Stanton, of Davenport, Ia. After three children were born he left her and in July, 1908, married May Bailey at Wytheville, W. Va. In less than a year he embarked on his third venture at Decatur, Ala., where he married Ethel C. Moore in March, 1909.

MARRIED WOMAN TWICE.

Four years later he united to Louise Davis at Detroit and a year afterward he went through a second ceremony with Miss Davis at Pittsburgh. The following year he sought a New York bride and was married to Caroline K. Morris. He tried Philadelphia next and took Wilhelmina C. Jajard, of that city, for his sixth bride in August, 1915. His final venture was in New York, where he married Fay Jeanette Ziff, in November, 1916.

According to a report by the Parkhurst society, to which his last wife appealed after he deserted her, Wilson was born at Euniceville, Mo., and is the son of a Scotch Methodist minister. He served as a Y. M. C. A. physical instructor, or secretary, at Sedalia, Mo.; Davenport, Ia.; Kansas City, Mo.; Knoxville, Tenn., and Burlington, Vt.
