

STORED FOOD SHOWS A HEAVY GAIN OVER '18

Government Figures Reveal Some Very Enlightening Facts on Hoarding.

By United Press: WASHINGTON, Aug. 16.—Officials of the department of justice today planned an investigation of storage houses in which holdings of butter, eggs, dairy products and poultry have increased from 20 to 250 percent since last year.

Prices have soared for poultry and all dairy products during the same year.

Exact data on the holdings of all big storage houses in the country are now in possession of the bureau of markets which has just finished a careful survey. Justice department officials plan to ask for all the facts brought out in this survey, results of which have just been announced.

"Steps are now being taken to combat this situation," said C. B. Ames, assistant attorney general in charge of the campaign to prosecute food profiteers during the absence of Atty. Gen. Palmer.

Hoarding Lays Prices.

"I am glad to note that the information gathered by the bureau of markets confirms the belief of this department that one of the chief factors causing the high cost of living is hoarding of great stocks of food. It thoroughly demonstrates the wisdom of the policy already adopted by the justice department."

The canvass made by the bureau of markets shows that cold storage holdings of creamery butter Aug. 1, 1919, were 40.8 percent in excess of those of Aug. 1, 1918, or an increase of 36,055,147 pounds. Holdings Aug. 1, 1919, totaled 124,839,792 pounds.

Cases eggs held in storage Aug. 1, 1919, showed an increase of 20.4 percent over one year ago when only 6,222,242 cases were reported. The total Aug. 1, 1919, had jumped to 7,553,283 cases.

Chicken dressed as broilers increased 28.2 percent during the year, according to the market bureau's canvass. Aug. 1, 1919, holdings were 6,159,154 pounds as compared with but 1,298,847 pounds a year ago.

Average Increase 39g.

Other increases in stock held Aug. 1, 1919, as compared with Aug. 1, 1918, follow:

- American cheese, increased 20.2-23.4 percent or 47.2 percent.
- Swiss, including block cheese, 1-57.1-28 percent or 257.8 percent.
- Brick and munster cheese, 306.6-691 pounds or 37.8 percent.
- Limbarger cheese, 395,774 pounds or 59.8 percent.
- Cottage, pot and bakers cheese, 4,662,744 pounds or 185.8 percent.
- Cream and neufchatel cheese, 89,214 pounds or 40.6 percent.
- Frozen eggs, 3,840,084 pounds or 25.3 percent.

Holdings of nearly all varieties of poultry showed increases in keeping with the increases of dairy products. Poultry holdings follow:

- Roasters increased 5,787,360 pounds or 39.7 percent.
- Fowls, 1,652,817 pounds or 28.6 percent.
- Turkeys, 1,309,180 pounds or 42.4 percent.
- Miscellaneous poultry 9,020,482 pounds or 146.6 percent.

ATHLETICS PURCHASE THREE-1 OUTFIELDER

By Associated Press: EVANSVILLE, Ind., Aug. 16.—Charles High, right fielder of the Evansville Three I club, was sold Friday night to the Philadelphia Athletics scout, Tom Turner, who has been watching the St. Louis boy's work all season, making the deal with Manager John Ne. The price paid was not given out, but it is thought to be the highest ever for a Three I league player. One National league club and another American were also after him. He is 21 years old, bats left-handed and throws right and his all-around work has been a big factor in keeping Evansville in the first division. High will report to Connie Mack after the close of the Three I season. Labor day.

The first desertion occurred at the Knickerbocker and Century theaters. It was followed almost immediately by another at the Cohan and Harris playhouse.

Century roof stage hands and musicians were the next to join the ranks of the strikers, bricking the number of houses closed to 15, three more than last night.

FALL OFFERS FIRST TREATY AMENDMENT

By United Press: WASHINGTON, Aug. 16.—The first amendment to the peace treaty offered in the foreign relations committee was proposed by Sen. Fall, New Mexico, to section 34. This section requires Germany to renounce in favor of Belgium the Kreis of Eupen and Malmedy.

Fall's proposed amendment would require a plebiscite on this question and would have the result of the plebiscite communicated to a commission appointed by the allied powers, not including the United States, instead of having the League of Nations oversee the transfer of the territory as the treaty now provides.

IRATE MOTHER SAVES DAUGHTER

Police Capture Man Driven From Home With a Shot Gun.

A loaded shotgun in the hands of an irate mother prevented what might have been a case of the enticing away from home of a young Ardmore Heights girl Saturday afternoon.

E. Bechtel, 40, who told the police he had no home, but said he was a native of Germany, will be tried on a trespass charge in city court Monday morning for his part in the affair.

Begs for Food.

Bechtel came to the home of Orin Sisk, Ardmore Heights, Saturday morning and begged a meal, which was given him. He went away for an hour or so, coming back to the house early in the afternoon, walking into the front room and helping himself to the most comfortable rocking chair.

Several young children were playing in the room, and Bechtel, it is alleged, began to make advances to the 16-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sisk, grabbing her by the arm and telling her that he was going to take her away with him.

Mrs. Sisk began a search for some one to assist her in which she met her daughter and found standing in a nearby room a double barreled shotgun, which had been loaned to a neighbor and had just been returned.

Uses Shotgun.

Bechtel drove from the house with the weapon, and immediately notified the police. Several officers were sent out to search for Bechtel, and the German was finally found and arrested by Officers Luther and Jones.

Bechtel told the police that he had been looking for work for the past six months, but had been unable to find any.

Will Attempt to GET THE PEACE PACT OUT OF COMMITTEE

outcome of the conference between the president and Sen. Hitchcock was interpreted to mean that Mr. Wilson would fight uncompromisingly against both amendments and reservations. It was inferred by some senators in that connection that the president had refused to entertain the negotiations looking to reservations which have been conducted by some democrats.

Do Not Accept View.

The McNary group of republicans did not accept that view of the situation, however, pointing out that Sen. Hitchcock had said after the conference that the administration would cross the reservation bridge when it came to him.

Considerable interest was aroused by a statement of Mr. Hitchcock that the president had laughingly suggested sending Sens. Lodge and Knox to negotiate any future treaty with Germany should the president one fall through being amended. Republican members of the foreign relations committee who are fighting for amendments said they welcomed the suggestion as a challenge.

"If the president will bind himself to that promise and give a bond for its fulfillment," said Sen. Moses, republican, New Hampshire, "we will guarantee that the treaty is amended."

The amendment proposal which the leaders on both sides expect to develop the greatest strength in the senate, contemplates striking from the treaty the provision giving Japan control in the Chinese province of Shantung. Not only did yesterday's poll show an increase in the number who oppose the provision, the republicans asserted, but several senators gave that as their only reason for not accepting the McNary reservation program which covers only provisions in the league of nations covenant.

Advocates of the Shantung amendment declare Sen. Lodge will line up with them on the proposal. They also assert he will support several other textual amendments in the committee but the reservation groups are inclined to think he will not.

several states to hear evidence in cases of alleged hoarding and profiteering. Goods taken over today by the government included 16,500,000 eggs at St. Louis, 7,500,000 eggs and 200,000 pounds of butter at Detroit and large quantities of food at San Diego, California.

An announcement was made by the postoffice department that the postage rate on surplus army foods, sale of which through the parcel post system will begin Monday, would be the same to persons living beyond the first zone from the supply centers as those living in the first zone. This will equalize the postage to all purchasers and the difference will be made up by the war department deducting the extra postage from the sale price and turning it over to the postoffice department.

Sell Army Food.

Surplus army food sold to municipalities now totals 8,500,000 pounds, but huge stocks still are on hand and these will be sold through postmasters.

Atty. Gen. Palmer today accepted an invitation to meet with the fair price board of New York where Monday night.

The evening program opened with "The Festival Overture," by Lassen, and was followed by "A Summer Evening in the Alps," a descriptive and romantic fantasia by H. Kling. Every movement of this number including the call of the shepherd, the shepherd's song, the dance of the shepherds, the lover's serenade, the storm, and the song of joy, was easily discernible. A humorous song, "Fin Good" (Turkey in the Straw), came next and was followed by an intermission after which Mr. Kryl presented a cornet solo, "Fantasia on National Airs," composed by himself, to which he responded with "New World Symphony," by Dvorak, was the final number of the concert and was followed by the musical pageant, "War, Victory and Peace."

Local Girls Appear.

Peace, which prevailed before the war, was represented by two small girls picking flowers, the little Misses Christine Taylor and Jean Waters of this city, who were frightened by the sound of war and rescued by Uncle Sam and his brave soldiers and sailors. Then followed a review of the allied nations in which characters costumed to represent France, Italy, Belgium and the United States entered bearing the flag of their countries, while the band played the national anthem. The Misses Geneva and Bess Morse, local young women, took part in the pageant as a Belgian mother and a Red Cross nurse. Miss Mary Smith, who is conducting the Children's hour, represented Columbia, and it was she who coached the local participants.

Varied Program.

The program presented by the band in the afternoon was equally as fine as the evening one. The overture, "Robespierre," by Litolfo, in which is described the French revolution, was rendered as the first number. In this, too, each movement is distinct. The overture opens with a movement indicating the state of national unrest immediately preceding the Reign of Terror. This, in turn, is followed by a picture of the Bacchanalian orgies of the mob; the singing of the "Marseillaise" by the Girondists on their way to the scaffold, and the guillotining of Robespierre; the triumph of law and order being announced by the fanfare of trumpets which opens the final movement.

Other numbers on the afternoon program were: "A Colored Poem," by Bagley; "Dance of the Wood Nymphs," by Suk; "The Phantom Brigade," by Myddleton; "The Eve of Battle," by Lasker; "Columbia," by Damare; a cornet solo, by Mr. Kryl; grand selection from "Faust," by Gounod; paraphrase on "Nearer, My God to Thee," by Hayes; and "Songs from the Old Folks," a grand fantasia, by Chambers.

Entertain Orphans.

One hundred children from the Orphans' home were the guests of the chautauqua management at the afternoon performance. Their appreciation of the program was good to see and they made no disturbance whatever as might have been expected when 100 kiddies get together.

There will be no chautauqua today. On Monday afternoon Marie Rose Lauler, twice captured by the Germans, will lecture "The Spirit of the Women of France," and in the evening a company of eight people will present the comedy, "It Pays to Advertise."

BOHUMIR KRYL SCORES BIG HIT

Local Girls Appear in Costumed Pageant—Management Entertains Orphans.

BY ETHEL PHELAN.

Despite the heavy downpour of rain which threatened several times to seriously interrupt the program, Bohumir Kryl and his band presented the best chautauqua program of the season Saturday night to the largest and most enthusiastic audience.

Forced to respond always with one encore, more often with two or three, and in one instance with six, Mr. Kryl failed even then to satisfy his audience which clamored for more and then still more. The novelty, which he introduced in his encores rendered them almost more enjoyable than the principal numbers.

Mr. Kryl is acknowledged as one of the three, if not the greatest, band conductor of the world, and one can easily acquiesce after hearing the program. Saturday night, which ranked from the most classic of the classical to "Ja Da," all being played with equal ease by his band of more than 20 pieces.

Gives Solo.

The evening program opened with "The Festival Overture," by Lassen, and was followed by "A Summer Evening in the Alps," a descriptive and romantic fantasia by H. Kling.
