

J. Wood Platt Eliminates Ouimet At Amateur Tourney

PLATT'S VICTORY BIG SENSATION

Loser Not Up to His Regular Standard—Rain Slows the Course.

PITTSBURGH, Pa., Aug. 22.—After a twenty-four hour reign as favorite for championship honors in the National Amateur tournament being played at the Oakland club, Francis Ouimet was yesterday afternoon eliminated by J. Wood Platt, North Hills club, Philadelphia, one up on the 35th hole. The defeat of the famous Woodland club star by Platt was as sensational a golfing feat as the contest that marked the passing of Chick Evans yesterday at the hands of Ouimet. As a side to the match, a terrible thunderstorm burst over players and spectators just after the New England expert had equaled the contest on the home green and the two extra holes were fought out in a pouring rain that drenched contestants and gallery to the skin.

It was the second heavy storm of the day and as a result the course was badly slowed up, both greens and fair ways being dead, which condition was reflected in the play of all participating in the third round. Compared with his work of Wednesday against Evans, Ouimet's play fell off badly, but it is doubtful if this was due as much to weather and course conditions as the natural reaction following the strain of yesterday's match. Ouimet's stroke score this afternoon was 179 for 26 holes as compared to 150 against the former double champion holder Evans, under far more favorable playing conditions.

Not Up to Standard. Ouimet was in trouble virtually all day long, being 45 for both the forenoon and afternoon rounds of 18 holes each. He was particularly bad in his drives, the ball repeatedly finding bunkers, pits or the rough, and but for some remarkable recoveries on his second shots he would not have been able to carry the match to the extreme recorded. Platt, while not playing particularly brilliant golf, was extremely steady and made every shot count.

RED SOX FAIL TO HIT AFTER FIRST, BUT WIN

CLEVELAND, Aug. 22.—Failing to make a hit after the first inning, when they scored all of their runs, Boston defeated Cleveland in the second game of the series Thursday, 4 to 3. Jasper and Pennock were taken out in the first inning after pitching to four batters. Russell held Cleveland with one score in the first, relieving Pennock with the bases full and none out. SOUTHAMPTON, N. Y., Aug. 22.—The singles and doubles in the tennis tournament on the turf of the Meadow club here drew down to the semi-finals Wednesday. In the singles C. S. Garland, Jr., the Pittsburgh star, and Lyle E. Mahan are coupled in the top half, in the lower section are Norman E. Brooks, the Australian, and Willie E. Davis, the Californian. Brooks in his match Wednesday outgeneraled Dean Matthey, the former Princeton champion, and won 6-4, 6-1, 6-7.

G. L. Patterson and Norman E. Brooks retired from the doubles when within a stroke of beating P. Bertram and Maj. E. F. Harran. The official score was 7-6, 6-7, 6-7. Patterson said that his arm is strained and that it is impossible for him to continue in the tournament. He defaulted in the singles. W. T. Tilden II and Garland, Randolph Loret and V. V. Thomas, the Agrarians, and E. D. Dore and Dudley Morgan were pairs that came through to the doubles and finals.

Gotham Boxers to Appear Here

The window for the Labor day boxing carnival which will be staged at Springfield park will be between Mel Coogan of New York and Barney Adair of Brooklyn. Both of these boys have been disposing of all the top notch easterners and will allow South Benders their varied assortment of wares when they fight out here for the first time.

Johnny Powers of Chicago, a cousin of Coogan is taking care of the business arrangements, and is expected to see the fact that Coogan will make a western tour. Coogan met Rennie Mitchell in the spring and gave him a bad beating in ten rounds.

Adair is touted as one of the most promising of the younger fighters. He is now working out in Billy Eimer's 12nd st. gymnasium in New York city and wired the promoter Thursday night that he would arrive a day or two ahead of time to complete his training.

Judging from the records established by these two boys, this battle should be a corker from the spectators standpoint. The winner will be booked immediately for several Chicago engagements.

BROWNS AND YANKS DIVIDE DOUBLE BILL

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 22.—Geddon's low-ball hit in the 14th inning of the second game scored Austin with the run that decided in St. Louis' favor, 2 to 1, a long pitching duel between Morridge and Sothoron. It gave the locals an even break in two hard fought games with New York Thursday.

The Yankees won the first game, 3 to 2. Baker's double and a single by Pratt secured the winning run in the ninth. Sothoron's home run with Jacobson on base tied the score in the fourth. Hannah was ejected in the second game for disputing a decision of Empire Club. Score: ST. LOUIS—AR, R, H, O, A. Austin, 2b, 4, 1, 3, 0, 0. Geddon, 3b, 4, 1, 3, 0, 0. Jacobson, 1b, 4, 1, 3, 0, 0. ## DODGERS TAKE CLOSE GAME FROM PIRATES

BROOKLYN, Aug. 22.—Brooklyn defeated Pittsburgh here Thursday, 3 to 2. A fumble of Johnston's grounder by Barbare and a wild throw by Barbare on Wheat's grounder, with Myers' single, gave Brooklyn a run in the first inning. Olson's double, a pass to Wheat and Myers' double gave Brooklyn two more runs off Adams in the third inning.

Pittsburgh scored a run on three singles in the fourth and another on four singles in the ninth. Score: BROOKLYN—AR, R, H, O, A. Olson, ss, 4, 1, 3, 0, 0. Johnston, 2b, 4, 1, 3, 0, 0.
