

DELETE PUBLIC IN SAFETY MEET

Board Admits Session, But Many Questions Are Left Still Unanswered.

Dense secrecy surrounds the meeting of the board of "public" safety held Friday night. The board admits holding a meeting, at which the most important thing done was to take the "public" out of the board of public safety.

"I have nothing to give out," said Harry Josephson, clerk of the board, after the meeting. Reporters, who have been invited to attend "investigations" in the past, Friday night were not even allowed to gather in the captain's office, adjoining the board's headquarters, or even in the corridor in the vicinity of the door.

It is supposed that the much discussed but little acted upon reorganization of the police department, suggested by the administration, was one of the things which were taken up by the board. A knotty problem which could have been taken up was whether it would be better to re-instate William Barnhart, recently resigned sergeant of detectives, and thus back down from their temporarily held position on the liquor question, which caused Barnhart to quit, or to leave Barnhart at large and stand the case of him telling some of the unpleasant things he is supposed to know about the police "ranking heads."

Some Others Matter. Harry Josephson did not state whether or not the board extended a vote of condemnation to Chief Peter Kline for his action on Tuesday of handing back to George Hosler, self-confessed keeper of a gambling house, the $124 left out of the reported $275 brought in as evidence when Hosler's "whist club" was raided, although Hosler is now awaiting trial in the higher courts.

Another matter on which Josephson was reticent was whether the board paid any attention to the Berillon system of measurements, the finger print system and other modern police systems adopted by John Kuipers, former chief of detectives, and thrown into the scrap heap when Chief Kline came into office. The appointment of a sergeant of detectives to fill the vacancy in that department which has existed for the past three weeks, was a matter on which the board was silent.

Great Hold on Vice. It may be that the board failed to censor Chief Kline and the other "ranking heads," or rather "ranking heads," for failure to protect the patrolmen from attack by thugs and gunmen by refusing to make any effort to arrest the assailant of John Kolacz, night patrolman, who was fired on by a gunman, who is still at large.

The report made by Patrol Sgt. Roberts recently to Mayor Carson that gambling had been broken up in South Bend might also have been acted on by the board, who might have complimented Chief Kline for having such an admirable hold on the vice situation here. The recent raids on houses of ill-fame might have caused some congratulatory for the chief, providing he had been able to answer, if asked, why several disorderly houses were allowed to operate openly in the downtown district.

Had the reporters been allowed to attend the meeting, one of the things which they would not have heard mentioned would have been the question so carefully avoided during the recent Miller-Lovgren-Barnhart-Koscrowski trials—how did the liquor which these men admit seeing and handling get out of the bull-pen and into the barn in the fear of the station, when Chief Kline admitted possessing the only key to the bull-pen?

COMPLETE PLANS FOR PARK MEET

Convention of Hoosier Officials to Open in South Bend on Aug. 31.

Tentative plans for the annual convention of the State Park association to be held here Aug. 21-Sept. 1, were completed at a meeting of the city park board held Friday night. The convention will be attended by representatives of the park boards of the six Indiana cities of the first and second class, and mayors and park committees of the smaller cities.

The convention will open at 1:30 o'clock on the afternoon of Sunday, Aug. 31, when delegates and ladies will register at the Rose room at the Oliver. An auto ride around the city, visiting the parks and other points of interest, and ending at the Country club, will occupy the afternoon. There will be band concerts in three of the city parks.

At 8 o'clock a luncheon will be given at the Country club, and at 7:30 Elbel's band will give a concert at Leeper park. Richard Lieber, of Indianapolis, representing Gov. Goodrich, will give an address at 8:30. Mr. Lieber is chairman of the state conservation and state parks commission.

To Speak on Laws. The Monday morning session will open at 9:00. Dr. Lippincott giving the invocation. Mayor Carson will deliver an address of welcome, and Mayor Hodges of Gary will respond. Reports of officers, appointment of committees, and a round table discussion of park matters led by Richard Elbel, president of the local park board, will occupy the time until 11 o'clock, when George C. Dix of Terre Haute, chairman of the legislative committee, will give an address on "The Park Laws of 1917."

After luncheon, at the Oliver, J. H. Frost, former superintendent and forester of Chicago, will address an illustrated lecture on "The Park Commissioners' Duty Toward Civic Beautification," and Prof. C. F. Shantz, president of the Illinois Audubon society, will speak on "Birds, the Park Guardians."

At 2:45 o'clock, the final session of the convention will be held. The place of the next convention will be decided, committees will report, and officers for the coming year will be elected.

MUNICIPAL OUTING ON BOARDS TODAY

Picnic and Races, Followed by Dancing, to Take Place at Howard Park.

Feature attractions consisting of dancing, concerts by Elbel's band and motion pictures will mark the close of the "City Day" which is to be held Saturday evening at Howard park under the auspices of the municipal recreation committee. The program of field and water events will begin at 1 o'clock in the afternoon.

The program of events originally scheduled to take place last Saturday was postponed until today on account of rain. All activities in Howard park will cease at 10 o'clock. Following the afternoon of athletic and aquatic events, time will be allowed for a basket supper, after which the moving pictures will be presented, and dancing on the lawn, to the music of the band, will begin.

ASKS STATE TO GIVE BONUS TO SOLDIERS

A petition requesting a bonus of six months' pay be awarded by the state of Indiana to each honorably discharged soldier, sailor or marine who served in the recent war against Germany and her allies, is being circulated in South Bend among the men who have returned from service overseas and in this country.

The petition is addressed to Gov. James P. Goodrich, requesting the state executive to recommend to a special session of the legislature, if one is called this fall or later, or to the regular session in case no special session is called, such action as will enable the petitioners to get the bonus.

Form Post of Veterans of World War in South Bend

A provisional organization of world war veterans was established in South Bend Friday night at a meeting of ex-service men held in the Chamber of Commerce. The regular installation of officers and the routine connected with the establishment of a permanent organization was postponed until next Tuesday night, when another meeting will be held.

C. F. Seastrum, department inspector of the national council of world war veterans, was in charge of last night's meeting. Mr. Seastrum, who is well versed in the wants and needs of the ex-service men, outlined in detail a few of the prominent features of the organization of the local post.

He said that the national organization of world war veterans was established in France shortly after the armistice was signed and since
