TOM MILTON WINS ELGIN ROAD RACE

Series Second and Hitke Is Third in Seventh Renewal of Speed Tourney.

By Associated Press.
ELGIN, Ill., Aug. 23.—Tommy Milton, a veteran driver, won the seventh renewal of the Elgin road race at 301 miles today, covering the distance in 4:05:17 at an average speed of 73.5 miles per hour. For his victory Milton bagged $4,000 of the $10,000 prize money.

Roscoe Series was second, finishing nearly 25 miles behind the victor. Kurt Hitke, who started his last important race at the Indianapolis speedway this spring, piloted his car into third place, while Ralph Mulford, who was forced to "with-draw his own car in the 17th mile, pulled up in fourth place at the wheel of an old Ford's car.

Features Lacking.
The race was almost featureless and time was considered extremely slow. The event, however, drew a tremendous crowd, officials estimating that nearly 50,000 were about the 1.4 mile course, the attendance being the largest in the history of the event. Thirteen cars started, but six were withdrawn before the finish.

Only one accident marked the day, when Cliff Durant, millionaire California sportsman and son of Col. W. C. Durant, president of the General Motors Corporation was attempting to pass another car on the back stretch. Just as he pulled alongside, a rear wheel picked up a stone, which struck Durant above the temple, temporarily stunning him.

Knocks Over Poles.
Durant lost control of the car, which veered off the road while speeding 110 miles an hour, turned completely over three times and knocked down four telegraph poles in its plunge. It finally landed upside down. Spectators were amazed to see Durant and his mechanic, Fred Comer, crawl from the damaged car uninjured except for minor bruises.

Ty Cobb Leads A. L. Batters

CHICAGO, Aug. 23.—Eddie Murphy, the star pinch hitter of the Chicago White Sox, who had "de-livered" with regularity in the past few weeks, is topping the American league batters with a mark of .476, according to averages released today. However, he has participated in only 21 games. Harris of Cleveland in 28 games made an average of .402.

Ty Cobb, of Detroit, is the real leader, more than 100 points behind Eddie Murphy. The Detroit star has been knocking base blows consistently and has an average of .374 made in 90 games. Jacobson, of St. Louis, is the runner up to Cobb with .352.

George Sisler, star of the St. Louis club, is showing the way to the base stealers with 25 thefts, but is being pushed by Johnston of Cleveland and Hooper of Boston, who have pilfered 22 each. In addition to being the leading base stealer, Sisler is in front in total bases with a mark of .210, which is better than that of "Babe" Ruth of Boston, the slugging home-run king, who has a string of 19 homers to his credit. Ruth lacked on three circuit drives in the past week.

Other leading American league batters for 40 or more games: Veach, Detroit, .352; Sisler, St. Louis, .351; Beckinbaugh, New York, .329; Jackson, Chicago, .323; Heinman, Detroit, .328; Fawcett, New York, .325; Flagstead, Detroit, .317; Rice, Washington, .315; Gandil, Chicago, .314; Ruth, Boston, .312; Chapman, Cleveland, .312; Weaver, Chicago, .311; E. Collins, Chicago, .311.

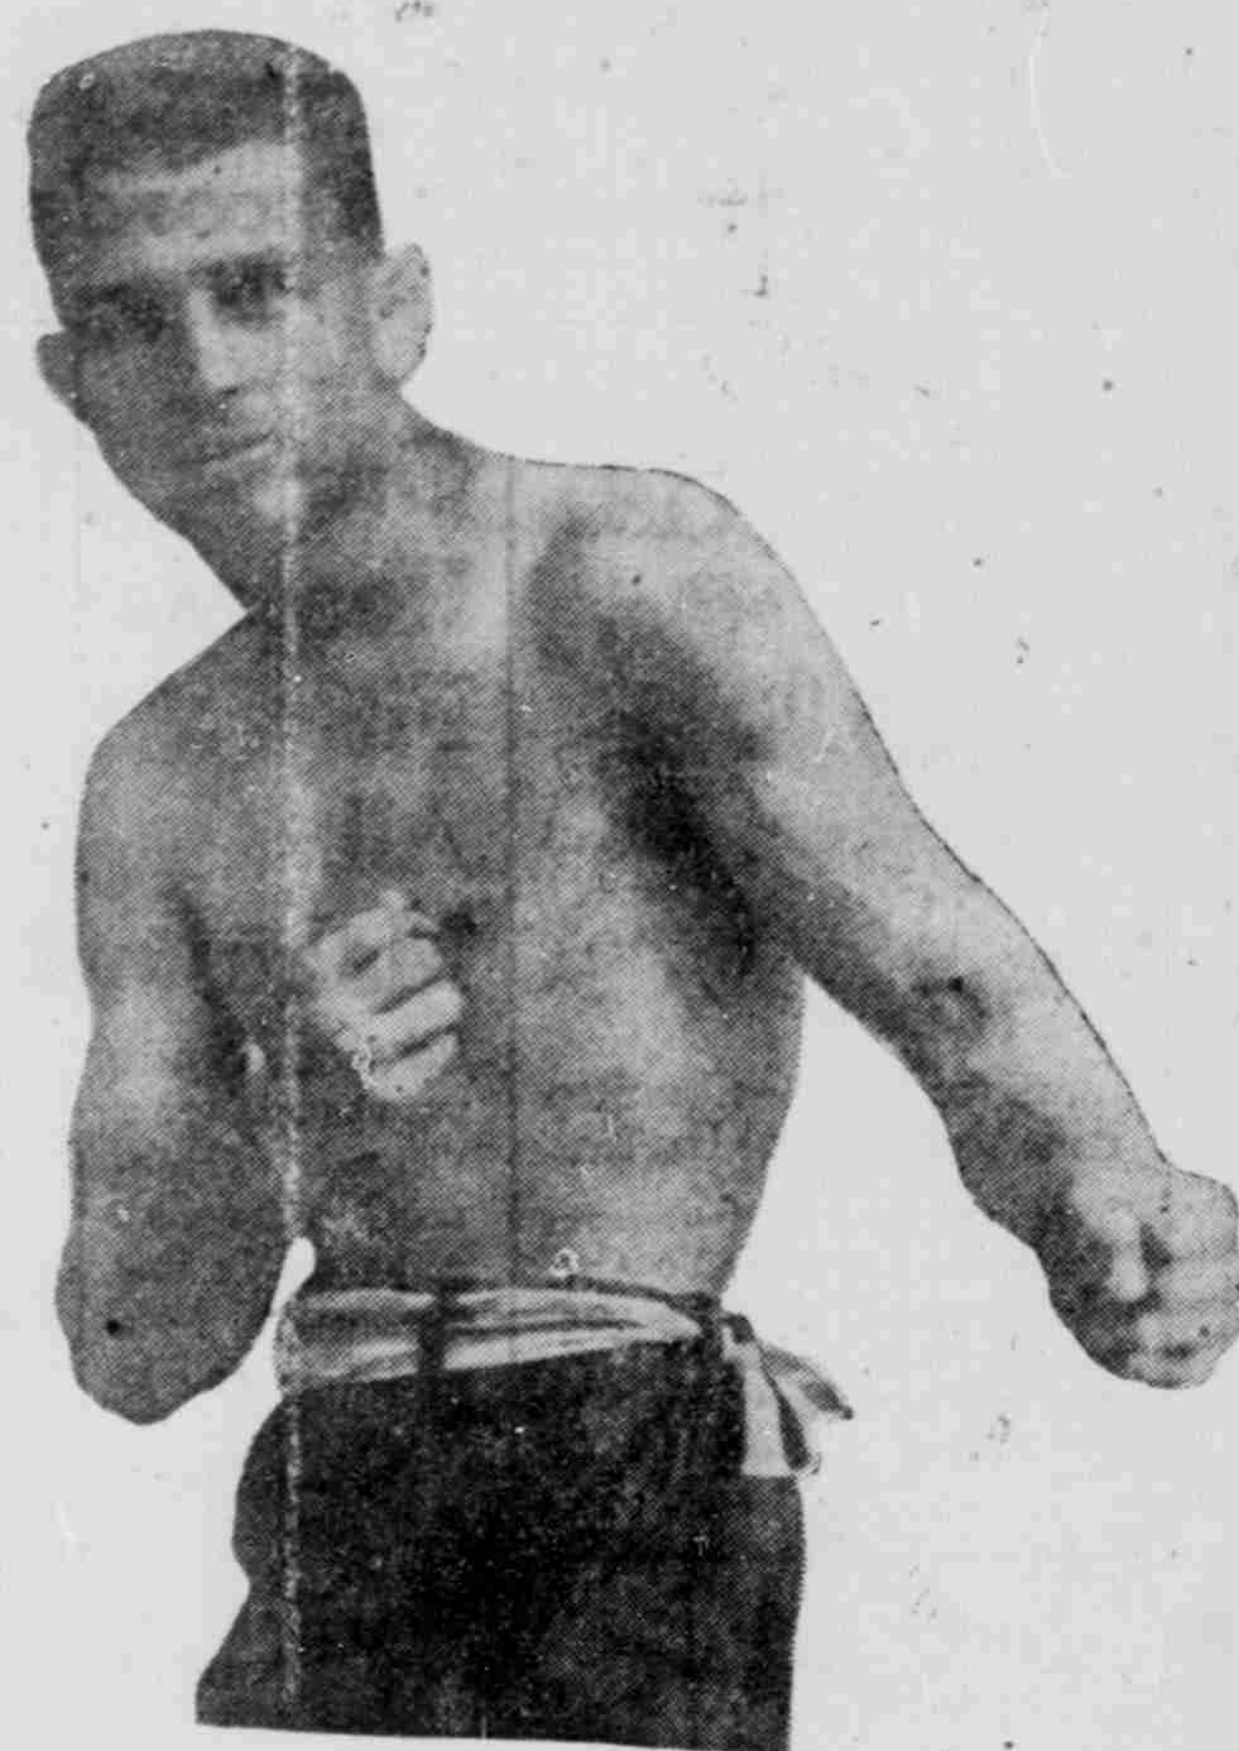

Max Carey, of Pittsburgh, had a week with the bat in the National league, and boosted his average over the .300 mark. Last week, the Pittsburgher was hitting at a .284 clip, and this week's averages show him to be batting .291, but Carey has played in only 31 games. Barber, of Chicago, also has been doing some timely hitting and is in fourth place with a mark of .315.

"Gavy" Cravath, the Philadelphia manager and leading home run hitter in the senior league, is topping the batters with .340. Jim Thorpe of Boston, is next with .336 and Roush of Cincinnati is in third place with .324. Cravath broke the tie for home run honors, which he shared with Kauff, New York, last week by cracking out a pair of circuit drives. He has eleven.

E. Wheat, of Brooklyn, continued to lead in total bases with 175. Cuthaw, of Pittsburgh, stole his 30th base during the week and is topping the base stealers.

Other leading hitters who participated in 40 or more National league games: Hornsby, St. Louis, .308; Stock, St. Louis, .303; McHenry, St. Louis, .306; Z. Wheat, Brooklyn, .305; Doyle, New York, .299; Luderus, Philadelphia, .299; Groh, Cincinnati, .298; Menzel, Philadelphia, .298.

He Fights Here Labor Day and Coogan of Brooklyn, who will meet Barney Adair at Springbrook park on Labor day. Although this is the first appearance of Coogan in the middle west, it is going to be a treat for fight fans to watch this boy work. Backed with a splendid record which is sprinkled with knockouts, he gives promise of annexing the lightweight crown as soon as he can force some of the present top notchers to recognize him.

George Biemer of Port Wayne, who handles Frankie Mason, wired in Saturday to Promoter Sworths congratulating him on securing the services of these two stars for the main bout.

A large delegation of Chicago fans, headed by Johnny Powers, manager of Coogan are coming to South Bend Labor day on a special train. It is probable that an Elkhart boy will be signed up for one of the preliminaries.

PLAYING INTO A WIND.
I always like to go out and practice into a wind, never practice down wind. It is easy for almost any one to get long distance with a wind behind him and what the ambitious golfer wants to do is to learn to apply his own strength in such a way that the ball is sent a long distance without any adventitious aid. No man can be considered a finished golfer until he is able to place his shots with the wind sweeping in a gale about him. On the British seaside courses the winds are terrific and that is why these courses have become famous as tests of the game, for the windier the course, other things being equal, the more testing it is.

It takes a very decided knack to send a little ball flying into a gale feeling reasonably sure that it will fall somewhere near a designated spot.

The professionals speak of hanging a ball up in the wind, and they do it in such a way that it is blown back and drops near the hole.

What the wind does to a golf ball that is sent into it makes a very interesting study, and getting a steady flight into the wind is a very hard thing. I have seen shots that to the uninitiated seemed miraculous on the British seaside courses where a wind was blowing so that one could hardly stand, and yet the tiny ball sailed straight and true to its destined place.

There is almost never a day on these courses when the wind does not blow, the only question is how much, or how little, and believe me it is usually a stinging blast.

A golfer must learn to think of a windy day as promising very interesting golf. Then, if ever, is the time to show a man's skill. When I say that I never practice down wind I mean that I never practice with a following wind, for there is no occasion in practice to deceive myself, for I know that with but a little aid from me the wind can carry my ball a long distance, and what I need is to learn to do that for myself. I do, however, play with a quivering wind, or with a wind coming a little from either side.

How to play into a wind demands an article in itself, and this will follow soon, but to do the subject justice one must be certain of its importance, and this is something that the inland player frequently finds hard to realize.

Questions and Answers.
It seems impossible for me to keep from driving my tee shots too high in the air. Can you make any suggestions that will help me?

ANSWER—If you are using a driver which has a proper slant in its face then it is likely that you are teeing your ball too high. This is a very common fault, and one which results not only in poor play with the driver but in unsatisfactory results with the brassy. Try a lower tee and see if you don't get better results.

Marines Give Capt. Collins
Great Ovation Before the Game Starts.

By Associated Press.
CHICAGO, Aug. 23.—Chicago made two vicious attacks against Shawkey today and easily defeated New York 10 to 2 in the first game of the series.

It was marine day and several thousand veterans from overseas witnessed the game as guests of Prest's Comiskey. Before the game a number of the fighters went to the white Sox bench and put Eddie Collins, who has enlisted in that branch of the service, on their shoulders and carried him about the field.

By Associated Press.
PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Aug. 23.—The largest crowd ever inside the local national league park, even at a world series game, saw Cincinnati win two games from Philadelphia eight to three and six to one in the first game Meadows blanked the visitors with three hits until the ninth when they tied the score on doubles by Groh and Roush, a pass to Neale and Meadows wild throw on Kopf's safe bunt, which allowed Roush and Neale to score. Subsequently two bases on balls and three hits ran the total to eight.

Cincinnati bunched hits off Cheney in the fourth inning of the second game following a rank miff by Luderus, scoring four runs and driving Cheney from the box. Pauliet's double, Kopf's fumble and Adams' sacrifice fly saved Philadelphia a shutout. Score:

SPECIALS BEAT SINGERS IN OPENING TITLE GAME

Members of the Jimmie & Goat Special baseball team defeated the Singer baseball crew Saturday afternoon, 5 to 0, at Singer park in the first of a three game series for the championship of South Bend. Weber, who did the hurling for the winners, allowed the Singer club but five hits which were kept well scattered. Although the Specials only garnered six hits they were able to connect in the pinches.

Four errors made by the losing club also figured in aiding in the Specials to cross the rubber. Martin and Young worked on the firing line for Singers with Baker at the receiving end, while Weber and Rostler were the batteries for the winners.

Trap Gun and Rod by Tom Marshall

A constellation of shooting stars! The thirtieth Grand American Handicap held on the grounds of the South Shore Country club in Chicago, August 11th-15th, 1919, is an event of the past, leaving a trail of shooting champions and a page of trapshooting history. Never was such shooting enthusiasm evinced on such galleries in attendance.

The spirit of patriotism was injected into the system of every contestant and spectator. Two hundred and fifty two thousand shots were fired during the week. When the accuracy of the contestants was noted, endorsed by the statement of Gen. Pershing, claiming that "shooting accuracy is 70 per cent soldier efficiency," to thinking people reasoning from cause to effect, trapshooting as a sport, should be encouraged and substantially endorsed by the general public in America, as is now being done by our "Canuck" neighbors, across the boundary, where cities are building shooting lodges in public parks, encouraging the sport patriotic, by very liberal municipal appropriations. The Grand American Handicap, is the premier shooting event of the world. A shoot for shooters. Where all local and state "crackerjack" shots' meet each year to try conclusions on elusive "tar-hawks." The finale of the shooting world, where "survival of the fittest" is the last word in the trap arena. Trapshooting is so varied in its different combinations, championships are many, yet all are distinctive to those versed in the art. When a line of sport attracts 846 entries, actual contestants, (not crack winners) hailing from every state in the Union, Canada and foreign countries, this is general endorsement of America's major sport. Trapshooting. The roster of 1919-1920 champions, include a number of high class men and women.

The Hercules Amateur All-Round Trophy shot on a combination of 200 targets, 50 at 18 yards, 50 at 20 yards, 50 at 22 yards and 25 pair of doubles, was won by Mark Arie of Thomasboro, Ill., breaking 195 targets.

The Hercules Open Trophy, shot under same conditions was won by Frank H. Troesh of Vancouver, Wash., with a score of 190.

The American Amateur 18-yard single target championship was won on a perfect score of 200 by Frank Troesh of Vancouver, Wash. The Professional 18-yard championship, was annexed by Bart Lewis of Auburn, Illinois, breaking 200 targets without a miss.

The East and West ten man team race between the different sections was won by the narrow margin of two birds on a thousand bird race. East 962, West 960.

The American Amateur Championship at 50 pair, double targets, was landed by Nick Arie of Houston, Texas, breaking 81 targets. A Junior Championship for boys under 18 years of age, was won by Master George B. Miller of Alabama, a ten-year-old wonder with a score of 49.

American Amateur Championship, 200 targets, sixteen yards rise, open to State champions only, was contested by 45 men representing their home states, this contest resulted in a tie on 193 birds, between Frank Wright of Buffalo, N. Y., R. B. Morgan, Washington, D. C., J. W. Akard, Fairplay, Missouri. Wright won in the shoot off, breaking 50 straight.

Classification shoot, divided into four classes, A, B, C, D, was a classification try out. Chauncey Powers of Decatur, Ill., won class A, with 100; Lieut. F. P. Williams, U. S. Navy, won class B, with 99; E. C. Wheeler, Pawhuska, Okla., class C, with 98; class D, was won by J. C. Harris, of Fairbury, Ill., with 95. The Veteran Championship was won by Andy Mayers of Madison, Wis., score 45.

Army-Navy and G. A. H. Championship, was won by Lieut. F. P. Williams, score 99. Woman's National Championship, was won by Mrs. A. H. Winkler of Chicago, with Mrs. C. E. Groat of Los Angeles, runner up.

The Grand American Handicap, World's premier event. Launched with 846 entries, was won by Mrs. G. W. Lorimer of Troy, Ohio, with a score of 98, after a shoot off with Ed Hellyer of Alexandria, Pa., and W. E. Gordon of Mobile, Ala., who tied in the main event. Mark Arie of Thomasboro, Ill., tied for second on 97. Mr. Moore winning in the shoot off. Thus passes into history the greatest shooting event ever staged in the world.
