CHICK EVANS AT CHAIN O' LAKES

SOUTH BEND COUNTRY club members were treated to a real exhibition of golf Sunday morning and afternoon when Charles "Chick" Evans and Frank Newton, national golf experts, traveled over the 18-hole course at the Chain-o'-Lakes club. Evans and Fred Cunningham, local golfer, were matched against Newton and Bert Myerling, professional of the local club.

Evans, with his steady and consistent play, coupled with Cunningham's extraordinary playing, managed to beat their opponents with a one-up score. Evans bettered his records made at the local club last year, when he appeared in an exhibition match for the benefit of the Red Cross, by three points. It took 76 strokes for the noted golfer to complete the course last year while yesterday he turned in a 73 score.

Evans and Newton stopped off in South Bend to visit Mr. Cunningham.
They have just returned from the national golf tournament, which was staged at the Oakmount Country club at Pittsburgh last week.
Both Evans and Newton started their way into the semi-finals of this tournament.
