

Thrilling Play Feature Of National Tennis Tournament

EIGHT PLAYERS STILL IN BATTLE

Three Past and Two Present American Champions Included in List.

FORREST HILLS, N. Y., Aug. 30.—At the close of a day filled with thrilling tennis, the fourth round of the 38th national singles tournament found eight players still in the battle for the 1919 title. So clearly did class tell that the double quartette contains three past and the two present American champions, as well as the famous Australian veteran, Norman E. Brookes. He was the sole survivor of the four Americans who entered the play which began here last Tuesday.

The leading star of the Australian combination, Gerald L. Patterson, went down to defeat at the hands of William M. Johnston, San Francisco, but not until he had electrified a gallery of 5,000 spectators by the gameness and brilliancy of his tennis battle which finally went to the 1915 champion by a five set score of 6-2, 3-6, 6-4, 4-6, 7-5.

Johnston-Patterson Play. While other matches of the afternoon developed excellent examples of the turf court game, the Johnston-Patterson contest was the premier feature and it is doubtful if this historic strip of grass ever held a more exciting combat unless it was the famous battle between Brookes and McLaughlin in the Davis cup matches in 1914.

Charles S. Garland, of Pittsburgh, started his match against Brookes, as though he, too, intended to eliminate the most famous of all Australian players. Winning the first two sets at 6-1 and 6-2 by steady and consistent tennis, he found that his opponent, despite his 40 odd years of age, was not to be thrown off his game by the attack and fell before Brookes' final three sets by scores of 6-1, 6-2, 7-5.

The match was not as thrilling as the Johnston-Patterson contest, which ended with a demonstration by the gallery in which hat and cushion throwing, continuous cheering and congratulations formed a conspicuous part of the celebration.

More Stars Out. The fourth round also marked the passing of Ichiro Kumazae, the Japanese falling before William T. Tilden II, of Philadelphia, by scores of 6-4, 6-1, 1-6, 4-6, 6-2.

On the outside courts, R. Norris Williams II, of Boston, defeated R. W. Thomas, of Australia, 4-6, 6-4, 6-0, 7-5, in a match which did not show him to the same advantage as his contests against Richards and Willis Davis. Maurice E. McLaughlin, of Los Angeles, also moved forward, defeating Perry L. Kynaston, of Rockville Center, L. I., 6-2, 6-2, 8-6, without being extended to the limit of his tennis powers.

R. Lindley Murray, Niagara Falls, the present champion, won from Conrad B. Doyle, Washington, 6-2, 6-2, 6-3, in a match which was closer and filled with tennis of a caliber not indicated by the score. Other winners of the day included Wallace E. Johnston, of Philadelphia, who defeated N. W. Niles, Boston, 4-6, 6-4, 6-2, 6-1, and Walter Merrill Hall, of New York, who won from T. R. Pell, New York, 6-1, 9-7, 6-6, 6-3.

PHILLIES AND BRAVES DIVIDE MATINEE GAMES

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 30.—Philadelphia and Boston Friday divided the first of their two double headers, the locals winning the first game in the 12th inning, 4 to 3, and losing the second, 6 to 4. Callahan's single won the first game after Paulette's double. Truesner's safe hunt, and an intentional base to pinch hitter Cravath had filled the bases.

The first four Boston batters hit safely against Cantwell, who made his first big league start in the second game. After that he pitched fairly well, until the closing innings, when he weakened.

Mel Coogan Arrives Here; Ready for Monday's Battle

Will Take Light Workout at Central Fire Station Gymnasium.

Mel Coogan, contender for the lightweight crown, lately discharged from the navy, arrived in South Bend Friday night with his manager, Scotty Monteth. He declared that he was in fine condition and ready for the battle of his career next Monday. This afternoon at 2:30 he will take a light workout in the gymnasium of the Central fire station where he will spar three rounds with one of the local boxers. He will limber up Sunday afternoon at the same place, but will confine his exercises to shadow boxing and skipping the rope.

Mel has taken part in 200 battles and has won more referee's decisions than any other lightweight in the game. He has won 56 decisions where the referee had the legal authority to give one.

Among some of the better known lightweight over whom he has earned decisions are Johnny Kilbane, Frankie Dundee, Ritchie Mitchell, Frankie Callahan, Eddie Wallace.

He served 18 months in the navy and only recently received his honorable discharge. He is a legitimate lightweight, always weighing within a pound or two of 132, never over the limit.

Mel has a high opinion of the prowess of Barney Adair who has been going great guns of late, and winning most of his bouts via the K. O. route.

When these boys meet Labor day at Springbrook park, fight fans are bound to get a real thrill. The first bout will start at 8 o'clock, and all the bouts will be run off whether it rains or whether it shines. A canvas 60x10 covers the ring, and most of the spectators will be housed in the grandstand. If the seats are all sold, the management will sell standing room at fifty cents a head.

Adair is expected to arrive some time Sunday.

ERRORS MAR GAME AS PIRATES WIN

Sheredel and Miller Both Pitch Good Ball—Score 5 to 3.

PITTSBURG, Aug. 30.—Pittsburg defeated St. Louis Friday by a score of 5 to 3 in a loosely played game. Sheredel and Miller both pitched well, but errors behind them were the cause of most of the runs. Sheredel was responsible for one run and J. Miller's misplay for another.

Caray dropped fly ball that let a runner get to third, followed by Higbee's muffed of a fly from the next batsman. Miller passed two men in the first inning and they both scored on sacrifice hits and a single. Score: ST. LOUIS—AB. R. H. O. A. Schulte, rf, 4 0 0 0 0 0. Heatheote, cf, 3 1 1 0 0 0. WOMEN GOLFERS REACH FINALS

Former Champion Struggles to Regain Title of Three Years Ago.

DETROIT, Aug. 30.—Mrs. F. C. Letts, Chicago, champion of the Women's Western Golf association in 1916 and 1917, will strive to regain the title Saturday when she plays Mrs. Perry Fisk, Dekalb, Ill., in the final of the western at the Detroit Golf club.

Mrs. Letts and Mrs. Fisk became finalists by scoring one-sided victories today over Miss Dorothy Higbie, Chicago, and Mrs. Harold Foreman, Chicago, respectively, in the 18 holes semi-finals. Both matches ended on the 13th green, six and five, the Letts-Higbie contest, when Mrs. Letts won the hole with a 25 foot putt and the other when the hole was halved in five.

Although the weather was the best of the week, the playing was far below the average. Effective putting by the winners were the only redeeming features. It was in these departments that both of the matches were decided, both Mrs. Foreman and Miss Higbie tossing away holes repeatedly by poor short work.
