RUNAWAY GIRLS ARE FOUND AND RETURNED TO HOME IN BREMEN

Gladys Lucille Smith, 15, and Orlean Brechtel, 14, both of Bremen, eloped with two young men Friday morning and were captured in a rooming house on S. Main st. during the evening. Shortly after their disappearance their parents notified the local police, who got busy on the job, finding the girls in the rooming house.

Word was sent to Bremen, and Charles Smith and O. H. Brechtel, fathers of the girls, came to Mishawaka and took their daughters home. Charges of kidnapping were filed against the men but the parents of the girls decided not to prosecute.
