RAIL STRIKE
CRISIS OVER
LEADERS SAY

Brotherhood Officials Claim
Situation is Steadily
Improving.

BREAK AT COLUMBUS

Committees Representing the Strikers Urging Individual
Men to Return.

By Associated Press:
CHICAGO, April 11.—While officers of the railroad brotherhoods, who united with railroad heads to break the unauthorized strike of switchmen, which started in the Chicago terminal district, announced Sunday night, that the situation was steadily improving and that the crisis of the walkout was past, John Grunau, president of the Chicago Yardmen's association, who called the strike declared "the situation is unchanged."

The largest break among the strikers was at Columbus, Ohio, where 500 switchmen voted to return.

Situation Improved.
"The situation in the Chicago district was distinctly improved, Sunday night," S. E. Heberling, president of the Switchmen's Union of North America, said. "More men are returning to work and we look for an early return to normal conditions."

Mr. Heberling said that brotherhood leaders were meeting with delegations of strikers in an effort to end the walkout and that satisfactory progress was being made. Union heads are confident that if the walkout is broken in Chicago it will mean the collapse of the strike movement which has spread to many parts of the country.

It was reported that several committees representing the strikers were canvassing the industrial workers and delivering instructions to return to work.

Predicts Success.
At an open meeting of the strikers, John Grunau, leader of the insurgent element predicted success for the walkout.

"We are going to win," he said. "No one can stop us. We have reports have been received from all parts of the country that traffic is tied up. I have such telegrams and letters from St. Louis, Kansas City, Columbus, Cleveland, Detroit, San Francisco, San Antonio and other rail centers. Many of their communications report that more men are going on strike."

No Basis for Rumors.
"There is no basis for rumors that we are going back. I have asked no parley with the other side. There have been no withdrawals from the strike. The demands we have made are not unreasonable. For years the living costs have been advancing and the wages of other workers have risen, too, but we have not received enough to live on. When we decide to ask for $1 an hour for men and 95 cents an hour for switchmen we pared the demands as low as we could."

"There is talk of the government taking a hand. If I have to go to prison for anything I have done, it will be for action in a righteous cause. I do not see how they could put me in prison, though I have ordered you out and have no power to order you back. You simply left your jobs because you were not getting enough to live on."

Grunau warned the men to avoid violence, other speakers also urged peaceful methods.

PALMER TO ACT

WASHINGTON, April 11.—Att'y Gen. Palmer will take up the question of governmental action in the so-called "outlaw" railroad strike immediately upon his return to Washington, Monday. Officials of the department of justice were busy Sunday, assembling detailed reports gathered by telephone and telegraph from all important strike centers, preparatory to laying the whole controversy before their chief.

Officials would disclose only the general trend of the reports, said to show an "extremely serious" situation. Pending Mr. Palmer's return.

GREAT BRITAIN FAVORS
MANDATE FOR ARMENIA

By Associated Press:

PARIS, April 11.—The fourth public sitting of the council of the League of Nations took place Sunday afternoon in the Luxembourg palace. Leon Bourgeois, president of the French Association of Society of Nations presided.

Herbert L. Fisher, minister of education, representing Great Britain, read a report on the Armenian situation, advocating the examination of a state of Armenia on a free and independent basis. The best means for reaching such a solution, the report said, was the acceptance of the mandate for Armenia by some state under the League of Nations. As to what state would be willing to accept this responsibility would de-

Huns Will Not Surrender to French Troops

By Associated Press:
MUNICH, Bavaria, April 10.—Bavarian citizen guards will not surrender their arms, and declare if the French wish to disarm them they must come here and do it. "We will not surrender our rifles, not even to the devil," asserted Lieut. Col. Woerner at a meeting of the guards here today.

Other speakers, among them a lieutenant-general, seconded Woerner's statement declaring the dissolution of the citizen guards would be "equivalent to suicide." Dr. Von Kahr, president of Bavarian ministry declared there could be no suggestion as far as he was concerned, and that he would stand or fall on the issue of dissolving the guard as is demanded by the inter-allied control commission. He has directed the Bavarian minister of commerce, as said, to inform Berlin that Bavaria purports to assert her rights even at the cost of a break with the central government.

WILL SHIFT FIGHT
ON PEACE MEASURE TO SENATE TODAY

Resolution Will Be Transmitted to Committee on Foreign Relations.

By Associated Press:
WASHINGTON, April 11.—The fight over the republican resolution to establish peace with Germany without ratification of the treaty of Versailles adopted last week by the house, shifts, Monday, to the senate with the prospect of indefinite delay. The vote in the house was 442 to 159, and the resolution to be transmitted formally to the senate, Monday, for reference to the foreign relations committee.

Sen. Lodge, Massachusetts, chairman of the republican leader, plans to bring the resolution before the committee probably on Wednesday. Action before next week, however, was expected.

Revision Expected.

Considerable revision of the resolution is expected. Several influential republican senators favor modifications. The measure may be limited to a simple declaration terminating the war, although a statement of American policy is favored in some quarters on the republican side.

Senate republicans are expected to show practically a solid support for the resolution as it comes from committee, leaders said.

The Democrats' Administration

spokesmen said, were certain to be solid in opposition.

Senate Leading Fight.

Sen. Hitchcock, of Nebraska, the administration leader in the treaty fight was enroute, Sunday night, to Nebraska for the presidential primary campaign. Before leaving, he said he expected no action by the foreign relations committee until he returned. He also predicted a long fight in the senate over the peace treaty resolution and was hopeful of some republican votes against it.

Some senators said they would not be surprised if the president returned to the treaty to the senate during debate on the peace resolution which now appears likely to continue indefinitely. Republican leaders are planning to avoid interference with the remaining appropriation bills, giving them the right-of-way as they become ready. They hope, however, to clear up all pressing business, including the peace measure, before the recess adjourns about June 1, for the political conventions.

IDENTIFY BODY OF MAN FOUND SATURDAY
VICTIM OF AUTOIST

The body of George E. Martin, 323 S. 11th st., River Park, who was killed by an automobile on Mishawaka av. Saturday night, was identified Sunday by relatives. No trace of the parties involved or how the accident occurred has yet been found, according to police reports.

The deceased moved to South Bend from Michigan in June, 1919. He is survived by a son and daughter.

Crowded Tabernacle Greets Evangelist

"The most wonderful spirit of cooperation in the cause of Jesus Christ I have seen in years of travel," spoke Bob Jones as he gazed over the sea of 5,000 faces which greeted him as he stepped to the platform at the tabernacle Sunday evening. A crowd equally as large attended the dedicatory services Sunday morning.

"The zealous manner in which they have entered into the work today and the reports I have had from the ministers and workers who preceded me convinces me that my belief in the people is well founded," he said.

"But the first Monday, in the case of every city, is the test night—a crowd such as this tomorrow will assure the success of our work. If you wish for that success, if you want to see this city stirred to its very depths, be here tomorrow night."

Mr. Jones flatly denied the rumors that the evangelistic party was to receive any part of the collections made during the early weeks of the campaign. "Such rumors, circulated by scandal-mongers, precede such parties everywhere," he declared. "I receive not one cent from this collection, all of which goes to meet the expenses of erecting the tabernacle and advertising. When these expenses are paid the collections cease until the final night, when a collection to meet my personal expenses will be taken."

Charges Former Publicity Head
With Connivance

By Associated Press:
WASHINGTON, April 11.—Legal proceedings by the government against George Creel, former chairman of the committee on public information; Roger W. Babson, of Wellesley Mills, Mass., and others concerned in the transfer of the committee's war publication, the Official Bulletin, to Babson are recommended in a report made public Sunday by Sen. Smoot, republican, Utah, chairman, and Rep. Kiess, republican, vice chairman of the joint congressional printing committee.

The report charges that Babson obtained the "Bulletin" in March, 1919, by "secret connivance" with Creel and others "without the government receiving a cent in compensation," and urges that suit be brought to obtain "just compensation" for the government.

Few Candidates.

As a rule, there have been very few actual candidates, announced candidates for the vice presidential nomination until the parties have met in national convention. It has been the practice to settle who is to be the head of the ticket, and to cast around for the most available man who was willing to take the tail end nomination.

This year, according to the best advice here, the man selected for the vice presidential nomination, must be a real power, capable of adding the ticket. Three principal points which will be taken into consideration in the selection of the republican nominee for vice president are (1) that the candidate must be a good campaigner, (2) that he must be geographically "right," that is, if the head of the ticket is from the east, then the vice presidential nominee must be from the west, or vice versa, (3) that he must represent in a measure at least, that wing of the party which is represented by the head of the ticket. In the selection of a democratic nominee for vice president, the first two points will be considered.

West Insists.

The west, that is the part of the country lying west of the Mississippi is going to insist upon a representation on the national tickets this year as never before. Any republican will tell you that if Hiram Johnson of California had been nominated four years ago as vice president on the ticket with Hughes, Hughes would have been in the white house today.

And now Hiram Johnson is himself an aggressive candidate for the nomination. If he is nominated, who will be his running mate? Sen. Harding of Ohio, perhaps, or Gov. Coolidge of Massachusetts. Either

VICE PRESIDENT
NOW CONSIDERED
IMPORTANT POST

Various Combinations of Men
Talked of for Leadership of Nation.

By W. S. MAXX.
(Copyright 1920.)

WASHINGTON, April 11.—Every presidential kite launched at the national conventions of the republican and democratic parties must have a tail. Until recently the politicians have been so much occupied with the kite end of the tickets they have apparently forgotten the tail end entirely. Nevertheless, there is a very honorable and—at times—important job here in the capital that must be filled as well as the presidency—the job of vice president.

Within the last few days various combinations, both for the republican and the democratic tickets, have been discussed here, in a quiet way the process has begun of feeling out some of the presidential candidates themselves, to ascertain whether they would be willing, if not nominated themselves, to take the second place tickets.

LABOR PARTY IN FIRST MEETING

National Secretary Speaks to Party Members at Central Hall.

Organizers of the new labor party held their first meeting in South Bend at Central Union Labor hall, 313 S. Michigan st., Sunday afternoon. About 350 persons were in attendance.

Addresses were made by Frank J. Esport, national secretary of the labor party, and Francis J. Dillon, state chairman of the party in Indiana. The talk of Mr. Esport was on party organization and the difficulties encountered in setting up the party in that city. Similar statements were received from men representing Indianapolis and other downstate cities.

State of Sonora
Will Return to Old Government

By Associated Press:
NOGALES, Sonora, April 11.—Sonora state officials, headed by Gov. Adolfo de la Huerta, of Sonora, who has been proclaimed "supreme power of the republic of Sonora" by the state congress, declared Sunday while the state had seceded it would return to the Mexican republic upon guarantees from the national administration that there would be no infringement of the state's rights by the federal government.

The secession, according to the officials, was brought about by Carranza ordering federal troops into the state. They said the next move was up to Carranza. Unless he acted, political leaders of Sonora said, the new republic would defy the Mexican federal government and resist with armed forces any attempt of Carranza to take back the state by force.

Gen. P. Elias Calles, former governor of Sonora, and who recently resigned from the Carranza cabinet, has been made supreme military commander of the state's military forces. Calles has issued a proclamation calling for volunteers and calling on all soldiers in the state to rally against any threatened invasion by Carranza forces.

HOLD DEDICATORY
SERVICES SUNDAY
AT LOCAL CHURCH

First Church of Christ, Scientist, Holds Impressive Ceremony.

Dedicatory services for the First Church of Christ Scientist at N. Main and Madison sts., were held Sunday morning. Services were pronounced by readers of the church at 11 o'clock Sunday morning and 7:30 o'clock in the evening.

"That the church is now free from debt is due to the generosity of J. M. Studabaker, Jr. He made the donation which freed the church from debt, having made in it membership of his sister, Lillian, scientist, and his father who was also interested in the subject. Many other donations were received from members of the church.

The historical sketch read at the services in part, follows: Upon this occasion it is not our purpose to give a detailed history of the growth of the Christian Science movement in this community, but it may be profitable to pause at this milestone in our progress and cast a glance backward to review our blessings.

MINERS ARE PLEASED WITH STATEMENT MADE
BY COAL COMMISSION

By Associated Press:
INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., April 11.—Gratification was expressed at the headquarters of the United Mine Workers of America here tonight, over the statement issued by the bituminous coal commission at Washington in regard to profiteering in coal prices, in which the commission said present prices of bituminous coal "were inexcusable" and not justified by the advance in wages which the commission granted the miners.

"The statement of the commission fully sustains the position of the United Mine Workers that the increase in wages is not responsible for the high coal prices," said Ellis Sanders, editor of the United Mine Workers Journal. "Immediately after the new wage agreement was signed in New York statements were given to the public showing that the miners could not be held responsible for more than forty to fifty cents increase in the price of coal and any increase above those figures would be profiteering on the part of some one. Since then the attorney general has acknowledged the correctness of the miners' statement and now the commission, after a thorough investigation of all the facts, also says the miners are right."

"What we strive to do by following these words is to paint the picture of God on our faces, through our thoughts, and to do this we must invite Jesus into our hearts. When you get Jesus into your heart and seal his picture you will reveal the spirit of Jesus to others and you will see him yourself as you lift him before the world. That is what was meant in these words, 'Blessed are the pure of heart for they shall see God.'"

"And remember that impressions are made to stay on the human countenance. In later life you can get away from the sins of youth. Your thoughts are indelibly marked. Every act is a word. 'Blessed' is a scar left by sin, by impure thoughts and desires that have led to impure acts."

Overflow Throng Gathers

Opening a Success.

CHOIR OF 600 VOICES

Using Simple Language, Great
Preacher Makes Favorable Impression.

Today Sunday the people of South Bend filled to overflowing the namoth tabernacle on the river front in welcoming Bob Jones, world famous evangelist to the "City of World Fame." A crowd of 2,000 greeted him at the dedicatory services Sunday morning. A throng with filled the tabernacle and massed in the outside area as far as the center st. entrance gathered Sunday evening to hear him in the actual opening of a six weeks' campaign such as has carried his name and doctrine to coast-to-coast fame in the larger centers.

Mr. Jones did not disappoint even his most ardent admirers. His fervently conscientious spirit and his dynamically vigorous style of address held his congregation from the opening sentence. Plain of speech and setting his talk in the simplest of language he brought out his points with a clearness and force which none could misinterpret.

Group Contests.

The features of the vocal program were the group contests in which the choir, the congregation and the members of the Ministerial association, grouped in a special reserved section of the platform, vied. Two pretty little girls coaxed to the platform by Mr. Jones loaned a charming contrast to the program as their childish voices rang out on the chords of the hymn just concluded by the men of the congregation. A solo by Dr. Jones was an added feature of the program.

"Blessed are the pure of heart for they shall see God," taken from the Beatitudes, eighth verse, fifth chapter of Matthew was taken as the text for the opening sermon. Mr. Jones attacked the subject in his intensely vigorous style which held his auditors from the onset.

Picture of God.

"What we strive to do by following these words is to paint the picture of God on our faces, through our thoughts, and to do this we must invite Jesus into our hearts. When you get Jesus into your heart and seal his picture you will reveal the spirit of Jesus to others and you will see him yourself as you lift him before the world. "And remember that impressions are made to stay on the human countenance. In later life you can get away from the sins of youth. Your thoughts are indelibly marked. Every act is a word. 'Blessed' is a scar left by sin, by impure thoughts and desires that have led to impure acts."

Written on Faces.

"If I could see that picture that that young man in the audience has concealed on his person, if I could go through your library and see the books you read I could tell you what you are and tell you your chance to see God. Your chance is written on your face."

"The vilest snifter that ever existed"
