

NEWS FROM NEARBY COMMUNITIES

BUCHANAN

April 14.
Phil Landsman was out of town one day last week.

Believes here have received word from A. C. Weaver that he had arrived safely in Laramie, Wyo. Mr. Weaver has gone west for an indefinite stay, hoping that his health may be benefited by the change of climate.

Five members from the class of 1913 of Buchanan high school met at the home of Mrs. William Kohlman Friday evening for a pot luck supper.

Mr. and Mrs. Jay Rhoades were tendered a reception at the home of Mrs. Harry Edmonds at Lakeside on Saturday evening. Mrs. Harry Edmonds and Mrs. Edmond Edmonds were the hostesses. There were 75 guests present.

Mrs. Chester Sinnott was a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Willard in South Bend over Sunday.

Mrs. R. C. Stevens of New Buffalo spent the week end with her daughter, Mrs. N. J. Schram.

Miss Florence Keller, who is teaching in the Battle Creek schools this year, returned there Sunday night after spending a week at home.

Mrs. C. D. Arnold is doing nicely after her operation for appendicitis. Ira Cook of Cleveland, O., was a guest of Miss True Trueman over Sunday.

Mrs. Carrie Dickinson spent Sunday with her sister, Miss Ida Curtis, in Niles.

Mrs. W. E. Sanders of South Bend came today for a few days' visit with her sister, Mrs. H. O. Weaver.

Fred Walters is seriously ill and it is hoped that he will soon be on the road to recovery.

Mrs. M. L. Hanlin was in South Bend one day this week.

Mrs. M. Lundgreen, Mrs. D. C. Lundgreen and Mrs. C. E. Lydick entertained at cards Monday evening.

Phil Paden and D. Pears were out of town Sunday evening.

GRAND VIEW

Mr. and Mrs. John Melbur who have recently returned from Florida and Mr. and Mrs. Otto Miniz and children of South Bend, were Sunday guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Hostedler.

Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Ransbottom of Osceola visited Wednesday with relatives at this place.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Krill and Mr. and Mrs. Noah Krill spent Easter Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. A. Andrews of Lapaz.

Mrs. T. E. Jowers of Cambridge City, Ind., has been visiting the past ten days with her son, Ian Ewers and family.

Mrs. Edward Wilson spent Friday with Mrs. Ella Hill of South Bend.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Sisk and children have returned to their home after spending the past week with her parents Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Jones of Donaldson, Ind.

Mrs. Frank Coder and son Harry of South Bend visited Tuesday with Mr. and Mrs. Charles Berry.

The S. S. C. E. met last Wednesday with Mrs. Claud O'Donnell of Ardmore. Officers for the coming year were elected as follows: President, Mrs. Glen Carpenter; vice president, Mrs. Clyde Galeener; secretary, Mrs. Charles Matteson; treasurer, Mrs. Frank Krill. They will have a party sale Saturday, April 17, at the Piggly-Wiggly store on S. Michigan st., South Bend.

Mrs. Charles Groves and son Joseph spent Tuesday with Mr. Groves' mother of South Bend.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Galeener spent the week end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Galeener of South Bend.

Miss Mildred Runyan was a Sunday guest at the home of Mrs. Dorothy Stroup of Lydick, Ind.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Krill and son Nicholas visited Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Caleb Smith of South Bend.

Miss Berude Riffert of Lydick, and Miss Hazel Cabana of Ardmore were the guests of Miss Loretta Hostedler Sunday.

W. O. Sisk and family and Ian Ewers and family spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ransbottom of near Osceola.

OLIVE CHAPEL

April 15.
Mr. Chard of South Bend delivered a very interesting address on Sunday School work at the church Sunday at 10 o'clock.

Little Warren Hooten sang a solo at church Sunday evening.

The Ladies Aid Society had an all day meeting at the home of Mrs. Oscar Hooten Thursday April 15.

The "Nips" and "Tucks" of the Sunday school gave a very interesting Debate Sunday evening. The subject was "Resolve that the Sunday School is a better uplift to Christian Character and the moral standard of humanity than the church." The negative won by two votes.

Miss Ruth Norris is ill with mumps.

Mr. and Mrs. Harlen Bennett of Hudson, Florence Cart, Flossie Jones, Etna Wilson and Robert Hate of Elkhart, Ind., and John Wesley and Jobe Clayton Smith of Terre Coupe, Ind., were Sunday guests of Mrs. J. C. Smith and family.

Rev. Fred Steward and Mitch Rodgers attended a religious meeting in South Bend Thursday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. George Depey and children were Sunday visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Will Hooten.

Mr. and Mrs. Webster Carr and Mrs. Gusta Bennett were the Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Rodgers.

Miss Helen Roloff of South Bend visited Mr. and Mrs. Nell Wade over Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. William McMinis and daughter, of Elkhart, Ind., were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. George Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. George Jones, attended a birthday dinner given Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Clark at New Carlisle, Ind.

SOUTH WARREN

April 12.
Mrs. Sarah Sheddick is visiting with her daughter, Mrs. E. W. Smith at Fisher.

Mrs. Montgomery Hollingshead and daughter Alma, spent Sunday with Mrs. Ella Van Ruskirk.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Walters and children of near Terre Coupe spent Saturday night with Mr. and Mrs. Newton Walters.

Mrs. Edward Rajski spent Saturday at South Bend.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Sczypiorski and family of Five Points, were guests of the former's parents at this place Sunday.

and Mr. and Mrs. Newton Walters spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. E. Rajski.

Mrs. V. Wells and children of Chain Lakes spent Saturday and Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. John Wedel.

Miss Hazel Mann visited with her mother, Mrs. Mann at Osceola over Sunday.

Rev. W. Kiriz, of Goshen, and Miss Leah Davis, of Oak Grove were guests at the C. O. Stroup home Sunday.

The school at this place will be closed Friday April 24, with a picnic dinner given at the noon hour of the scholars and patrons.

Miss Vada Wells of Chain Lakes spent several days with her grandparents Mr. and Mrs. W. Wells, last week.

Mrs. Margaret Morse, of Lydick, arrived Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Newton Walters where she will make her future home.

Mr. C. O. Stroup spent Monday at Fisher.

Mr. and Mrs. John Wedel and family visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. Roberts at Mishawaka Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Stroup and son Howard visited with friends at Fairview Friday evening.

A plan for a federal department of advertising, presented in the form of a proposed bill creating it, will be offered at the Indianapolis convention of the Associated Advertising clubs, June 6 to 10, the program committee announces.

CHARGES HUSBAND
BEAT HER WHILE HE WAS INTOXICATED

Mrs. Sylvia Kohl, 709 E. Keasey st., Thursday morning filed an affidavit against her husband, Ernest Kohl, charging him with assault and battery. Mrs. Kohl told Deputy Pros. George A. Schock Thursday that her husband makes wine at his home, and that Wednesday night he was intoxicated and that while in that condition, he beat her and cut her with a pocket knife, after attempting to attack her with a butcher knife.

Kohl was arrested by the police Wednesday night, and was locked up at police headquarters. Thursday morning Kohl's case was set down for a hearing for Friday morning.

Mrs. Margaret Morse, of Lydick, arrived Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Newton Walters where she will make her future home.

Mr. C. O. Stroup spent Monday at Fisher.

Mr. and Mrs. John Wedel and family visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. Roberts at Mishawaka Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Stroup and son Howard visited with friends at Fairview Friday evening.

A plan for a federal department of advertising, presented in the form of a proposed bill creating it, will be offered at the Indianapolis convention of the Associated Advertising clubs, June 6 to 10, the program committee announces.

Mrs. Sylvia Kohl, 709 E. Keasey st., Thursday morning filed an affidavit against her husband, Ernest Kohl, charging him with assault and battery. Mrs. Kohl told Deputy Pros. George A. Schock Thursday that her husband makes wine at his home, and that Wednesday night he was intoxicated and that while in that condition, he beat her and cut her with a pocket knife, after attempting to attack her with a butcher knife.

Kohl was arrested by the police Wednesday night, and was locked up at police headquarters. Thursday morning Kohl's case was set down for a hearing for Friday morning.

Mrs. Margaret Morse, of Lydick, arrived Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Newton Walters where she will make her future home.

Mr. C. O. Stroup spent Monday at Fisher.

Mr. and Mrs. John Wedel and family visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. Roberts at Mishawaka Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Stroup and son Howard visited with friends at Fairview Friday evening.

A plan for a federal department of advertising, presented in the form of a proposed bill creating it, will be offered at the Indianapolis convention of the Associated Advertising clubs, June 6 to 10, the program committee announces.

Mrs. Sylvia Kohl, 709 E. Keasey st., Thursday morning filed an affidavit against her husband, Ernest Kohl, charging him with assault and battery. Mrs. Kohl told Deputy Pros. George A. Schock Thursday that her husband makes wine at his home, and that Wednesday night he was intoxicated and that while in that condition, he beat her and cut her with a pocket knife, after attempting to attack her with a butcher knife.

Kohl was arrested by the police Wednesday night, and was locked up at police headquarters. Thursday morning Kohl's case was set down for a hearing for Friday morning.

Mrs. Margaret Morse, of Lydick, arrived Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Newton Walters where she will make her future home.

Mr. C. O. Stroup spent Monday at Fisher.

Mr. and Mrs. John Wedel and family visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. Roberts at Mishawaka Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Stroup and son Howard visited with friends at Fairview Friday evening.

A plan for a federal department of advertising, presented in the form of a proposed bill creating it, will be offered at the Indianapolis convention of the Associated Advertising clubs, June 6 to 10, the program committee announces.

Mrs. Sylvia Kohl, 709 E. Keasey st., Thursday morning filed an affidavit against her husband, Ernest Kohl, charging him with assault and battery. Mrs. Kohl told Deputy Pros. George A. Schock Thursday that her husband makes wine at his home, and that Wednesday night he was intoxicated and that while in that condition, he beat her and cut her with a pocket knife, after attempting to attack her with a butcher knife.

Kohl was arrested by the police Wednesday night, and was locked up at police headquarters. Thursday morning Kohl's case was set down for a hearing for Friday morning.

Mrs. Margaret Morse, of Lydick, arrived Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Newton Walters where she will make her future home.

Mr. C. O. Stroup spent Monday at Fisher.

Mr. and Mrs. John Wedel and family visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. Roberts at Mishawaka Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Stroup and son Howard visited with friends at Fairview Friday evening.

A plan for a federal department of advertising, presented in the form of a proposed bill creating it, will be offered at the Indianapolis convention of the Associated Advertising clubs, June 6 to 10, the program committee announces.

Mrs. Sylvia Kohl, 709 E. Keasey st., Thursday morning filed an affidavit against her husband, Ernest Kohl, charging him with assault and battery. Mrs. Kohl told Deputy Pros. George A. Schock Thursday that her husband makes wine at his home, and that Wednesday night he was intoxicated and that while in that condition, he beat her and cut her with a pocket knife, after attempting to attack her with a butcher knife.

Kohl was arrested by the police Wednesday night, and was locked up at police headquarters. Thursday morning Kohl's case was set down for a hearing for Friday morning.

Mrs. Margaret Morse, of Lydick, arrived Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Newton Walters where she will make her future home.

Mr. C. O. Stroup spent Monday at Fisher.

Mr. and Mrs. John Wedel and family visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. Roberts at Mishawaka Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Stroup and son Howard visited with friends at Fairview Friday evening.

A plan for a federal department of advertising, presented in the form of a proposed bill creating it, will be offered at the Indianapolis convention of the Associated Advertising clubs, June 6 to 10, the program committee announces.

Mrs. Sylvia Kohl, 709 E. Keasey st., Thursday morning filed an affidavit against her husband, Ernest Kohl, charging him with assault and battery. Mrs. Kohl told Deputy Pros. George A. Schock Thursday that her husband makes wine at his home, and that Wednesday night he was intoxicated and that while in that condition, he beat her and cut her with a pocket knife, after attempting to attack her with a butcher knife.

Kohl was arrested by the police Wednesday night, and was locked up at police headquarters. Thursday morning Kohl's case was set down for a hearing for Friday morning.

Mrs. Margaret Morse, of Lydick, arrived Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Newton Walters where she will make her future home.

Mr. C. O. Stroup spent Monday at Fisher.

Mr. and Mrs. John Wedel and family visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. Roberts at Mishawaka Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Stroup and son Howard visited with friends at Fairview Friday evening.

THIEVES ENTER STORE
AND TAKE SMALL AMOUNT OF MONEY

Thieves entered the offices of the White Swan laundry, 125 E. Sample st., Wednesday night, and emptied the cash drawer of between $5 and $7. The entrance was gained by lifting out a window screen.

In addition to the money, the thieves took a revolver kept in the office. The robbery was discovered Thursday morning when the laundry office was opened for the day's business.

The police were notified, but no arrests have been made.

"AS A MAN THINKETH."

Hats are now selling from $5 to $10. Your old hat may be better quality than some new ones. We clean and block them and remove every spot, even the perspiration stains from the bands. Call L. 8893 so we may prove it. Astoria Cleaners and Hatters, 133 Lincoln way E., opposite the standpipe. 2545-1f.

Kohl was arrested by the police Wednesday night, and was locked up at police headquarters. Thursday morning Kohl's case was set down for a hearing for Friday morning.

Mrs. Margaret Morse, of Lydick, arrived Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Newton Walters where she will make her future home.

Mr. C. O. Stroup spent Monday at Fisher.

Mr. and Mrs. John Wedel and family visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. Roberts at Mishawaka Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Stroup and son Howard visited with friends at Fairview Friday evening.

A plan for a federal department of advertising, presented in the form of a proposed bill creating it, will be offered at the Indianapolis convention of the Associated Advertising clubs, June 6 to 10, the program committee announces.

Mrs. Sylvia Kohl, 709 E. Keasey st., Thursday morning filed an affidavit against her husband, Ernest Kohl, charging him with assault and battery. Mrs. Kohl told Deputy Pros. George A. Schock Thursday that her husband makes wine at his home, and that Wednesday night he was intoxicated and that while in that condition, he beat her and cut her with a pocket knife, after attempting to attack her with a butcher knife.

Kohl was arrested by the police Wednesday night, and was locked up at police headquarters. Thursday morning Kohl's case was set down for a hearing for Friday morning.

Mrs. Margaret Morse, of Lydick, arrived Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Newton Walters where she will make her future home.

Mr. C. O. Stroup spent Monday at Fisher.

Mr. and Mrs. John Wedel and family visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. Roberts at Mishawaka Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Stroup and son Howard visited with friends at Fairview Friday evening.

A plan for a federal department of advertising, presented in the form of a proposed bill creating it, will be offered at the Indianapolis convention of the Associated Advertising clubs, June 6 to 10, the program committee announces.

Mrs. Sylvia Kohl, 709 E. Keasey st., Thursday morning filed an affidavit against her husband, Ernest Kohl, charging him with assault and battery. Mrs. Kohl told Deputy Pros. George A. Schock Thursday that her husband makes wine at his home, and that Wednesday night he was intoxicated and that while in that condition, he beat her and cut her with a pocket knife, after attempting to attack her with a butcher knife.

Kohl was arrested by the police Wednesday night, and was locked up at police headquarters. Thursday morning Kohl's case was set down for a hearing for Friday morning.

Mrs. Margaret Morse, of Lydick, arrived Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Newton Walters where she will make her future home.

Mr. C. O. Stroup spent Monday at Fisher.

Mr. and Mrs. John Wedel and family visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. Roberts at Mishawaka Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Stroup and son Howard visited with friends at Fairview Friday evening.

A plan for a federal department of advertising, presented in the form of a proposed bill creating it, will be offered at the Indianapolis convention of the Associated Advertising clubs, June 6 to 10, the program committee announces.

Mrs. Sylvia Kohl, 709 E. Keasey st., Thursday morning filed an affidavit against her husband, Ernest Kohl, charging him with assault and battery. Mrs. Kohl told Deputy Pros. George A. Schock Thursday that her husband makes wine at his home, and that Wednesday night he was intoxicated and that while in that condition, he beat her and cut her with a pocket knife, after attempting to attack her with a butcher knife.

Kohl was arrested by the police Wednesday night, and was locked up at police headquarters. Thursday morning Kohl's case was set down for a hearing for Friday morning.

Mrs. Margaret Morse, of Lydick, arrived Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Newton Walters where she will make her future home.

Mr. C. O. Stroup spent Monday at Fisher.

Mr. and Mrs. John Wedel and family visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. Roberts at Mishawaka Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Stroup and son Howard visited with friends at Fairview Friday evening.

A plan for a federal department of advertising, presented in the form of a proposed bill creating it, will be offered at the Indianapolis convention of the Associated Advertising clubs, June 6 to 10, the program committee announces.

Mrs. Sylvia Kohl, 709 E. Keasey st., Thursday morning filed an affidavit against her husband, Ernest Kohl, charging him with assault and battery. Mrs. Kohl told Deputy Pros. George A. Schock Thursday that her husband makes wine at his home, and that Wednesday night he was intoxicated and that while in that condition, he beat her and cut her with a pocket knife, after attempting to attack her with a butcher knife.

Kohl was arrested by the police Wednesday night, and was locked up at police headquarters. Thursday morning Kohl's case was set down for a hearing for Friday morning.

Mrs. Margaret Morse, of Lydick, arrived Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Newton Walters where she will make her future home.

Mr. C. O. Stroup spent Monday at Fisher.

Mr. and Mrs. John Wedel and family visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. Roberts at Mishawaka Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Stroup and son Howard visited with friends at Fairview Friday evening.

A plan for a federal department of advertising, presented in the form of a proposed bill creating it, will be offered at the Indianapolis convention of the Associated Advertising clubs, June 6 to 10, the program committee announces.

Mrs. Sylvia Kohl, 709 E. Keasey st., Thursday morning filed an affidavit against her husband, Ernest Kohl, charging him with assault and battery. Mrs. Kohl told Deputy Pros. George A. Schock Thursday that her husband makes wine at his home, and that Wednesday night he was intoxicated and that while in that condition, he beat her and cut her with a pocket knife, after attempting to attack her with a butcher knife.

Kohl was arrested by the police Wednesday night, and was locked up at police headquarters. Thursday morning Kohl's case was set down for a hearing for Friday morning.

The Frances Shop

117 South Michigan St.
Correct Apparel for Women

Saturday—A Real Money Saving Event in Our Great Sample Suit Sale

200 High Grade Sample Suits at 1/4 Off

The result of a wonderful purchase from two of New York's foremost manufacturers of fine suits, enabling us to offer you 200 of the most wonderful High Grade Sample Suits that it has ever been our good fortune to secure.

Suits Made to Retail up to $150.00

These Suits are made by the highest grade tailors noted for their skill and ingenuity. Every detail of manufacture has been given careful attention. You can save up to $37.50 and no less than $17.45 on any garment.

Smart Coats

Coat Values So Remarkable that We Cannot Over Estimate the Greatness of the Savings

$25.00 $39.75 $49.75

Other Coats and Wraps up $175.00

Great Reductions on Smart Dresses at $25, $35, $45 and $68

New Smart
Rodier Plaid
Skirts

New Tricolette Blouses
$8.75 and $10.75

New Shipment of Porto Rican
Hand Made Blouses

The Frances Shop

Oldsmobile 4 Cylinder 5 Passenger

All new tires, and newly painted. Good top, and leather upholstery.
This is a fine running car, and is guaranteed to be in first class shape.

TIME PAYMENTS.
SUPERIOR MOTOR SALES CO.
Used Car Dept.
1137 W. Division St. Bell 185.

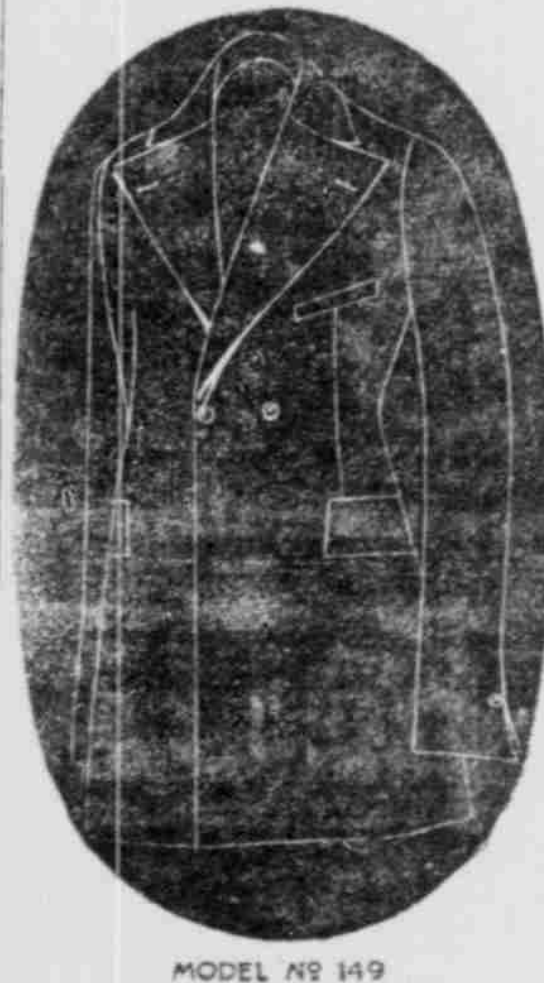

Glasses Correctly Fitted

Broken lenses duplicated the same day.

Dr. J. Burke
230 S. MICHIGAN ST.

Ardmore Style Clothes

For Young
Men

Ardmore Clothes are made especially for young men. That's why our styles so strongly capture the young fellows.

They are tailored in single and double breasted models in all patterns, shades and mixtures. . . . $50 to $70

Gantz's Toggery Shop

Main Street—Opposite Court House

MONEY

ADVANCED
ON LIVE STOCK
VEHICLES
PIANOS
FURNITURE
Dollars Do Double Duty.
SECURITY
LOAN CO.
1200 E. BROAD
Phone Main 1418.

Thomson & McKinnon

301-304 J. M. S. Bldg.
Members New York Stock Exchange, New York Cotton Exchange, New Orleans Cotton Exchange, Chicago Stock Exchange, Chicago Board of Trade and Indian Cattle's Association. Direct Private Wires to All Markets.
—PHONES—
Bell Main 290, 291, 292
Lincoln 2078.

Try NEWS-TIMES Want Ads.

The Higher the Price The Greater is Our Advantage and

THE BIGGER IS YOUR SAVING

We have repeatedly proven that our regular selling price is below the end of the season prices of high-rent stores, and right now when you need your clothes, we are selling the

FINEST TAILORED SUITS