M'GRAW GENEROUS WITH HIS TALENT

New York Cast-offs Winning Many Ball Games for Other Clubs.

By HENRY L. FARRELL.

(United Press Staff Correspondent.)

NEW YORK, April 16.—Giant cast-offs are cutting up against this year.

Eddie Roush, Heinie Groh and Slim Sallee, a trio of former Giants, took the pennant away from McGraw in the memorable Red-Giant series last summer.

That illustrious trio set an example for other New York cast-offs to follow, and though the 1920 season is not out of the cradle yet, some former members of his fold are bringing relief to the Honorable Jawn.

While Walter Holke, released last year to the Braves, is cutting up around first base like a veteran in the opening game, George Kelly, McGraw's experiment on first base, was losing the game.

The more retired boss of the Giants turned several times with "Have a Heart" glances at the fans who yelled: "Where's Hal Chase? Why didn't you keep Holke?"

More grief came yesterday when Stallings marched to the mound one Joe Oeschger, another one given his discharge from the Harlem army. When he went out to the box the fans gave him: "Four innings for you."

However, he shot the Giants out. Then there is Mickey O'Neill, a kid catcher, who McGraw couldn't see. He is one of the most promising catchers seen in years. He has taken a big part in the Brave works in both games.

Perhaps McGraw would rather have had him catching Toney yesterday than Lew McCarty, three weeks wild to second after Cruise lost the game.

If McGraw is not inspired by such generosity he would have a sure pennant winner. The players that he has cut loose in the past few seasons would more than plug up all the weak holes in his club this season.

SAINTS STAGE RALLY AND DEFEAT BREWERS

MILWAUKEE, Wis., April 16.—Howard weakened in the ninth and St. Paul came from behind and won 4 to 3. The Saints counted 3 in the last frame. The St. Paul pitching was air-tight except in the ninth when tripler by Butler and Gaston and Hauser's double gave Milwaukee 3 runs. Gaston's hitting and Lutzke's fielding featured. Score:

St. Paul	AB	R	H	O	A
St. Paul	000 010 003—4; 3; 3
Milwaukee	000 030 000—3; 3; 1
Williams, Overlock, Merritt and Hargrave; Howard and Gaston.

FORMER GIANT HURLER TAKES KANSAS CITY

KANSAS CITY, Mo., April 16.—Four runs in the third inning Friday gave Minneapolis the third straight game from Kansas City, 6 to 2. An effort to stop the onslaught by replacing Roy Johnson with Beedie on the mound came too late to save the game. Score:

Minneapolis	AB	R	H	O	A
Minneapolis	004 100 001—6; 10; 6
Kansas City	000 001 100—2; 1; 1
Schauer and Mayer; Johnson, Beedie and Brock.

Youngsters Attracting Attention

GEORGE KELLY

It appears as though Frank Frisch, the trusty third basemen of the Giants, is in the best of condition and is bound to climb into the hall of fame by the sensational playing that he is now doing. Kelly, who is holding down first for McGraw, is also worthy of praise. Although a newcomer, he grabs the ball like a real veteran. The Giants nearly always come home from the south with a great display of pepper and strength, and this year is no exception.

RELAY MEN WILL RUN SPEED TRIAL

Candidates for One, Two and Four Mile Drake Entries Decided Today.

Coach Rockne's relay men are still set for the trial speed tests this afternoon which are to decide who will be entered in the Drake relay carnival at Des Moines next Saturday. About a dozen men have been working strenuously during the vacation period to get into trim for the trials and already this week several men have reeled off their distances close to required time.

The Cartier Field oval is in the best trim in years despite the recent weather. A steam roller has packed the cinder thoroughly and a large force of students put in a full day patching up the worse spots in the circuit.

Team Entries to Be Made. Much depends upon the performance of the men this afternoon. Only one team is definitely entered in the Drake games, the two-mile team. Rockne will take a mile or four mile team also if the time made in today's trials warrants the expense.

The two mile quartet is lead by Captain Meehan of the Notre Dame track team, who is without a doubt one of the best middle distance men in the country. "Cy" Kasper is another flyer for the two mile team.

Two men must be picked from Burke, Sweeney and Merdith to complete the two mile line-up and the trials today will settle that question. Hear, Wynne Willett and Colan are likely candidates for the mile for.

The four mile team is a problem. Meehan, Burke and Sweeney can be counted upon for excellent time for their share of the going but Rockne must find another 400 or better man in Murphy, O'Hara, Baumer or Shuler. With any kind of weather at all the track fans who go out to watch the trials should be sure of a great treat of real speed in middle distance running events.

Football on Stage Again. The call is out for another month of "spring" football drill at Notre Dame. Captain Coughlin will lead the candidates under the watchful eye of Coach Rockne, who fully realizes what a tremendous task he has to produce a team to equal his 1919 national championship claimants. About 50 men are expected to come out as soon as the weather permits, and until then the noon blackboard lectures will be the methods of progress.

The announcement is also made that work will be begun upon the new stands to be erected on the west side of the Cartier Field gridiron. The new stands will add at least 3,000 to the seating capacity of the field and with portable accommodations for 2,000 already at hand the athletic authorities feel that they will be able to handle anything in the way of a crowd from this vicinity.

The vast increase in attendance from South Bend last year has warranted the new additions and every care will be taken to provide comfort for the thousands of new patrons grained.

New arrangements for parking spaces for motors will also be made for the convenience of the hundreds who prefer to motor out for the contests. Capacity attendance is expected on the occasion of the Purdue and Valparaiso games which will have direct bearing on the state title.

GOES TO HOSPITAL.
R. C. Bauer, 525 Cottage Grove av. has been removed to Epworth hospital where he will undergo an operation. Mrs. Bauer who has been in the hospital for several weeks is slightly improved.

Rum Village Club To Hold Practice Sunday

Candidates for the Rum Village Athletic club baseball team will work out at the J. D. Oliver playground at 10 o'clock Sunday morning. Players desiring to try-out should report at this practice session, as the club is in need of one or two good ball players.

An attractive schedule is being arranged for a team to equal his 1919 national championship claimants. About 50 men are expected to come out as soon as the weather permits, and until then the noon blackboard lectures will be the methods of progress.

The announcement is also made that work will be begun upon the new stands to be erected on the west side of the Cartier Field gridiron. ## WELCH WINNER IN BOUT WITH WHITE

South Bend Pugilist is Given Five of Eight Rounds.

South Bend fight fans who accompanied Eddie Welch to Laporte Friday night saw the local pugilist get a clear-cut victory over Tommy White, of Chicago. Eddie was given five of the eight rounds. White was awarded one, and two were even. Welch forced the fighting in every round. He constantly bored in with rights and lefts, and in two rounds he rocked White's head with hard drives with either hand.

The South Bender started strong, the initial frame being his best. The outcome was never in doubt after the first few exchange of blows. The fourth round was the most even of the eight, and White was given the fifth.

Record Crowd Present. The fighting was at 138 pounds. The largest crowd ever in attendance at a boxing program here witnessed the fight. Fifty fans from South Bend made the trip.

Wildcat Andy Williams, of Milwaukee, was outclassed by Clint Flynn, of Chicago. Flynn landed five blows to his opponent's one. Williams had both hands broken, and took the most punishment ever administered to any pug here.

The fighters weighed in at 135 pounds. Young Mack, of Tulsa, Okla., took the curtain raiser from Kid Fay, of Niles. Fay hit the mat for short intervals twice during the second round, and was knocked out after a minute's fighting in the third. They fought at 135 pounds.

Frank Trefel, promoter of the match, is preparing the stage for another program soon.

BAFE RUTH GETS NEW HAT. PHILADELPHIA, Pa., April 16.—Babe Ruth, Yankee outfielder, today was the possessor of a new lid—but he has it hidden. It was presented him by local fans as a mark of appreciation for mugging the fly that enabled the Athletics to win the opening game from the New Yorkers. The hat was light brown, with a low crown and a curled-up rim.

PASS POSTOFFICE BILL. By United Press. ## THEATERS

LASALLE.

The screen has had its curly-haired ingenues, its dare-devils who leaped yawning chasms and flying freights with equal agility, its burly westerners and its flat-footed comedians. Now comes something new. The cinema's very first masculine home wrecker, a regular berymp, who keeps the spectator guessing until the end. Played by handsome Lew Cody, the picture showed at the LaSalle and is entitled "The Beloved Cheater."

Tomorrow Eugene O'Brien is the star of "A Fool and His Money."

CASTLE. A wife's revenge is the subject of Dorothy Dalton's latest dramatic screen offering which comes to the castle today. Entitled "Black is White," it was written by George Barr McCutcheon and gives the star a role of unusual strength.

The fact that this revenge is turned against the husband who forces her from his home by his insane and unfounded jealousy, lends the story a novel twist and adds zest to the situations. Marvelous costumes which make the most of her beauty are worn by the star. Tomorrow "The Blue Pearl" features pretty Edith Hallor.

ORPHEUM. Last performances are given at the Orpheum today of the vaudeville bill which features "Rolling Along," the miniature musical comedy. Other entertainers are Johnny Keane, Leach-Walling trio, Mason and Rooney and the Dancing Kennedys.

Beginning tomorrow, the new program has for its headline Rolto and Beagy, who present a roller skating novelty. Stephen Hall, comedy monologist and singer; "What Happened to Ruth," a one-act satire; Williams and Taylor, colored dancers; and Jack Wyatt and his Scotch lads and lassies are other pleasing numbers.

OLIVER. Lovers of the art of Terpsichore will revel in the innumerable and novel modern dances which are to be rendered by the famous dancers, Fanchon and Marco, in the new edition de luxe of their revue, "Let's Go!" which will be seen at the Oliver theater on Monday and Tuesday evenings.

Sartorially wonderful is dainty Fanchon, appearing in one new costume after another, all equally bewildering and artistically beautiful but entirely different. They are gowns of dazzling brilliance, it is said.

With her dancing partner, Marco, Fanchon performs a most delightful new dance to "Let's Go." There are all sorts of soft, gliding steps changing quickly to a syncopated evolution or an unsuspected acrobatic stunt for Fanchon and Marco are nothing if not versatile.

Their star specialty, wherein Marco plays delightfully on his violin, while the two career madly about the stage, is nothing short of a sensation, it is claimed.

"CLARENCE." "Clarence," the new comedy by Booth Tarkington which, for the past winter, has been the reigning success in both New York and Chicago, will be presented in this city at the Oliver theater this afternoon and night by the Chicago company from the Blackstone theater.

This delightful comedy is as typically Tarkington as his stories. It is a rich expression of the author's personality; it glows and chuckles with humor. It has the spontaneity of inspiration and none of the artifice of playmaking are visible as it frolics through its four acts.

The mirth which "Clarence" evokes in such abundance is the essence of character, rather than plot. First of all, there is the hero, a demobilized soldier, but not a man of glory, a quaint and rather mysterious youth, socially awkward and slightly eccentric. He is a bizarre and cryptic creature, but not a caricature, for the world is full of "Clarences," although it takes a Tarkington to discover them. In search of a job, any kind of a job, this inexplicable thing in khaki finds employment in the home of a certain rich man with an obnoxious family, and hourly he expands, spreading the strange and beneficent influence of Clarenceism as he unfolds himself. He is, if you choose to take him that way, a burlesque of "The Servant in the House," substituting humor for holyunction.

JAPANESE FORCES LOST 237 MEN IN SIBERIAN BATTLES

Russian Losses Are Said to be Heavy in War Zone.

By United Press. LONDON, April 16.—Japanese forces lost 237 killed in fierce fighting with Russian troops at Khabarovsk, Siberia, last Monday, a News Agency dispatch from Tokyo said today.

The Russians lost 400 killed. Japanese claimed 1,500 prisoners. Fighting continues.

Fighting continued through the day in the streets of the city, the dispatch said.

The Russian forces presumably would be social revolutionaries (in sympathy with the Moscow soviet government). This element recently clashed with the Japanese at Vladivostok.

Khabarovsk is an important Siberian city, formerly seat of the general government of the Amur. It is at the junction of the Amur and Ussuri rivers and on the Assuri branch of the Trans-Siberian railway.
