

THEATERS

LASALLE.
Everyone knows Rex Beach. Knows the power and popularity of his great pictures. "The Brand," "The Crimson Gardenia," "The Auction Block," clear back to "The Spoilers." Now comes another, more powerful, more gripping—"The Girl From Outside," shown at the Lasalle today and tomorrow. The same raw elemental strength surges through it—this story of men who love and hate and fight for their possessions. A superb cast, masterful direction and elaborate settings, add to the effectiveness.

CASTLE.
The reading public is well acquainted with the works of George Barr McCutcheon, foremost among America's writers of romantic fiction. "A Fool and His Money," is his latest offering to the screen, and with handsome Eugene O'Brien in the leading role it will be shown at the Castle theater today and tomorrow. Pretty Ruby Delfino, remembered for her work in Rex Beach's "Auction Block," has the prominent feminine role.

ORPHEUM.
A modern program is being offered to Orpheum patrons for the first half of the week. The headlining act, Jack Wyatt and his Scotch lads and lassies has appeared here before. Their presentation of various Scottish dances together with the harmony they produce on the bagpipes are the features of the act. L. Stephen Hall, a monologist, keeps the audience in good humor with his rapid fire line of chatter. He spreads plenty of propaganda for the "wet" element and succeeds in drawing considerable applause at the expense of "Old John Barleycorn."

DeLuxe and Parker, presenting a comedy satire skit, manage to put their offering over with the aid of a "plant" in the box. The timely remarks of the said plant grabs the majority of the laughs in this act. Williams and Taylor, two colored dancers, work hard and are keepers of ability. They specialize

In soft shoe dancing and put their dances over in real colored fashion, that their efforts are appreciated is easily understood by the applause they receive. Holte and Beary open with a novelty roller skating act. Kingame showing the leaders of the "outlaw" rail strike and Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Fairbanks at their home in California are unusually interesting. Topics of the Day are also shown on the screen.

FANCHON-MARCO REVUE.
Fanchon and Marco revue, Let's Go! which played for ten weeks in San Francisco, opens a two day's engagement at the Oliver theater tonight.

Let's Go! was conceived for entertaining purposes only, and it is an ideal concoction of the Revue type, making no claims to a consistent plot, but boasting of its ability to give capital diversion.

Heading the cast, of course, are Fanchon and Marco themselves, the cleverest modern dancers and terpsichorean specialists in the country. Nelson and Chain are a pair of funny men with a reputation for creating chuckles that is hard to duplicate. They will introduce novel specialties throughout the performance.

Arthur West is a comedian with a manner all his own, who scored in vaudeville. His blackface antics in Let's Go! are a riot it is said.

Bill Dooley is an actor and vocalist whose work is equally familiar to musical comedy followers and patrons of vaudeville. "The River's End," will be shown on the screen of the Oliver theater for four days, starting next Sunday.

UNIQUE! DARING! DIFFERENT! THRILLING!

THE MOST UNUSUAL PICTURE EVER MADE! FILMED AT BOTTOM OF OCEAN!

SEE THESE RED-BLOODED THRILLS—

Fight for life at bottom of the ocean between a deep-sea diver and a giant octopus—Brave sixteen year old diving girl's sensational rescue of diver from the terrible cuttlefish—Thrilling fist fight at top of ship mast—Wonders of the ocean bottom—Breath-taking, awe-inspiring incidents that are marvelous—all in J. N. WILLIAMSON'S Stupendous 6-reel Undersea Spectacle,

"GIRL OF THE SEA"

The only picture of its kind in existence. "GIRL OF THE SEA" has created sensations wherever it has been shown. Every school child should see this picture. Every man and woman will marvel at it. EXTRA ADDED ATTRACTION, THE ONE AND ONLY MILLION DOLLAR COMEDIAN, FUNNY

CHARLIE CHAPLIN

In one of his funniest two-reel comedies,

"The Jitney Elopement"

And TOPICS OF THE DAY. Everybody wants to see "GIRL OF THE SEA," and to accommodate all, we ask as many as possible to attend the matinees. No advance in prices.

WEDNESDAY AND THURSDAY—EXTRA SPECIAL DOUBLE FEATURE SHOW—Presenting wonderful and popular ANITA STEWART in one of the greatest western pictures ever made, "THE FIGHTING SHEPHERDESS," from the story by Caroline Lockhart and claimed to be the greatest woman's story ever written. "The Fighting Shepherdess" is better than "In Old Kentucky," and that's going some. And everybody's popular favorite comedian, the greatest on the screen today, Barrid none, the chap who always makes you laugh, HAROLD LLOYD, in his funniest two-reel comedy, "HAUNTED SPOOKS," a positive laugh riot. SPECIAL PRICES FOR THIS EXTRAORDINARY SHOW—10c, 22c and 28c, tax included.

MONDAY AND TUESDAY—The biggest show of the year, presenting Mack Sennett's famous six-reel comedy with an all-star cast, "YANKEE DOODLE IN BERLIN," a screaming burlesque on the principal German characters in the recent war that will almost cause you to die with laughter. Also exclusive views of the great STECHER-CADDOCK world's championship wrestling match, recently held in Madison Square Garden, New York for a purse of $40,000. This makes one of the greatest double shows ever seen in South Bend.

MURDER TRIAL WILL BE HELD NEXT JUNE

Special to The News-Times:

LAPORTE, Ind., April 18.—There is little likelihood that the murder trials of French Garrippy and Steve Bartak, confined in the St. Joseph county jail as murderers of Carl Cook, Laporte groceryman, will be tried on May 18, the date fixed by Judge Hubbard of the St. Joseph county circuit court. State's Attorney Rowley is engaged in the trial of a damage case in the Laporte court which will occupy practically all of the month of May. It is not likely that the cases will be reached until some time in June.

The canning season will be here shortly. Many suggestions on the cold pack method of canning are contained in extension bulletin No. 52, which may be obtained free.
