

THEATERS

LASALLE.

Those who like good clean comedy will find it plenty in the five reels of "Double Speed," the latest picture to star handsome Wally Reid and shown at the Lasalle again today. The picture's title suggests quick action, and nobody can deny that the story lives up to it in every particular. Pretty Wanda Hawley makes a charming heroine, while other good actors are Theodore Roberts and Tully Marshall.

Tomorrow "Live Sparks" features J. Warren Kerrigan.

CASTLE.

J. Warren Kerrigan is at his best in "Live Sparks," today's screen offering at the Castle theater. He is introduced as a young millionaire whose main business in life is the telling of crooked oil promoters and the winning of a pretty sweetheart, the latter person being played charmingly by Fritzi Brunette.

Tomorrow "Double Speed" stars Wallace Reid and Wanda Hawley.

ORPHEUM.

A musical comedy entitled "That's My Wife" holds the boards at the Orpheum theater for the last half of the week. It is the latest company of entertainers that has appeared at the Orpheum this year, more than 20 people being in the cast. Featuring the production is Jim Bougard, a good comedian, assisted by a talented company, chief among which is a chorus of exceptional beauty, which for good singing and dancing is above the average. Flo Bougard, the prima donna, is forced to respond to an encore after singing the "Chanson Française."

The rendition of "I'm Coming Back to You" by the convict chorus is featured by a witty dialogue between Mr. Bougard and a conquered girl. The costumes and settings are good and a number of popular song numbers gives the act a decidedly likeable flavor.

As an added attraction, Amadio, an accordion player wins favor with his popular and classical selections. Kinograms are also shown.

During the musical comedy, Mr. Jackson, pianist in the Orpheum orchestra, takes up a saxophone and assists materially in putting punch in the popular numbers. It was a good addition to the orchestra.

OLIVER.

Al G. Field's famous minstrel organization will be the attraction at the Oliver theater Saturday matinee and night and Sunday night, May 1st and 2nd.

AUDITORIUM.

Charles Ray, one of the most popular actors on the screen, will be seen at the Auditorium today in a six-reel comedy drama entitled "The Hick." The piece is said to be filled with the most amusing situations, interspersed with thrilling climaxes. Pearl White in her sensational serial, "The Black Secret," and the Fox News are also on for today. Tomorrow's bill includes Richard Travers in "The Man Trail," a sensational six-reel drama; "Only an Orphan," a two-reel comedy, and the Pathe News.

OLIVER.

Mildred Harris Chaplin will be seen at the Oliver theater today and tomorrow in her latest screen production, "The Inferior Sex," in which she is said to have the best role of her career. It's a story of today with scenes laid in New York. Performances will be given continuously starting at 1 o'clock.

OLIVER.

A gripping scene in the photoplay, "The River's End," which comes to the Oliver theater Sunday for a six days' run, comes at the story's climax, when John Keith enters the den of a villainous Chinaman and after a terrific struggle, in which the odds are against him, succeeds in wounding his enemies and brings about a disentanglement of the mystery which envelops the play.

DISCUSS PLANS FOR NEW SCHOOL BUILDING AT BOARD MEETING

Plans were discussed for the erection of a new school building on the tract of land recently donated to the school city by the Studebaker corporation but nothing definite was decided upon at the school board meeting Wednesday night. Routine business was transacted during the evening.

A committee appointed by the high school faculty to petition the board for a 23 1-3 percent increase in salary instead of the $400 raise granted by the board in the new salary schedule announced two weeks ago, presented the request to the board, which failed to act favorably, retaining the $400 raise.

O'BRIEN IS DELEGATE TO CHAMBER CONVENTION

W. D. O'Brien of the O'Brien Varnish Co., has been named to represent the South Bend Chamber of Commerce, as delegate to the national convention of chambers of commerce of the United States to be held in Atlantic City from April 27 to 29, inclusive.

Plans for the convention as announced by the Chamber of Commerce, include talks by a number of prominent men with national reputations on problems of labor and industry. The convention is termed "An Increased Production Convention."

Delegates from chambers of commerce from all parts of the United States will attend the convention.

"THE INFERIOR SEX"

A TREMENDOUSLY VITAL PROBLEM OF MAN AND WOMAN

Ever since the Stone Age, man, in his opinion, has been the master, woman the slave. You women who know, is this man's conceit, and does the physically weaker actually rule the stronger by a subtle power of which man is unconscious? Is the fighter, the bread-winner superior to the home maker? Woman today is playing a new part in world affairs. Has her position changed? Strip man and woman of all social veneer and behold them in their natal state. Is one superior to the other?

He Had Forgotten Shan Tung, the Chinaman

Three years before John Keith had fled to the Arctic Wastes, a fugitive from the law, and for three years Conister of the Royal Northwest Police trailed him. Then they met—and a strange thing happened, for Keith and Conister were alike in face and features—and Keith came back to civilization in the uniform of the Northwest Police; two men had traded places in life. "Beware of Chief McDowell, his eyes can see through boiler plate," Conister told Keith—but he failed to tell of Shan Tung, the Chinaman who coveted the white girl, Miriam Kirkwood.

You'll meet Keith and Conister, McDowell and Miriam, Shan Tung and Mary in two hours you'll remember a lifetime, at
