

MASSACHUSETTS MAN DEPLORES POWER OF WOMEN

Lobbyists Dumbfounded
Over Ability of Suffrage Leaders.

WASHINGTON, April 22.—According to the stars and Michael O'Leary, chairman of the state democratic committee of Massachusetts, this is the dawn of the new era of political power.

"Lord help the men!" says O'Leary.

What chance, he asks, has the mere male with all his political training and knowledge against the sixth sense possessed by the female of the species?

"All girl babies are born with the sixth sense," he said.

To support his prophecy that the political battles of the future will be won, not by political experience, but by the sixth sense, he calls attention to three young women whom Washington politicians declare the cleverest lobbyists in the country.

Were girls.

Mere girls—charming feminine persons and "politically innocent," as some one has phrased it—Betty Gram of Portland, Ore.; Mary Dubrow of Passaic, N. J.; and Anita Pollitzer of Charleston, S. C., have snatched with the shrewdest politicians of the nation and have amazed those skilled gentlemen by their political acumen.

Workers in the national women's party, they have played a big part in "putting over" suffrage.

Anita Pollitzer, a winsome, dark-haired little person, is the party's chief lobbyist at the capitol. Her job has been to obtain pressure from congressmen or to move stubborn legislators "back home." Even the leading anti in congress have been "brought round" by the diplomacy of this young woman. Distinguished United States senators confer gravely with her and listen respectfully to her opinions.

Betty Gram "put over" New Jersey. She outgeneraled "Jim" Nugent, boss of the democratic party in his home state and of more than local fame as a politician. "Some job!" say those familiar with politics in New Jersey.

With Mary Dubrow she led the forces that won one of the most most drastic battles in the history of suffrage—that in West Virginia. Dark-eyed Miss Dubrow, from Passaic, and the vivacious Miss Gram, from the west, could collaborate on a spy book titled "This Legislature We Have Met."

Calls "Em Wonders.

"Wonders, those girls," says Mr. O'Leary of Massachusetts, a man who knows the political game from A to Z, "and not one of them with a whit of political experience. How do they do it? The sixth sense."

According to Mrs. Abby Scott Baker, political chairman of the national women's party, man himself is responsible for the development of the sixth sense in woman.

"And woe to him now that she is free to assert herself!" says Mrs. Baker.

"In the centuries woman has been kept subservient to man she has developed ingenuity to get what rights she could from her lord and master without his knowing that he was surrendering any of the male's sacred prerogatives."

"With each succeeding generation woman has become more skillful in the art of dealing with the superior sex, and today we find her able to outwit the cleverest of men in matters that require adroitness. She has acquired the sixth sense and all the brains and experience of the male are no match for it."

"Because of it she will be more adroit in politics than simple-minded man, who has learned to use only one method—the strong-armed one."

CLAIMS CANDIDACY RESTS WITH GODS

By United Press.

CHICAGO, April 22.—"My candidacy rests with the Gods and the delegates and nothing will be done by me to take it out of the hands of either."

Nicholas Murray Butler, president of Columbia university and choice of New York republicans for president, declared thus here today.

Butler will open a two weeks' speaking tour of Michigan, Wisconsin and Iowa tonight at Milwaukee, Wis. Later addresses will be made at Grand Rapids, Mich.

MISS MARBURY ACTIVE IN PUBLIC SERVICE

Miss Elisabeth Marbury, who is one of the delegates-at-large from New York to the democratic national convention, is first vice president of the League of Catholic Women and was a member of the executive committee of the diocesan national war council. In June, 1919, she was designated by Sec'y of the Interior Lane to carry abroad to the men of the American expeditionary forces the message of home-building and farm-making. Under the auspices of the Knights of Columbus she traveled more than 5,000 miles, visiting every center from Brest to Coblenz, where American troops were massed, speaking many times to thousands of soldiers. Miss Marbury has been decorated by America, France, Belgium and Italy, and is the only woman decorated with the Knights of Columbus gold service medal.

MRS. A. L. WILDRICK, of Los Angeles, Calif., who says she had to spend half her time in bed and could not get relief until she took Tanlac. Declares she now feels as well as she ever felt in her life and that she has gained fifteen pounds in weight.

The following remarkable statement was made recently by Mrs. A. L. Wildrick, a well-known and highly respected resident of Los Angeles, Calif., living at No. 222 North Alvarado Street. Mrs. Wildrick is 63 years of age and is the mother of seven children. Her photograph appears here.

"For the past year or more," said Mrs. Wildrick, "I have been in very poor health. I suffered principally from chronic indigestion and my condition was so bad I had to spend half of my time in bed from sheer weakness. In spite of all the medicine I took I could not possibly get any relief and I became so nervous and unstrung that at times I could hardly realize what I was doing. I just had no appetite at all and suffered terribly nearly all the time with indigestion and was really in a very bad way physically. If I did eat a little something I would always have a miserable, distressed feeling afterward and I tell you I was going down hill pretty fast."

"Well, I just can't find words to tell you how really bad off I was and also to tell you what Tanlac has done for me, for I feel as well now as I ever felt in my life. Why, after taking only three and a half bottles of this medicine I have actually gained 15 pounds in weight and everyone tells me I am looking better than in years."

"Since I have been taking Tanlac I have found out that several of my intimate friends are also taking it and everyone of them are delighted with it. I am sure glad to recommend Tanlac and help spread the goodness of this medicine. Yes, I want you to use my photograph too, so that all my friends may see how well I am looking. Anyone who could see me now after seeing me only a few weeks ago would be convinced that Tanlac must be a really wonderful medicine."

Tanlac is sold in South Bend at the Central Drug Store and in Mishawaka at the Red Cross Pharmacy.

SAVES DAY-OLD CHICKS

PREVENTS WHITE
DIARRHOEA

Red Comb Chick Mash with Dried Buttermilk prevents this dread disease as the lactic acid bacilli found in the Dried Buttermilk builds tissue faster than the diarrhoea bacteria can tear it down. Besides, it aids digestion by neutralizing the gas and acid caused by the reaction of indigestion—increases assimilation and acts as a disinfectant of the Alimentary canal, thus eliminating poisonous irritants.
