

DEVOTED TO THE INTERESTS OF WOMEN

Clubs

The Norman Eddy Sewing circle met Friday afternoon at the K. of P. hall. Following the usual business session the time was spent in making flowers. Refreshments were served during the social hour to 40 members by the hostesses, Mrs. Harry Stevenson, Mrs. W. D. Staples and Mrs. C. W. Crofoot. The next meeting will be held in three weeks at the home of Mrs. Calvin De Freese, 315 S. Taylor st. The assistant hostesses will be Mrs. Charles Hall and Mrs. H. Robinson.

The Ever Ready club of the Westminster Presbyterian church was entertained at the home of Mrs. Ira Ulery, 821 N. Cushing st., Friday afternoon. After the transaction of the routine business a social hour was enjoyed, games and contests being the diversions. Refreshments were served to 17 members by the hostess who was assisted by Mrs. Adam Baugher and Mrs. Earl Yost. The place of the next meeting to be held May 21 will be announced later.

Covers were laid for 38 at the dinner given Friday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Sam R. Pace, 532 W. Colfax av., for the members of the Mothers' club and their husbands. Dinner was served at 5:30 o'clock at a table attractively decorated with hyscintus. The evening was spent socially. Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Millhouse, Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Zigler, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Haughton and Mr. and Mrs. B. A. France assisted the host and hostess.

The Children of Mary of St. Joseph's church entertained with a card party and dance Wednesday evening at St. Joseph's hall. Progressive pedro and five hundred were played at 25 tables while more than 75 couples enjoyed the program of dances played by Heron's orchestra. The society will hold its annual May party at the hall May 19.

The civics and philanthropy department of the Progress club held its last meeting of the year Friday afternoon in the club rooms. After the disposal of the usual business Joseph Taylor, scout executive, addressed the assembly of 25 members on the "Boy Scout movement."

The Hosiery club met Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Ora Barber, 504 1/2 E. South st. A business session was held and a social time enjoyed during which refreshments were served to nine guests. Mrs. John Kuespert, 222 N. Birdsell st., will be hostess to the club May 7.

Miss Leola Mae Carey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Carey, 125 W. Seventh st., Mishawaka, and Gordon Larson, son of M. O. Larson, 1832 S. Fellows st., were married Wednesday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock at the parsonage of the Grace M. E. church, Rev. B. D. Beck officiating. Miss Gladys Monroe attended as best man and Ken McCormick served as best man. The bride wore a traveling suit of dark blue tulle and a corsage of bride's roses. Her hat was black mallow. Miss Monroe wore a suit of dark blue cloth and a corsage of pink sweet peas. Mr. and Mrs. Larson left immediately after the ceremony for Chicago, Ill. They will be at home in South Bend.

The St. Joseph Valley grange held an enjoyable all day meeting Thursday at the W. O. W. hall. A pot luck dinner was served at noon, following which a program was given and included a talk by Prof. Scheib of Notre Dame on "Farm Management." Prof. Scheib in explaining the method of putting farm management upon an efficient basis said "The soil should be managed on a strictly business basis," and that "the conservation of man power is of the greatest importance." Cyrus Pattee gave a talk on potato raising and Aaron Jones spoke on the general topics pertaining to farm life. There will be another all day meeting held in June.

The Pythian sisters held a business and social meeting in their rooms in the K. P. hall Thursday evening. Following the business session an interesting program was presented and included a talk by Rev. Whittier, a vocal selection by little Miss Emma Bernhard and piano numbers by Mrs. A. Hildebrand. A game of volley ball afforded much amusement. Refreshments were served to more than 100 members.

Circles

There will be another meeting held at the same place in three weeks when initiation will take place.

The Nonpareil club was entertained Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. L. Lydick, 1601 Lincoln way. Following the disposal of the routine business a social time was enjoyed, needlework being the principal diversion. Refreshments were served at the close of the afternoon. There will be another meeting held May 8 at the home of Mrs. M. A. Evans, 1038 Woodward av.

Carroll court, No. 1005, W. C. O. F., held a regular business meeting Thursday evening at McVie hall. Plans were made to attend the installation of officers at Elkhart April 22. The society will leave South Bend Thursday evening on the 7 o'clock interurban. Plans were also made for the meeting to be held May 13 when the local organization will install its new officers.

Fourteen members of the Progress club will attend the annual luncheon to be given by 17 members of the Mishawaka Women's club at the Mishawaka hotel Saturday, April 24.

Personals

Mrs. C. L. Sellers, 106 Portage av., returned Friday night from a six weeks' visit in Seattle, Wash.

Mr. and Mrs. B. R. Thomas, Thorn Acres Bertrand, Mich., are spending the week-end with relatives in Battle Creek, Mich.

Harold Lower of Gary, Ind., is in the city to attend the wedding of his brother, Don Lower, which will take place today.

Mrs. T. F. Nesmith, 1204 Woodward av., and her son and daughter have returned to the city after an extended visit in Maryland.

Two South Bend missionaries, Fathers Kehoe and Brooks, C. S. C., who started on their journey to Bengal, India, three months ago, have arrived at Dacca, their destination. Before beginning their labors in the new land they will have to learn Bengali, the language of that section, and it will also be some time before they can accustom themselves to the manners of the country.

"Nearly every one we met," writes Father Brooks, "insisted on kissing our hands, a ceremony new and not altogether pleasing to us." Riding on elephant is another of the novelties the priests are enjoying. The letter describes a trip by this method of transportation as follows:

"There is a mission at Nagari in charge of Portuguese Fathers, and it was they who sent their elephant for us. Although this place is only about four miles distant, the trip took an hour. As fences are practically unknown in this country we went across fields. The trip was very enjoyable. At several places the native proprietors rushed out to see that Jumbo did not destroy their trees. Several times on our way he took a little lunch—a limb of a banana or other tree. Creaks were no obstacle to us, for the elephant easily and gracefully passed over these."

The strangest sight they viewed was a Bengali marriage ceremony. Father Brooks gives a clear description of the affair. "The second day of our stay in Dacca we witnessed a wedding procession. About 8 o'clock p. m. we were attracted outside by the rather pleasing music of a band—a fairly good band. The street was in a glow caused by the light from numerous torches. The groom was elevated above the shoulders of four stalwart men, and on his head was a triple golden crown, while from his shoulders fell a gorgeous robe. Behind the groom was the bride, attired in a more modest costume. The array of finery was made to appear more splendid by the light of the numerous torches. The Hindus spend fortunes on wedding celebrations. At our parish at Toolmiah, this abuse has, to a great extent, been done away with."

SOCIETY

Revelations of a Wife

My Heart and My Husband

BY ADELE GARRISON

WHAT BESS DEAN BROUGHT ABOUT.

"If you could realize the despair you've saved us from you'd pat each other on the back as public benefactors," declared Bess Dean extravagantly, as Dicky and I met Alice Holcombe and her in the lobby of the Cresthaven movie theater after the performance.

Dicky, gravely and ostentatiously fatted my shoulder.

"See what a value is set upon our society," Mrs. Graham, he drawled, "but your chief attraction just now is the eats you promised me after the show. I'm simply starving to death. I scorned the boarding house dinner tonight in anticipation and when the intermission came and you hadn't shown up, I said to Alice that she could look for me tomorrow night in Seattle, Wash."

He stopped abruptly. I saw Dicky wince, then he turned to me. "It may be all right to dissemble your love, but why do you kick me like that?" he paraphrased.

I looked at the girl in wondering and grudging admiration. The things she was saying would have been vulgar hints for an elaborate supper on the part of anybody else. But upon her lips they were simply extravagant, irresistible nonsense of an adorable spoiled child. And yet I knew that behind the nonsense Dicky into buying an expensive meal. That Dicky shared my admiration without qualifying it with criticism I could tell by his laughing eyes.

"Thank goodness we arrived in time!" he ejaculated melodramatically. "How about you, Miss Holcombe? Were you about to seek a watery grave also?"

"Not tonight, thank you," she drawled, and I knew that she was intensely annoyed at Bess Dean for involving her in this ridiculous discussion. "Besides, I ate my dinner, not knowing until time to start for the theater that there was anything else in prospect. So you see I am fortified."

"Oh, but you must cultivate an appetite by the time we get to the inn to keep the rest of us company," Dicky assured her cordially. "Now suppose you girls wait here while I rustle a taxi."

He must have been unusually fortunate, for it was only a few minutes before he secured one, and we were on our way to the new inn which Miss Dean put in the time describing with great fluency. The frivolous nature of the girl unwittingly betrayed itself as she talked. One could see that all of life worth while to her was the latest fashion, the most exciting amusement, the newest eating place.

The inn, rather an unusual type of cafe, was fairly well filled, but we were fortunate enough to obtain a good corner table, and Bess Dean, once seized the menu. "Oh, I know it!" she gurgled childishly. "They've got a lobster thing-um-bob on tonight, that's one of their specialties. Please, Mr. Graham, may I have some?"

She glanced up at him coquettishly from under the short brim of the rakish hat she wore. Dicky promptly accepted her challenge, while Alice Holcombe's ironical eyes gazed at them both with contempt in her glance, and I began to feel a humiliating knowledge to a wife or fiancée when the man who is supposed to be her especial property publicly answers to the lure of another woman.

"Anything on the menu from

Suffrage

Revelations of a Wife

My Heart and My Husband

BY ADELE GARRISON

WHAT BESS DEAN BROUGHT ABOUT.

"If you could realize the despair you've saved us from you'd pat each other on the back as public benefactors," declared Bess Dean extravagantly, as Dicky and I met Alice Holcombe and her in the lobby of the Cresthaven movie theater after the performance.

Dicky, gravely and ostentatiously fatted my shoulder.

"See what a value is set upon our society," Mrs. Graham, he drawled, "but your chief attraction just now is the eats you promised me after the show. I'm simply starving to death. I scorned the boarding house dinner tonight in anticipation and when the intermission came and you hadn't shown up, I said to Alice that she could look for me tomorrow night in Seattle, Wash."

He stopped abruptly. I saw Dicky wince, then he turned to me. "It may be all right to dissemble your love, but why do you kick me like that?" he paraphrased.

I looked at the girl in wondering and grudging admiration. The things she was saying would have been vulgar hints for an elaborate supper on the part of anybody else. But upon her lips they were simply extravagant, irresistible nonsense of an adorable spoiled child. And yet I knew that behind the nonsense Dicky into buying an expensive meal. That Dicky shared my admiration without qualifying it with criticism I could tell by his laughing eyes.

"Thank goodness we arrived in time!" he ejaculated melodramatically. "How about you, Miss Holcombe? Were you about to seek a watery grave also?"

"Not tonight, thank you," she drawled, and I knew that she was intensely annoyed at Bess Dean for involving her in this ridiculous discussion. "Besides, I ate my dinner, not knowing until time to start for the theater that there was anything else in prospect. So you see I am fortified."

"Oh, but you must cultivate an appetite by the time we get to the inn to keep the rest of us company," Dicky assured her cordially. "Now suppose you girls wait here while I rustle a taxi."

He must have been unusually fortunate, for it was only a few minutes before he secured one, and we were on our way to the new inn which Miss Dean put in the time describing with great fluency. The frivolous nature of the girl unwittingly betrayed itself as she talked. One could see that all of life worth while to her was the latest fashion, the most exciting amusement, the newest eating place.

The inn, rather an unusual type of cafe, was fairly well filled, but we were fortunate enough to obtain a good corner table, and Bess Dean, once seized the menu. "Oh, I know it!" she gurgled childishly. "They've got a lobster thing-um-bob on tonight, that's one of their specialties. Please, Mr. Graham, may I have some?"

She glanced up at him coquettishly from under the short brim of the rakish hat she wore. Dicky promptly accepted her challenge, while Alice Holcombe's ironical eyes gazed at them both with contempt in her glance, and I began to feel a humiliating knowledge to a wife or fiancée when the man who is supposed to be her especial property publicly answers to the lure of another woman.

"Anything on the menu from

Philanthropy

session there this week. Among the speakers are Bishop Sellow, Rev. W. Olmstead and Rev. H. E. Lutz of Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Keasy, Seventeenth st., and Miss Mary Rogers, seventh st., have returned from a visit with Mrs. George Adkinson at Three Rivers, Mich.

E. D. Carter has returned from a week's business trip in Illinois.

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Weber, 927 S. Seventh st., River Park at St. Joseph maternity hospital, Mishawaka Thursday.

Mrs. Leola Zink of Elkhart, who has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. Edward Perkins, Prairie rd., the past two weeks, arrived here Thursday night for a visit with her daughter, Mrs. Fred Miller, N. Eighth st.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Berry will spend the week-end at Three Rivers, Mich. with Mrs. Berry's parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Schroyer.

Miss Mary Helpinsine, an evangelist from Chicago, will fill the pulpit at the Church of God Sunday morning. Miss Helpinsine will remain in South Bend until a new pastor has been appointed to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Rev. O. Austin.

Miss Hazel Harris, Ninth st., has been removed to St. Joseph hospital, Mishawaka, for treatment.

Miss Hazel Harris will entertain the Musicians' club at her home, 731 Blaine av., Saturday evening.

Announcements

Our Service

Economy to You!

The people of South Bend will do well to investigate the service offered by the Perfection Cleaners and Dyers. We are experts in our line. Our service—cleaning and dyeing—will keep your old clothes looking well for many months. That's economy.

Call Lincoln 1903
Perfection
Cleaners and Dyers
1101 King Street

CHARLES B. SAX AND COMPANY

114 South Michigan Street

The April Sales
End Next Saturday Evening

So clearly evident are the exceptional values in the Sales in progress this month that responses have been enthusiastic from the beginning. As the month draws to a close it is well to make note of the fact that many things are to be had at prices less-than-the-usual so long as April remains.

Merchandising mastery is reflected in the many offerings of the Sales. This Store puts its stamp of quality on every line.

There are unusual values awaiting you here in every department. It is an opportunity to save on reliable merchandise that should not be overlooked.

Spring Dresses

At Savings That Are Nothing Short of Amazing

Charm of style and becomingness, as well as excellent quality of fabric, stamp these Frocks as an opportunity for saving that clever, thrifty women of today will appreciate at a glance. Description could hardly do justice to their true beauty. We invite you to see them, even though you are not contemplating a dress purchase.

Street and Afternoon Frocks of Tricotines, Serges, Poiret Twills, Taffetas and Charmeuse, are included in this important Dress Selling Event.

Values Up to $50.00

Now On Sale at

$29.50

See Window Display

Lace and Embroidery
Week

Monday, April 26 to May 1st
at Ellsworth's

Laces and Embroideries

The wanted kinds—that are distinctive—moderately priced.

Dressy Shirts for Men

at Special Prices

for Saturday Only

Men's Shirts of Japanese Crepe, Philippine Repp and soft corded Madras, beautiful stripes, $3.50 values

$2.89

Fine Madras Silk Striped Shirts. These Shirts have the appearance of silk shirts, but wear better, $6.50 values

$5.95

The Ellsworth Store
"THE BRIGHTEST SPOT IN TOWN"

PIGGLY WIGGLY

Better Table Necessities For Less Money

SUGAR

As Usual PIGGLY WIGGLY Has It
GRANULATED—POWDERED
CUBES—BROWN

Navy Beans, Michigan fancy, hand picked, lb. . . . .	9c	Niles Fancy Creamery Butter, pound . . . . .	68c
Absorene, for cleaning wall paper . . . . .	15c	Hebe Compound Milk, large can . . . . .	10c
P & G Soap, per bar . . . . .	8c	"Gibbs" Tomatoes, No. 2 squat tin . . . . .	8c
Silent Salesman Hominy, No. 2 can . . . . .	9c	"Bond" Coffee, steel cut; try it, it's good, pound . . . . .	40c
Hostess Extra Standard Tomatoes, No. 2 can . . . . .	12c	Swift's Pure Lard, lb. . . . .	26c

PIGGLY WIGGLY NO. 3

Opens For Business At 909 S. Michigan St. About June 1—First Door North of South Bend State Bank.

See How Much You Can Save at Piggly Wiggly.

WE DON'T MEET PRICES, WE MAKE THEM

STATE LOAN CO.
"OLD AND RELIABLE"
Your Taxes
must be paid. It's a detriment to you to permit them to go delinquent. Let us furnish the money and you pay as you get paid. Lowest current rates.
Loans on Furniture, Pianos, Victrolas, Autos, Live Stock, Implements, Etc. Main 1746
ESTABLISHED 1903
2nd Floor Merchants Bank Bldg.
231 S. Mich. St.

SPECIALIST
IN FITTING GLASSES
"Kryptok Glasses" shell rim eyeglasses and deep curve toric lenses carefully fitted and adjusted—complete optical service.
Eyes Examined Thoroughly.
Hours 9 to 11, 2 to 5 and 7 to 8.
Tel., Lincoln 2722.
DR. G. C. PAUL
OPTOMETRIST
422 Farmers Trust Bldg.

Thomson & McKinnon
301-304 J. M. S. Bldg.
Members New York Stock Exchange, New York Cotton Exchange, Chicago Stock Exchange, Chicago Board of Trade and Indiana Bankers' Association. Direct Private Wires to All Markets.
—PHONES—
Bell Main 390, 391, 392
Lincoln 2078

Union Shoe Company
223 So. Michigan St.

Try NEWS-TIMES Want Ads.

At Wheelock's

CHOOSE THE RIGHT REFRIGERATOR
FOR YOUR HOME

A good refrigerator is as essential in a well equipped kitchen as a good range. In choosing your refrigerator there are many points to consider—

Proper Insulation Proper Lining
Proper Circulation Durability of Construction

The McCray, North Star and Indiana Refrigerators are built for good service, possessing all the requirements for perfect insulation.

We will gladly show them to you.

—Housewares Dept.

George H. Wheelock &amp; Company

At Wheelock's

When our sales increased from eight thousand tons in 1917 to twenty thousand tons in 1919 there must be a good reason.

There are several good reasons you will find when you have our ice and service.

Place your confidence in the ice company that never fails its customers.

ARTIFICIAL ICE CO.

Main 2221—395

Lincoln 6123—5395

Have your roofs coated with Elastic Roof Paint. Sold and applied by The Roof Products Co.
Phone Mishawaka 1923.
South Bend, Lincoln 8586