Orpheums Will Inade Wisconsin Next Week For Two Tournaments.

By JEIOPHAT SPARE.

Two of the few remaining leagues finished their schedules during the past week, when the Elks and Singers leagues, running down the curtain for their 1920 spring season. The Elks league, although they were hard pressed by the Bucktails, the latter finishing but one game behind the victors, and came near duplicating the performance of the preceding season. The Peps won third place, supplanting the Hoofs in the final series of games. In the Singer league the Shipping team won the honors. And they were the big surprise of the league. They started the season by losing the first two games. But once they started for the top they were never intercepted although it required the full distance to establish their superiority, reaching the top in the final series.

The standings of the two leagues just closed and the remaining ones are appended.

Tournaments in Favor.
Considerable interest remains in tournament play, which is not entirely confined locally. So far one-half of the South Bend entries have competed in the state tournament, which is now in progress at Fort Wayne. In two weeks there will be 14 five men teams from the Oliver league to roll in the state event and they will close the big show the following day.

Oliver Tournery Nearly Over.
A great deal of sport has been indulged in by the bowlers from the Oliver league, who are conducting a tournament at Orpheum alleys. All last week these boys were cannonading and piling lumber in the wood box, producing some very good scores as the result of their efforts. There were 24 five men teams entered and nearly all of these competed in doubles and singles.

Drillers Specials. won the five men event with 2816, the Forge team was second with 2806 and Production won third place with 2774. The surprise of the tournament was the place gained by the Factory team, which won the Parg during the league tournament but finished at absolute last in this event.

The winners are a picked team from surplus players of the league. The winners of the five men event are as follows:

Considering the scores posted in the various events and that handicaps prevail the Oliver league has a splendid system. The scores are not abnormal but compare favorably with all tournament play. The tournament has only a couple of days to run and will conclude this week.

Krzyszewski and Terry are leading in the doubles with 1147 and are closely followed by Kels and Bickel with 1135. Russell Bates is at present leading the singles with 653, rolling 626 flat and carrying a handicap of 27 for the three games. The standings of the doubles and singles to date are as follows:
