

HIDES BEHIND MASK OF RIGHTEOUSNESS

Goodrich Gang May be Forced Into Open by Inefficiency Charges.

Special to the News-Times
INDIANAPOLIS, April 26.—The republican administration of Indiana is having a lot of difficulties in hiding behind the mask of righteousness, which its satellites are in the habit of saying. Whenever some particularly vicious piece of inefficiency or worse comes to public gaze.

So thoroughly shaken has been the public confidence in Goodrich and its conduct of state institutions that charges of impropriety, neglect or misconduct from any source are being believed and is no longer sufficient for the state administration to claim its cleanliness and declare them false.

Denial Not Enough.
The people of Indiana are demanding investigation of every charge and whenever the Goodrich controlled gang seeks to deny the charge it is met with the assertion that if they are not true there should be no difficulty in which it is proved that they are false.

The Goodrich administration does not dare investigate itself and the predicament in which it is placed by the lack of weight of its denials is no less than would be produced by admission of charges made.

For example, Charles O. McNulty, a blind tiger operator, who was paroled by Gov. Goodrich, rose up to declare he was a prisoner who had been treated at the penal farm. The governor attempted to deny it, declaring that he had visited the penal farm often and had never seen anything of that kind.

Investigation Is Demanded.

The denial did not stick. Newspapers all over the state are demanding an investigation of the charges and men who have been at the penal farm are writing in their testimony in support of McNulty's denials.

Gov. Goodrich must defend himself and the penal farm and he is very, very loath to have an investigation of it in the open, where his own relations to its conduct can be brought out.

The relation of the state board of charities and corrections to investigate the conditions which have been exposed at the Marion county jail has hurt the state administration immensely. No denial of this failure was possible owing to the federal court action, and the inefficiency of the entire administration of the county and the state has stood out as the leading feature of the exposure.

Would Muzzle Press.

The Marion county expenses of Goodrich are now trying hard to kick up a counter agitation. They have charged a lawyer who exposed their improper grand jury methods with obtaining a fee from a client under false pretenses, but they have asked three continuances when he demanded an immediate trial.

The trial of the two newspaper men for contempt of court following the publication of this lawyer's story, but after a week of delay the newspaper found it necessary to prod them into action on the contempt proceedings.

In the meanwhile Amos Butler, secretary of the state board of charities, has been supplied with additional information regarding the penal farm and is sitting in a very trying position.

He cannot hold a public hearing on the charges without exposing the Goodrich administration of which he is a part.

He cannot convince anyone that the charges are not true without holding just such an investigation.

START SEARCH FOR DAKOTA MURDERERS

By UNITED PRESS
TURTLE LAKE, N. D., April 26.—Search for the murderer of seven persons here Saturday night was begun Monday by authorities. Footprints along the shore of a duck pond and the tools of a boat found nearby were the only clues.

The murderer included Jacob Wolf, wealthy farmer, his wife, their four daughters and a hired man. Robbery was believed to have been the motive. The seven were slain either with a shotgun or a small hatchet.

The surviving member of the Wolf family today was an eight-months-old baby—cooing in its crib at a neighbor's house.

The body of Mrs. Wolf, three of her daughters and the hired man had been thrown in the cellar. The body of the father and a daughter were covered with hay in a crouched

The Revolt of a Housewife

Have You A "Little Radical" In Your Home?

I am a kitchen-bolshevist! I will scrub my cook as though I were her equal!

Too long have I suppressed my individualism—my egotistic need! I have longed to have my meekly before that automatic symbol of industrial oppression—the cook!

This very morning, I shall go down into the kitchen, and cast the guilty monarch from the seats of the monarchy.

Why shall the one rule over the many—as she rules over me and mine?

My soul's "radicalism" should begin at home!

Suffering waffles!

Is my whole life to be mopped out according to a cook-book—an effects chemical system, imposed by a "dominant few"?

Why, for instance, must flour always be mixed with water, in order to make bread?

Do a cook-book and a muffin-ring constitute a soul-mating between these two?

My soul cries "No!"

I shall mix my flour with tomato catsup, and my corn-meal with tabasco-sauce! I shall bake my bread in a cold oven—scorning such piffling vulgar things as Japanese matches!

Why must bacon and eggs always be nated? And turkey and cranberry sauce forever bound together—perhaps against their personal wishes? Again, my soul protests! Food-mating should be free!

I shall serve the eggs with lemon meringue, with whipped cream, with chocolate fudge, with something—anything different!

I shall cover the turkey with a nut-mustard dressing, it with grapefruit and sweet, young sardines! The turkey, poor down-trodden victim of society, does not realize its personal rights, its individualism!

I shall call for gravy with my pie!

I shall demand tartar sauce upon my charlotte russe, and maple syrup on my orange juice.

No longer shall I weakly accept the conventionalized standards of "mother's cooking" and the norms of chemistry. They make me peevish!

Respectability and all its institutions, such as forks and napkins—I leave them for the bourgeois!

I will serve pink turkish towels for napkins, and fishhooks for forks.

WAS FORCED TO GIVE UP FARM

Blackwell Says Rheumatism Had Him Down And Out Until He Took Taniac.

"I am going back to the farm in better health than I have been in twelve years," said Roe Blackwell, R. F. D. 9, Box 168, West Terre Haute, Ind., as he told his woes after spending a week with Taniac.

"For twelve years before I began taking Taniac I had suffered from stomach trouble and rheumatism, and kept getting worse until about a year ago I had to give up farming, as I was not able to do any kind of hard work. My appetite was poor and nothing tasted right to me. About every meal I had been to see a doctor at once. I would turn terribly sick and there was always a bad taste in my mouth. I had rheumatism so bad that during damp, rainy weather my shoulders, arms and knees pained me so much and my joints became so stiff I could not get up and would have to just give up and go to bed. Often I was not able to get up for weeks at a time hardly able to move. Then, too, my kidneys worried me a great deal, there was always a severe pain in the small of my back and it hurt me so bad to bend over I could not lace and unlace my shoes.

"I hated to give up farming, but I just had to, although I had almost every kind of treatment and medication, none of them did me any good. I heard so much praise of Taniac I started taking it myself, and began to get better right away. Well, sir, I have now taken only six bottles in all, and I never had a better appetite in my life, and eat anything I want without it hurting me at all. The Taniac has set me entirely, my kidneys never bother me any more and the palms have all gone out of my back. All my friends know that Taniac has done for me, for I never meet them but what I tell them all about it and what a grand medicine it is, and I will always have a good word for it."

Taniac is sold in South Bend at The Central Drug Store, and in Mishawaka at the Red Cross Pharmacy.

Converse in Mackinac county to begin legal proceedings against the alleged trespassers, it was announced at the capital.

Nothing but a revolution can free this world from the tyranny of its cooks—and cook-books!

Nothing but revolt can make us happy!

I will be free!

Isn't it wonderful—to be a radical?

P. S.—(One hour later, I have been deported—from the kitchen! Belinda—the bourgeois—has shooed me out with a mop!)

A Last Call to Baptists

The canvass for the Hundred Million Dollar Fund for the New World Movement of Northern Baptists nears completion. The last pledges will be written Sunday, May 2nd.

It looks like Victory.

The success or failure of the campaign, however, can not yet be determined.

Upon you we must depend

Only you can know whether or not you have done your duty.

There is no test but your own conscience.

In this hour of world crisis, when humanity's need surpasses that of any other day in history, a "let-the-other-fellow-do-it" spirit will not permit a man to look his own soul in the face unashamed.

Does the pledge card you have signed bear "Approved of God" in unseen writing across its face? Perhaps you will need to tear it up and sign another.

He knows the insistent cry for help that the world is raising today. He has tried to reveal it to you.

He reads your bank account and knows the extent of your prosperity. He knows what you are spending for luxury and for pleasure.

It is He who speaks through the voice of your conscience.

Does your conscience say
